The Best of TMWG Rob Alexander, 2013-02-28 I've got Peter Gabriel's 'I Don't Remember' going thru my head this morning and most of yesterday and the day before it seems important to some part of my soul which sits with signs and applause everytime it goes thru my head they like the drive of the artist's expression of frustration and anxiety which comes thru in a manic crazyness the song is an example of something that flashes us spiritually maybe unlike a man in a trenchcoat wearing shorts with a tee shirt flashing us briefly now as we walk by the words believe in god embellished on his shirt echo on the canvas of the imagination it doesn't matter if we turn around run after him and chide him in his actions it doesn't matter if by doing this it puts him in the same allegory as a pervert and by action god as well ultimately tho the tired worn out god quietly sitting in a corner desperately trying to believe in himself probably wondering how valid this whole soap opera is and whether or not spiritual flashers help or hurt his cause now I got one of the songs from the last temptation of Christ going thru my head soundtrack ala Peter Gabriel as well another spiritual flasher who Jesus or Peter Gabriel both an arrow pointing at a path to be walked or a voice to listen to or a feeling to behold the hardest part is opening your heart up to the option the option to be open maybe it's God that's trying to get into a working relationship with us and it's us that flinch and put it back up on a pedestal why pursue it then the path you might accidentally get superpowers or something start levitating healing the sick curing the blind become an issue to be dealt with by turkeys that can't fly walk around wonder when Thanksgiving is wonder if you look like a turkey if you are a turkey walking around with turkeys talking turkey talk about how great it is to be a turkey waiting for other turkeys to come over and watch turkey friends on turkey TV and each turkey has the same turkey right to talk turkey to any turkey it wants in a frantic pace with a frantic face then it's a good turkey day to be a turkey gobble it up the daily rut question your life avoid the knife be not a turkey entwined behind the line of commonality to turkey HQ after awhile you fall into the style you are accepted people talk to you and you find flaws in the turkey tune      Seeing Differently Amelia Jones,2013-06-19 Seeing Differently offers a history and theory of ideas about identity in relation to visual arts discourses and practices in Euro American culture from early modern beliefs that art is an expression of an individual the painted image a world picture expressing a comprehensive and coherent point of view to the rise of identity politics after WWII in the art world and beyond The book is both a history of these ideas for example tracing the dominance of a binary model of self and other from Hegel through classic 1970s identity politics and a political response to the common claim in art and popular political discourse that we are beyond or post identity In challenging this latter claim Seeing Differently critically examines how and why we identify works of art with an expressive subjectivity noting the impossibility of claiming we are post identity given the persistence of beliefs in art discourse and broader visual culture about who the subject is and offers a new theory of how to think this kind of identification in a more thoughtful and self reflexive way Ultimately Seeing Differently offers a mode of thinking identification as a queer feminist durational process that can never be fully resolved but must be accounted for in thinking about art and visual culture Queer feminist durationality is a mode of relational interpretation that affects both art and interpreter potentially making us more aware of how we evaluate and give value to art and other kinds of visual culture      Devour Us Not Arnold P.

Powers,2013-12 To stand in silence when they should be protesting makes cowards out of men Abraham Lincoln To be inhuman is to watch the inhumane treatment of others in silence Arnold P Powers Tis better to be silent and be thought a fool than to speak and remove all doubt Abraham Lincoln In the end we will remember not the words of our enemies but the silence of our friends Rev Dr Martin Luther King Jr This Book has taken five years to complete but it s really incomplete There are still elements of our family s history that has been hidden from us and still remains to be researched The complexity of information concealed by Whites is not alone Just as many Blacks for whatever reason has also concealed information for the sole purpose of who knows But it gives me a sense of who we are as people the genealogy research bug Where you go back into our fore fathers lives and the puzzles wait anyone daring to put the pieces together is worth the assured disappointment of dissatisfaction that will assuredly come But it never taints the curiosity Photo on the front cover is a newspaper article from The Pensacola Journal dated December 16 1906 The two individuals pictured are Uncle Joe and Aunt Lucy Real people described as Good Ole Antebellum Colored Folks Back Cover is from The San Francisco Call newspaper article dated July 17 1904      Services in Canada W.R.
