and general readers interested in premodern Chinese literature and culture Chinese History Endymion Porter Wilkinson, 2000 Endymion Wilkinson's bestselling manual of Chinese history has long been an indispensable guide to all those interested in the civilization and history of China. In this latest edition, now in a bigger format, its scope has been dramatically enlarged by the addition of one million words of new text. Twelve years in the making, the new manual introduces students to different types of transmitted, excavated, and artifactual sources from prehistory to the twentieth century. It also examines the context in which the sources were produced, preserved, and received, the problems of research and interpretation associated with them, and the best most up-to-date secondary works. Because the writing of history has always played a central role in Chinese politics and culture, special attention is devoted to the strengths and weaknesses of Chinese historiography.

Ancient and Early Medieval Chinese Literature (vol. 3 & 4), 2014-09-18 At last here is the long-awaited first Western language reference guide focusing exclusively on Chinese literature from ca 700 B.C.E. to the early seventh century C.E. Part Three contains X-Y, Part Four contains the Z, and an extensive index to the four volumes. Vulgar Beauty Mila Zuo, 2022-01-24 In Vulgar Beauty, Mila Zuo offers a new theorization of cinematic feminine beauty by showing how mediated encounters with Chinese film and popular culture stars produce feelings of Chineseness. To illustrate this, Zuo uses the vulgar as an analytic to trace how racial, gendered, and cultural identity is imagined and produced through affect. She frames the vulgar as a characteristic that is experienced through the Chinese concept of weidao or flavor, in which bitter, salty, pungent, sweet, and sour performances of beauty produce non-Western forms of sexualized and racialized femininity. Analyzing contemporary film and media ranging from actress Gong Li's post-Mao movies of the late 1980s and 1990s to Joan Chen's performance in Twin Peaks to Ali Wong's stand-up comedy specials, Zuo shows how vulgar beauty disrupts Western and colonial notions of beauty. Vulgar beauty then becomes the taste of difference. By demonstrating how Chinese feminine beauty becomes a cinematic invention invested in forms of affective racialization, Zuo makes a critical reconsideration of aesthetic theory. Twentieth Century China James H. Cole, 2004 Emphasizing reference works published since 1964, these volumes cover books, periodicals, and inclusions in chapters in edited volumes on the 1911 Revolution, the Republic of China, 1949 post-1911 Taiwan, post-1911 Hong Kong, and Macao, and post-1911 overseas Chinese. The United States and China Dong Wang, 2021-07-28 Now fully revised and updated, The United States and China offers a comprehensive synthesis of US-Chinese relations from initial contact to the present. Balancing the modern (1784-1949) and contemporary (1949-present) periods, Dong Wang retraces centuries of interaction between two of the world's great powers from the perspective of both sides. She examines state to state diplomacy as well as economic, social, military, religious, and cultural interplay within varying national and international contexts. As China itself continues to grow in global importance, so too does the US-Chinese relationship, and this book provides an essential grounding for understanding its past, present, and possible futures. Missionary Spaces Thomas Coomans, 2024-05-02. The spatial turn of missionary places. Situated at the crossroads of missionary history, imperial history, and colonial architecture, this volume examines the architectural staging and spatial implications of the worldwide expansion of Christianity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. By focusing on specific architectural fragments, analysing the intersection of Christian edifices in colonial and traditional urban settings, or unravelling the social understanding of missionary places, each chapter strives to understand the agency of missionary spaces. Bringing together scholars from different disciplines and fields, this book aims to centre those missionary spaces by approaching them not merely as a container around and within which the missionary encounter was acted out, but by making them part and parcel of it. Through its approach, Missionary Spaces provides a new paradigm for scrutinising the spatial turn for missionary histories and contributes to the increased attention across the humanities to space, place, and location since the late 1990s. Space does not occur as an historical given but as a social construction to be analysed while, at the same time, having explanatory value of its own. This book focuses on Africa and the Chinese Region, with contributions on Burundi, China, Congo, Egypt, Ghana, Kenya, and Taiwan.

The Use of Mao and the Chongqing Model Joseph Y.S. CHENG, 2015-07-10. MAO Zedong was a Chinese communist leader and founder of the People's Republic of China. He developed his own ideology and methodology known as Maoism or Mao Zedong Thought, and his thought has a great influence in China or even overseas. This book aims at bringing together a group of scholars to address the uses of Mao in China PRC today, with special reference to the Bo Xilai case. It also provides insights and detail on how and what we know about modern China. Contributing authors, including a number of French scholars, illustrate how Maoism influences and engages in government, business sector, or social life. This timely volume will be of considerable interest to scholars, journalists, and those keen to better understand the changing values in China today.
