Guangdong And Chinese Diaspora The Changing Landscape Of Qiaoxiang Routledge Contemporary China:

Guangdong and Chinese Diaspora Yow Cheun Hoe, 2013-06-26 China's rapid economic growth has drawn attention to the Chinese diasporic communities and the multiple networks that link Chinese individuals and organizations throughout the world. Ethnic Chinese have done very well economically and the role of the Chinese Diaspora in China's economic success has created a myth that their relations with China is natural and primordial and that regardless of their base outside China and generation of migration the Chinese Diaspora are inclined to participate enthusiastically in China's social and economic agendas. This book seeks to dispel such a myth. By focusing on Guangdong, the largest ancestral and native homeland, it argues that not all Chinese diasporic communities are the same in terms of mentality and orientation and that their connections to the ancestral homeland vary from one community to another. Taking the two Cantonese speaking localities of Panyu and Xinyi, Yow Cheun Hoe examines the hierarchy of power and politics of these two localities in terms of their diasporic kinsfolk in Singapore and Malaysia in comparison with their counterparts in North America and Hong Kong. The book reveals that particularly in China's reform era since 1978, the arguably primordial sentiment and kinship are less than crucial in determining the content and magnitude of linkages between China and the overseas Chinese. Rather, it suggests that since 1978, business calculation and economic rationale are some of the key motivating factors in determining the destination and degree of diasporic engagement. Examining various forms of Chinese diasporic engagement with China, this book will appeal to students and scholars of Chinese Diaspora, Chinese culture and society, Southeast Asian culture and society, and ethnicity.

Handbook of Chinese Migration to Europe, 2024-12-09 Editors in Chief Mette Thuno and Simeng Wang Associate Editors Emilie Tran Sautede and Yu chin Tseng The Handbook of Chinese Migration to Europe offers a comprehensive exploration of recent human mobility from China to Europe. Written by leading scholars from various disciplines, its 23 chapters delve into the multifaceted dimensions of Chinese migrants and their descendants across Europe, providing novel explorations into migration motivations and pathways, China's diaspora engagement, economic entrepreneurship, socialization, and identity constructions. Each chapter presents existing scholarship and contributes with fresh empirical research that challenges conventional assumptions. Whether you are a researcher, policymaker, journalist, commentator, practitioner, or student, this handbook provides invaluable insights, reshaping our understanding of migration and China-Europe dynamics in the 21st century.

Reimagining Chinese Diasporas in a Transnational World Shibao Guo, 2023-09-06 Reimagining Chinese Diasporas in a Transnational World examines the changing nature of the Chinese diasporas in a transnational world and its concomitant implications for Chinese diaspora studies internationally. With a shifting paradigm of transnationalism and transnational migration, new patterns of Chinese mobilities have emerged that can be characterised as multiple and circular rather than unidirectional or final. This book illustrates how the analytical constructs of hypermobility, hyperdiversity, and hyperconnectivity aid in the understanding of contemporary Chinese transnational diasporas The book offers new research findings and theorisation and contributes to the existing Chinese diasporas literature and the interdisciplinary fields of ethnic migration and mobility studies It stimulates further research and scholarly work on the Chinese diasporas in the age of transnational migration This book will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of sociology ethnic studies international politics and migration studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies     The Social Production of Buddhist Compassion in Chinese Societies Khun Eng Kuah,2021-11-07 This book investigates and establishes a theoretical framework for the study of the social production of religious compassion in the era of shale modernity among Chinese communities in Hong Kong Singapore and Taiwan It argues that the production of Buddhist compassionate fields in the 21st century is a response to the rising social inequality and social needs of modern society Religious compassion serves as an emotive force that propels the religious self and socio religious groups to commit to the performance of acts of philanthropy that includes the delivery of welfare and care services medical care education and humanitarian aid Through a combination of documentation analysis and anthropological research the book examines the interconnectivity of reformist Buddhist teachings of compassion charisma gender and state in influencing the attitudes and actions of the sangha and Buddhist individuals in the production of Buddhist compassionate fields in a changing socio economic landscape It will be of interest to scholars from anthropology sociology religious studies and Asian studies

Global Medicine in China Wayne Soon,2020-10-20 In 1938 one year into the Second Sino Japanese War the Chinese military found itself in dire medical straits Soldiers were suffering from deadly illnesses and were unable to receive blood transfusions for their wounds The urgent need for medical assistance prompted an unprecedented flowering of scientific knowledge in China and Taiwan throughout the twentieth century Wayne Soon draws on archives from three continents to argue that Overseas Chinese were key to this development utilizing their global connections and diasporic links to procure much needed money supplies and medical expertise The remarkable expansion of care and education that they spurred saved more than four million lives and trained more than fifteen thousand medical personnel Moreover the introduction of military medicine shifted biomedicine out of elite urban civilian institutions and laboratories and transformed it into an adaptive field based practice for all Universal care practical medical education and mobile medicine are all lasting legacies of this effort

Southeast Asia in China Ying-kit Chan,Chang-Yau Hoon,2022-11-28 As part of China s south Southeast Asia has historically assumed a peripheral position when juxtaposed against the power of the Chinese state In the existing scholarly literature the power asymmetry is reflected in the ostensible bias where most studies are about China s presence in or engagement with Southeast Asia rather than the reverse studies on the presence or influence of Southeast Asia in China have been a marginal enterprise The present volume aims to fill this void by exploring the historical entanglements and contemporary engagements of Southeast Asia ns in China through a Southeast Asian perspective As China seeks to understand Southeast Asia's presence in the country on its own terms it is also engaged in a process of self discovery and defining where and how it should stand in relation to the region Departing from the discourse of China as the a priori center dominating the scholarship on China Southeast Asia relations the present volume hopes to subvert such power relations in order to bring fresh perspectives on the historical and contemporary contributions of Southeast Asians in China

Disability Policy in China Xiaoyuan Shang, Karen R. Fisher, 2015-12-14 Without access to a public social welfare system in parts of China some families face invidious decisions about the lives of their children with disabilities In other places children with disabilities can now expect to participate in their families and communities with the same aspirations as other children Understanding how Chinese policy has changed in the places that have addressed these stark situations is vital for the rights of the children and their families who still struggle to find the support they need This book examines family experiences of child disability policy in China and is the first to compile research on this area It applies a child disability rights framework in four domains care and protection economic security development and participation to investigate families experiences of the effectiveness of support to fulfil their children's rights Questioning how families experience the interrelationships between these rights it also considers what the further implications of the policy are It includes vivid case studies of families experiences and combines these with national data to draw out the likely future policy directions to which the Chinese government has said it is committed Bringing together a wealth of statistical and qualitative data on children with disabilities this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Chinese social welfare social policy society and children's studies as well as policy makers and NGOs alike

Coming Home to a Foreign Country Soon Keong Ong, 2021-08-15 Ong Soon Keong explores the unique position of the treaty port Xiamen Amoy within the China Southeast Asia migrant circuit and examines its role in the creation of Chinese diasporas Coming Home to a Foreign Country addresses how migration affected those who moved out of China and later returned to participate in the city's economic revitalization educational advancement and urban reconstruction Ong shows how the mobility of overseas Chinese allowed them to shape their personal and community identities for pragmatic and political gains This resulted in migrants who returned with new money knowledge and visions acquired abroad which changed the landscape of their homeland and the lives of those who stayed Placing late Qing and Republican China in a transnational context Coming Home to a Foreign Country explores the multilayered social and cultural interactions between China and Southeast Asia Ong investigates the role of Xiamen in the creation of a China Southeast Asia migrant circuit the activities of aspiring and returned migrants in Xiamen the accumulation and manipulation of multiple identities by Southeast Asian Chinese as political conditions changed and the motivations behind the return of Southeast Asian Chinese and their continual involvement in mainland Chinese affairs For Chinese migrants Ong argues the idea of home was something consciously constructed Ong complicates familiar narratives of Chinese history to show how the emigration and return of overseas Chinese helped transform Xiamen from a marginal trading outpost at the edge of the Chinese empire to a modern prosperous city and one of the most important migration hubs by the 1930s

Diaspora Space-Time Anne-Christine Trémon, 2022-12-15 Diaspora Space Time explores the transformations of Pine Mansion a Shenzhen former emigrant community and its members changing relationship with their diaspora around the world For more than a century inhabitants of Shenzhen s villages have migrated to Southeast Asia the Pacific North and South America and Europe With China s economic global ascendancy these villages no longer consist of peasants dependent on their rich overseas relatives As the villages have become part of the special economic zone of Shenzhen the megacity that embodies China s rise emigration has waned Lineage ties have long been central in choosing migration destinations and channeling donations to village projects After China s reopening Shenzhen s villagers used diaspora as a resource to participate in the city s booming economy and to reestablish and protect their ritual sites against government plans As overseas financial contributions diminish and diasporic relations change Anne Christine Trémon highlights the way emigration is being reconceptualized in regards to China s changing position in the world offering a new perspective on Chinese globalization and the politics of scale making 中国移民的海外空间 陈瑜, 2020-05-01 21 21 21 18 Social Attitudes in Contemporary China

Chen Yu, Fang Wei, Liqing Li, Paul Morrissey, Nie Chen, 2016-02-12 Unlike many studies of social attitudes which are based on large scale quantitative surveys or which focus on the attitude of elites this book considers the views of ordinary people and is based on in depth qualitative interviews This approach results in rich nuanced data and is especially helpful for highlighting ambivalent attitudes where respondents may hold positive and negative views on a particular topic views which are liable to change The book examines attitudes on a range of subjects of current importance including views on nationalism and internationalism housing preferences and educational ambitions Throughout the book explores how far attitudes are influenced by traditional Chinese values or by the neo liberal outlook fostered by recent reforms and concludes that materialism and individualism have increased
