Leonard Woolf,1967 Sowing Leonard Woolf,1960 Theories of Imperialism (Routledge Revivals) Norman Etherington, 2014-07-11 First published in 1984 this study examines closely the shifting attitudes towards and theories concerning imperialism from the colonial wars of the late nineteenth century to America's involvement in Vietnam This lucid investigation encompasses the World Wars the disintegration of the Colonies and the Cold War It also gives fascinating insight into the theories of imperialism advocated by such diverse writers as Hobson Wilshire Angell Brailsford Luxemberg and Lenin Throughout the author objectively evaluates the theory that capitalism is a cause of aggression a fundamental tenet of anti imperialist writers It is Norman Etherington's contention that further investigations into the sources causes and effects of imperialism can only take place if the various theories concerning it are analysed A fascinating and detailed study this reissue will be of particular value to students interested in the theories and history of Growing. Rosenbaum, 2016-07-27 This is the second volume of a formidable Leonard Woolf, 1961 enterprise and part of a series of publications by the same author that may entitle him to the position as the leading scholar of the Bloomsbury Group Rosenbaum has managed to write with freshness and insight about Forster's novels no matter how much they have been analyzed before The next volume will deal with the effect of that exhibition upon the Group's writing and much more I am sure of its early literary history The work is eagerly awaited Peter Stanksy English Literature in Transition 1880 1920 Edwardian Bloomsbury is a continuation of the early literary history of the Bloomsbury Group begun with Victorian Bloomsbury but it can also be read independently as an account of the Group's interrelated writings during the Modernism and Empire Howard J. Booth, Nigel Rigby, 2000-06-10 This is the first first decade of the twentieth century book to explore the fascinating relationship between literary Modernism and Empire The book seeks to begin the task of exploring in a sustained way the relations between the artistic movement and colonialism The essays range over subjects and figures such as Ireland Africa Joyce Pound Townsend Warner Lawrence and Forster Kipling Woolf and Jean Rhys Return to Sri Lanka Razeen Sally, 2025-01-02 A blend of travel writing memoir history and current affairs that tells the story of Sri Lanka A perfect read for first time visitors Sri Lankans abroad or at home or anyone looking to deepen their understanding of one of the world's most fascinating and paradoxical countries Razeen Sally was born to a Sri Lankan Muslim father and a

Welsh mother Just before his teens a political conflict tore his family apart and he left Sri Lanka barely going back for thirty years When he finally returned home he spent much of the next decade crisscrossing the island trying to understand this paradoxical place Blessed with nature s bounty and an easy pleasure loving people it was nevertheless scarred by ethnic conflict and the violence of civil war As a native and a tourist Sally makes an ideal guide to Sri Lanka's past and present He won t tell you which restaurant has the best reviews or the price of a hotel room Instead he will accompany you like a learned friend sharing his journeys pointing out the unmissable gems beyond the obvious spots and unpacking the nation s culture and history Insightful intimate and moving Return to Sri Lanka is an indispensable book whether you re already familiar with this spectacular country or planning your first visit England Through Colonial Eyes in Twentieth-Century Fiction A. Blake, L. Gandhi, S. Thomas, 2015-12-27 Much attention has focused on the imperial gaze at colonised peoples cultures and lands But during and after the British Empire what have writers from those cultures made of England the English and issues of race gender class ethnicity and desire when they have travelled expatriated or emigrated to England This question is addressed through studies of the domestic novel and the Bildungsroman and through essays on Mansfield Rhys Stead Emecheta Lessing Naipaul Emecheta Rushdie and Dabydeen Bloomsbury, Beasts and British Modernist Literature Derek Ryan, 2022-12-15 Bloomsbury Beasts and British Modernist Literature reveals how the Bloomsbury group's fascination with beasts from pests to pets tiny insects to big game became an integral part of their critique of modernity and conceptualisation of more than human worlds Through a series of close readings it argues that for Leonard Woolf David Garnett Virginia Woolf and E M Forster profound shifts in interspecies relations were intimately connected to questions of imperialism race gender sexuality and technology Whether in their hunting narratives zoo fictions canine biographies or un entomological aesthetics these writers repeatedly test the boundaries between and imagine transformations of the human and nonhuman by insisting that we attend to the material contexts in which they meet In demonstrating this the book enriches our understanding of British modernism while intervening in debates on the cultural significance of animality from the turn of the twentieth century to the Second World War Liberal Intellectuals and Public Culture in Modern Britain, 1815-1914 William C. Lubenow, 2010 Liberal Intellectual and Public Culture in Modern Britain shows how liberal values reconstructed public space in Britain after the repeal of the Test and Corporation Acts 1828 and the passage of Catholic emancipation 1829 It traces the century long process against subscription to the Thirty Nine Articles It examines the emergence of the intellectual authority of the universities and the social authority of the professions This cultural capital antique and modern letters mathematics filled the public sphere and provided the materials for intellectual change Roman Catholicism and nationalism revealed the fragilities of this public culture Back cover Modernism and Latin America Patricia Novillo-Corvalán, 2017-09-22 This book is the first in depth exploration of the relationship between Latin American and European modernisms during the long twentieth century Drawing on comparative historical and postcolonial reading strategies including archival research it seeks to reenergize the study of modernism by putting the spotlight on the cultural networks and aesthetic dialogues that developed between European and non European writers including Pablo Neruda James Joyce Leonard Woolf Virginia Woolf Jorge Luis Borges Victoria Ocampo Roberto Bola o Julio Cort zar Samuel Beckett Octavio Paz Carlos Fuentes and Malcolm Lowry The book explores a wide range of texts that reflect these writers complex concerns with questions of exile space empire colonization reception translation human subjectivity and modernist experimentation By rethinking modernism comparatively and by placing this intricate web of cultural interconnections within an expansive transnational and transcontinental framework this unique study opens up new perspectives that delineate the construction of a polycentric geography of modernism It will be of interest to those studying global modernisms as well as Latin American literature transatlantic studies comparative literature world literature translation studies and the global south Pacific Affairs ,1968 Includes book reviews and bibliographies The Rise and Fall of British India Karl de Schweinitz Jr,2019-08-13 A great deal of argument about the theory and practice of imperialism has been generated in recent years much of it Eurocentric and much of it focusing on the causes of imperialism In this singularly clear and perceptive study first published in 1983 Karl de Schweinitz concentrates instead on a view of imperialism as a coercive relationship Woolf Viviane Forrester, 2015-05-19 Winner of the prestigious Prix Goncourt award for biography this remarkable portrait sheds new light on Virginia Woolf's relationships with her family and friends and how they shaped her work Virginia Woolf A Portrait blends recently unearthed documents key primary sources and personal interviews with Woolf's relatives and other acquaintances to render in unmatched detail the author's complicated relationship with her husband Leonard her father Leslie Stephen and her half sister Vanessa Bell Forrester connects these figures to Woolf's mental breakdown while introducing the concept of Virginia seule or Virginia alone an uncommon paragon of female strength and conviction Forrester s biography inhabits her characters and vivifies their perspective weaving a colorful intense drama that forces readers to rethink their understanding of Woolf her writing and her world In the Hollow of the Wave Bonnie Kime Scott, 2012 Examining the writings and life of Virginia Woolf In the Hollow of the Wave looks at how Woolf treated nature as a deliberate discourse that shaped her way of thinking about the self and the environment and her strategies for challenging the imbalances of power in her own culture all of which remain valuable in the framing of our discourse about nature today Bonnie Kime Scott explores Woolf's uses of nature including her satire of scientific professionals and amateurs her parodies of the imperial conquest of land her representations of flora and fauna her application of post impressionist and modernist modes her merging of characters with the environment and her ventures across the species barrier In shedding light on this discourse of Woolf and the natural world Scott brings to our attention a critical neglected and contested aspect of modernism itself She relies on feminist ecofeminist and postcolonial theory in the process drawing also on the relatively recent field of animal studies By focusing on multiple registers of Woolf's uses of nature the author paves the way for more extended research in modernist practices natural history garden and landscape studies and lesbian queer studies Exploring Text, Media, and Memory Patrizia Lombardo, Lars SAetre, Lars S'tre, Sara Tanderup Linkis, 2018-12-31 Exploring Text Media and Memory investigates the link between memory and media by asking a series of questions pertinent to our time How do individual and collective memories blend How do traumatic experiences from past events and catastrophic projections of the future reveal the human condition in the epoch of frenetic technological reproduction of works of art How is the human body tied to narrations and why A group of international scholars tackle questions like these across art forms media and cultural history In nineteen essays they argue that modern and contemporary literary texts and visual arts show how photography film tape recording television and internet are not just means of storing memory and information but objects that we interact with every day challenging static visions of places and the linear notions of past present and future A History of Modernist Literature Andrzej Gasiorek, 2015-06-15 A History of Modernist Literature offers a critical overview of modernism in England between the late 1890s and the late 1930s focusing on the writers texts and movements that were especially significant in the development of modernism during these years A stimulating and coherent account of literary modernism in England which emphasizes the artistic achievements of particular figures and offers detailed readings of key works by the most significant modernist authors whose work transformed early twentieth century English literary culture Provides in depth discussion of intellectual debates the material conditions of literary production and dissemination and the physical locations in which writers lived and worked The first large scale book to provide a systematic overview of modernism as it developed in England from the late 1890s through to the late 1930s
