Growing Up in Bay Ridge Brooklyn Robert A. Henriksen, 2017-10-12 Growing Up In Bay Ridge Brooklyn Part of The Brooklyn past series of books In which neighborhood in Brooklyn did you grow up Do you yearn for the good old days This series of neighborhood books is the closest you ll get to reliving the past or if you re not from Brooklyn experiencing the fun the excitement and the tragedies right from the memories of the kids and the parents who lived there during the fascinating middle of the twentieth century These books walk you through the various neighborhoods in classic 1950s through 1980s Brooklyn detailing the iconic things of our time From the doctors who delivered us to the schools from which we graduated from the playgrounds and parks in which we played to the street games we made up by ourselves from all the great toys we had that have since been replaced by sharper technology our first bikes to our first cars we remember it all Take a trip down memory lane with these coffee table books written in an enjoyable accessible social media style Revisit all the best places we ate remember all the silly slang and the nonsensical stuff we used to say As with every passing generation we cling to the things that defined our youth However we who grew up in the fifties through the eighties experienced some of the most timeless pop culture in history and this extraordinary series will allow you to share that with your children using a language they understand social media This wonderful series of coffee table books contrasts bonding over modern social media with longing for the past If aliens came down to Earth sometime in the future and found these books they would act as a time capsule a treasure trove of memories of mid twentieth century pop culture and a demonstration of twenty first century netspeak and social media usage to boot Use these books to share your memories with friends who grew up elsewhere and as you pore over the pages find all the similarities and differences in the toys you owned versus the mom and pop businesses that you frequented Designed as coffee table books they can be picked up and put down at your leisure they do not need to be read cover to cover If you own these books and display them in your living room your friends will want to visit you more often Plenty Of Pictures and Brooklyn T shirts at the site Brooklynpast com The Parksloper Robert A. Henriksen, 2014-10-09 Did you grow up in Park Slope Brooklyn Do you yearn for the old days and wish you could have a more permanent scrapbook of the toys and games and mom and pop stores from your childhood The genesis for The Parksloper came out of a desire to broaden the scope of the memoir genre to allow the reader to place him or herself into the story or to use it as a tool to share his or her childhood with loved ones The memoir genre is criticized for being narcissistic who cares about the memories of one non famous person Therefore the series of Brooklyn neighborhood coffee table books that includes The Parksloper was developed in order to crowdsource and compile recollections of times long past using modern social media Rather than limiting the story of Brooklyn in the 1950s through the 1980s to one person s flawed memory The Parksloper is a compilation of stories about the treasured and iconic things that shaped the childhoods and parenthoods of those who lived in Brooklyn during the most fascinating era of the twentieth century This coffee table book is divided into entertaining and bite sized pieces and does not need to be read cover to cover It allows you to share your memories of Park Slope with your friends who grew up elsewhere and compare the iconic things that were shared throughout the nation while contrasting the special elements that made the Park Slope heritage unique It is a smorgasbord of reminiscences to last you and your loved ones years an infusion of the past into a lengthy future After the 1980s came to an end a generation of yuppies started moving into Park Slope driving up prices and driving out longtime residents They may call themselves Park Slopers and believe that they saved the neighborhood from itself but true Parkslopers have a much longer richer relationship with the neighborhood and its former community Are you a Park Sloper or a Parksloper Either way your connection to the neighborhood is truly your own but this book will help you and those you love recognize the building blocks that fed every single one of those relationships and ultimately tied them together The rich history that preceded Park Slope s current state must not be forgotten and The Parksloper endeavors to keep the past alive if only on the page The purchase of this book and the others in the series will allow you to witness firsthand how the revolution of social media truly keeps us all connected first to our own roots then to our new friends By using a language today s kids will understand you can better share with your children what your childhood was like before Park Slope changed forever It may be more expensive to live there now but Parkslopians know that Park Slope s worth has long been established and the reasons are now in print for the very first time Join the fun by giving this book a prized perch in your home and visit www.parkslopians.com for more information on Brooklyn and more nostalgia The Encyclopedia of Popular Music: Herbal Mixture-Louvin Brothers Colin Larkin,1998 Ebony ,2005-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine
