

KINDERTRANSPORT

- 'Between 1938 and the outbreak of war, almost 10,000 children, most of them Jewish, were sent by their parents from Germany to Britain... Nine-year-old Eva ends up in Manchester... When Eva's parents fail to escape Germany, the child changes her name and begins the process of denial of her roots... It is only when her own daughter... discovers some old letters in the attic that Eva is forced to confront the truth about her past... Samuels has written the best play about the pain and passion of mother/daughter relationships...' Guardian
- Winner of the 1992 Verity Bargate Award, KINDERTRANSPORT was first staged by the Soho Theatre Company at the Cockpit in London and subsequently at the Manhattan Theater Club in New York. This edition includes several personal memoirs by German-born children – now British citizens in their fifties and sixties – whose lives were saved, and transformed, by Kindertransport.
- 'A powerful contribution to Holocaust literature... presented with emotional clarity and intense sympathy.' New Yorker
