How have they benefited from their program of family worship?

15 min: “Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers.” Discussion. Consider two or three potential conversation stoppers that publishers may encounter, and invite comments on how we might respond. Remind publishers that they will have an opportunity to relate experiences during the week of April 7.

Song 97 and Prayer

Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers

Why Important: Imagine that you know that a natural disaster is imminent. People will die unless they flee to safety. You go to a neighbor’s home to warn him, but he interrupts you, saying that he is busy. Surely, you would not quickly abandon your efforts to help him! Many in our territory turn us away, not realizing the life-saving value of our message. At the time of our visit, perhaps they are preoccupied. (Matt. 24:37-39) Or maybe they have been prejudiced by untrue rumors. (Matt. 11:18, 19) They might assume that we are no different from the religions that have produced bad fruitage. (2 Pet. 2:1, 2) If the householder initially is not interested, we should not be quick to give up.

How to Do It:

- Before preaching from house to house, take a few moments to think about potential conversation stoppers that you may encounter and consider how to respond.
- If the householder presents an objection, gently try to continue the conversation. Perhaps you can do that by commending him. For example, if he says that he has his own religion, you might reply, “I was hoping to find someone like you who has an interest in spiritual things.” Sometimes acknowledging the householder’s feelings or circumstances will enable you to continue giving a witness. For instance, if he says that he is busy, you might say: “I understand. But before I leave, I would like to give you this.” Another option is to ask a question if the householder says that he is not interested. You could say, “Do you mean that you are not interested in the Bible, or is it religion in general that does not interest you?”
- Use good judgment. Remember that Jehovah does not force people to listen. (Deut. 30:19) Everyone must carry his own load of spiritual responsibility. (Gal. 6:5) If the householder is adamant, it is best to take our leave. By demonstrating respect for his feelings, we may open the door for another publisher to give a witness in the future. —1 Pet. 3:15.

Try This During the Month:

- When you encounter a potential conversation stopper, after leaving the householder, discuss with your partner how you might have responded in a better way.

Maritime Security: Counter-Terrorism Lessons from Maritime Piracy and Narcotics Interdiction Edward R. Lucas, Samuel Rivera-Paez, Thomas Crosbie, Felix Falck Jensen, 2020-08-15 It can be easy to forget the critical role that maritime transport plays in the global economy but international maritime transportation is still responsible for around 90% of global trade Protecting the maritime infrastructure essential for this trade from terrorism is a major concern for the international community This book originates

from the NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW Counter Terrorism Lessons from Maritime Piracy and Narcotics Interdiction held in Copenhagen Denmark in May 2019 Participants in the three day workshop included policymakers senior military officers and academics from NATO member states international organizations and two partner nations Colombia and Israel Their extensive discussions focused on methods for protecting critical maritime infrastructure such as ports supplies and personnel from seaborne terrorist attacks Presentations and roundtables also addressed the human and social factors that contribute to the defense against terrorism in the maritime domain The book is divided into three sections organized crime and narcotrafficking maritime piracy and terrorism and aims to bridge the gaps between these three substantive areas of maritime security research These have remained largely separate areas of research in the past with the result that valuable maritime security lessons from counter piracy and counter narcotics operations have not been fully incorporated into counter terrorism best practice The book facilitates the transmission of lessons learned from counter piracy and counter narcotic operations to formulate recommendations for best practice and technological innovations to manage maritime terrorism and will be of interest to all those working in the field

Domestic Application of the ECHR Eirik

Bjorge, 2015-10-22 Domestic courts are entrusted with the application of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR as faithful trustees of the rights protected in the Convention This book analyses the way in which the domestic courts in the United Kingdom France and Germany apply the ECHR and how applying the Convention they define their relationship with the European Court of Human Rights Contrary to what others have contended the book argues that it is not true descriptively nor desirable normatively that the domestic courts approach the ECHR based upon friction and assertion of sovereignty vis vis the European Court The proper role played by the domestic courts and the one which they have taken on them to perform in fact is to apply the Convention in all good faith building on the principles of the Convention as set out in the jurisprudence of the European Court But if domestic courts are in a position to apply the ECHR in the first place it is because the application of the Convention has been entrusted to them by the other organs of the municipal state in certain cases municipal principles of the separation of powers have an important bearing on domestic interpretation and application of the Convention Domestic Application of the ECHR Courts as Faithful Trustees shows that through their faithful application of the ECHR domestic courts can and do make a positive contribution to the development of the law of the Convention

Delivering Family Justice in the 21st Century Mavis Maclean, John Eekelaar, Benoit Bastard, 2015-08-27

Family justice requires not only a legal framework within which personal obligations are regulated over the life course but also a justice system which can deliver legal information advice and support at times of change of status or family stress together with mechanisms for negotiation dispute management and resolution with adjudication as the last resort The past few years have seen unparalleled turbulence in the way family justice systems function These changes are associated with economic constraints in many countries including England and Wales where legal aid for private family matters has largely disappeared But there is also a change in ideology in a number of jurisdictions including Canada towards what is sometimes called neo liberalism whereby the state seeks to reduce its area of activity while at the same time maintaining strong views on family values Legal services may become fragmented and marketised and the role of law and lawyers reduced while self help web based services expand The contributors to this volume share their anxieties about the impact on the ability of individuals to achieve fair and informed resolution in family matters
