who created A Streetcar Named Desire, The Glass Menagerie and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof as it is a trenchant exploration of Williams's plays and the tortured process of bringing them to stage and screen. The portrait of Williams himself is unforgettable: a virgin until he was twenty-six, he had serial homosexual affairs thereafter as well as long-time bruising relationships with Pancho Gonzalez and Frank Merlo. With compassion and verve, Lahr explores how Williams's relationships informed his work and how the resulting success brought turmoil to his personal life. Lahr captures not just Williams's tempestuous public persona but also his backstage life where his agent Audrey Wood and the director Elia Kazan play major roles and Marlon Brando, Anna Magnani, Bette Davis, Maureen Stapleton, Diana Barrymore and Tallulah Bankhead have scintillating walk-on parts. This is a biography of the highest order: a book about the major American playwright of his time written by the major American drama critic of his time. Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Written at various times over the last twenty-five years but never produced, the four scripts included in Tennessee Williams's Stopped Rocking and Other Screenplays encompass both the realistic style of the early Williams, the author's quotes and the more experimental dramatic devices of many of his later plays. Two screenplays from the fifties, All Gaul Is Divided and The Loss of a Teardrop Diamond, remained in the files of Williams's New Orleans apartment until a thorough cleaning uncovered them in the mid-seventies. Thus All Gaul, an expanded version of the story of a St. Louis teacher's dreams of love told in A Lovely Sunday for Creve Coeur (1978), actually predates that play. A companion piece in mood and style, The Loss of a Teardrop Diamond lyrically evokes the late twenties debutante society of Memphis and the Delta plantations. Adapted from the graphic short story of the same name, One Arm concerns a young male hustler awaiting execution for murder. Because much of the visual action is combined with a voice-over narration, Williams considered the form of this film play from the late sixties somewhat experimental. In Stopped Rocking (1977), Williams returns to a familiar theme: the institution as the last haven of those who cannot cope with daily conflict and have resigned from life. He was confident that this play, like so many of his others, would eventually find its audience. I know that the dark of the work is more than balanced by its humanity and that this light of humanity will tip the balance favorably as a natural act of grace. The Red Devil Battery Sign Tennessee Williams, 1988. This book is William's symbol for the military-industrial complex and all the dehumanizing trends it represents: from mindless cocktail party chatter to bribery of officials to assassination plots directed against those who won't play the game to attempted coups by right-wing zealots. Stairs to the Roof Tennessee Williams, 2000. A play produced only twice in the 1940s and now published for the first time, it reveals that Tennessee Williams anticipated the themes of Star Trek by decades. Memoirs Tennessee

Williams, 2015-06-22 For the old crocodile as Williams called himself late in life the past was always present and so it is with his continual shifting and intermingling of times places and memories as he weaves this story When Memoirs was first published in 1975 it created quite a bit of turbulence in the media though long self identified as a gay man Williams candor about his love life sexual encounters and drug use was found shocking in and of itself and such revelations by America's greatest living playwright were called a raw display of private life by The New York Times Book Review As it turns out thirty years later Williams look back at his life is not quite so scandalous as it once seemed he recalls his childhood in Mississippi and St Louis his prolonged struggle as a starving artist the overnight success of The Glass Menagerie in 1945 the death of his long time companion Frank Merlo in 1962 and his confinement to a psychiatric ward in 1969 and subsequent recovery from alcohol and drug addiction all with the same directness compassion and insight that epitomize his plays And of course Memoirs is filled with Williams amazing friends from the worlds of stage screen and literature as he often hilariously sometimes fondly sometimes not remembers them Laurette Taylor Gore Vidal Truman Capote Elia Kazan Marlon Brando Vivian Leigh Carson McCullers Anna Magnani Greta Garbo Elizabeth Taylor and Tallulah Bankhead to name a few And now film director John Waters well acquainted with shocking the American public has written an introduction that gives some perspective on the various reactions to Tennessee's Memoirs while also paying tribute to a fellow artist who inspired many with his integrity and endurance
