King Returns Washington Explorations Rhetoric:

King Returns to Washington Jefferson Walker, 2017-12-09 Exploring the Dr Martin Luther King Jr National Memorial King Memorial in Washington DC through a multi faceted rhetorical analysis of the site s visual and textual components Jefferson Walker reveals multiple critical popular privileged and vernacular interpretations of the site and Dr Martin Luther King s memory Walker argues that the King Memorial and its related texts help to universalize and institutionalize King s ethos creating a contentious rhetorical battleground where various people and organizations contest the ownership and use of King s memory Walker uses these analyses to uncover how the site contributes to the public memory of Dr Martin Luther King Jr

Casting the Art of Rhetoric with Theater and Drama Adrienne E. Hacker Daniels, 2025-06-12 Casting the Art of Rhetoric with Theater and Drama Taking Center Stage explores rhetoric and theater as they relate to one another developing the understanding of rhetoric as theory and praxis This book addresses rhetorical themes and cultural resonances as well as the oft overlooked symbiosis of rhetoric and theater Rather than addressing audiences as either observers of rhetorical artifacts or theatrical performance this work demonstrates the intersection of the two which strengthens theatrical events and their cultural significance Overall the volume showcases the many ways in which an understanding of the relationship between rhetorical and poetic theories can benefit dramatic convention and the breaking thereof

African American Culture Omari L. Dyson, Judson L. Jeffries Ph.D., Kevin L. Brooks, 2020-07-23 Covering everything from sports to art religion music and entrepreneurship this book documents the vast array of African American cultural expressions and discusses their impact on the culture of the United States According to the latest census data less than 13 percent of the U S population identifies as African American African Americans are still very much a minority group Yet African American cultural expression and strong influences from African American culture are common across mainstream American culture in music the arts and entertainment in education and religion in sports and in politics and business African American Culture An Encyclopedia of People Traditions and Customs covers virtually every aspect of African American cultural expression addressing subject matter that ranges from how African culture was preserved during slavery hundreds of years ago to the richness and complexity of African American culture in the post Obama era The most comprehensive reference work on African American culture to date the multivolume set covers such topics as black contributions to literature and the arts music and entertainment religion and professional sports It also provides coverage of less commonly addressed subjects such as African American fashion practices and beauty culture the development of jazz music across different eras and African American business

The Social Organization Amelia Manuti, Pasquale Davide de Palma, 2016-04-29 The Social Organization sheds light on how social media usage is transforming the way organizations make sense of their identity and processes By adopting a human capital perspective and merging research from communication studies and management it argues that social media could be fruitfully exploited by organizations as a competitive advantage

A Theory of

Accumulation and Secular Stagnation Daniel Aronoff, 2018-01-08 Thomas Malthus identified a crucial tension at the heart of a market economy While an accumulation of wealth is necessary to provide the capital investment needed to generate growth too much accumulation will cause planned saving to exceed profitable investment which will result in secular stagnation a condition of low growth and underemployment of resources Keynes drew inspiration from Malthus in his attempt to comprehend the causes of the Great Depression of the 1930s Now Aronoff demonstrates how a related but slightly different aspect of Malthus thought can illuminate one of the most pressing issues of our times In A Theory of Accumulation and Secular Stagnation Aronoff explores Malthus ideas relating to secular stagnation and uses the insight gained to understand the origins of the subpar growth and tepid employment periodically punctuated by booms that has plagued the US economy since the turn of the millennium He explains how the rise of mercantilism among Asian countries principally China and increased income concentration generated an upsurge in excess saving This accumulation created a chronic deficiency in demand while also depressing interest rates which generated a search for yield that fuelled periodic booms A Formula for Eradicating Racism Timothy McGettigan, Earl Smith, 2016-05-04 In this book Tim McGettigan and Earl Smith make the unprecedented argument that racism is a remediable form of suggestion induced sadism The authors explain in plain terms how societies like the USA construct racism and put forward a practical plan to eradicate racism in the USA and all over the world Community Reparation for Young Offenders N. Pamment, 2015-12-06 Community reparation for young offenders involves unpaid work such as painting and decorating litter picking and graffiti removal Whilst remaining a major part of the youth justice landscape concern has been raised about the poor quality of workplace provision In this book Nicholas Pamment provides the first fully researched examination of community reparation He establishes the most comprehensive model for the effective delivery of unpaid work demonstrating the importance of meaningful work placements which facilitate key employability skills associated with reductions in re offending Drawing upon empirical evidence and the experience of offenders he warns against a formulaic approach to workplace allocation where there is an over reliance on low cost menial tasks His timely study concludes that more attention needs to be paid to the rehabilitative potential of community reparation requiring the commitment and dedication of service providers Scenes, Semiotics and The New Real Chris Brown, 2015-11-19 This book provides a semiotic analysis of scenes powerful vehicles for introducing new ideas perspectives and behaviours as a concept In particular it examines the types of scene that exist explores their effectiveness in spreading new ideas and considers their vital role in introducing originality and difference in modern society Rethinking Interdisciplinarity across the Social Sciences and Neurosciences F. Callard, D. Fitzgerald, 2015-12-30 This book offers a provocative account of interdisciplinary research across the neurosciences social sciences and humanities Rooting itself in the authors own experiences the book establishes a radical agenda for collaboration across these disciplines This book is open access under a CC BY license Zombie Talk John Edgar Browning, David Castillo, David Schmid, David A.

Reilly,2016-04-30 Zombie Talk offers a concise interdisciplinary introduction and deep analytical set of theoretical approaches to help readers understand the phenomenon of zombies in contemporary and modern culture With essays that combine Humanities and Social Science methodologies the authors examine the zombie through an array of cultural products from different periods and geographical locations films ranging from White Zombie 1932 to the pioneering films of George Romero television shows like AMC's The Walking Dead to literary offerings such as Richard Matheson's I am Legend 1954 and Seth Grahame-Smith's Pride Prejudice and Zombies 2009 among others The Four Faces of the Republican Party and the Fight for the 2016 Presidential Nomination H. Olsen,D. Scala,2016-03-04 The Four Faces of the Republican Party clearly describes how Republican Presidential nominating contests unfold Its focus on party factions allows readers to understand the process and to predict who the eventual nominee will be In particular the authors explore why a conservative party always nominates candidates favored by the party's establishment and why evangelical conservatives always emerge as one of the two final contenders for the nomination This book is essential reading for anyone professor student journalist consultant or candidate who wishes to understand report on or influence a Republican Presidential nomination contest

Austerity and Political Choice in Britain H. Clarke,P. Kellner,M. Stewart,J. Twyman,P. Whiteley,2016-04-29 This is a comprehensive study of the 2015 general election in Britain designed not only for students and scholars of British politics but also for the interested reader It looks at the record of the Coalition government both in terms of its plans and performance particularly in relation to the economy as the starting point for understanding what happened The authors go on to examine the campaign during the run up to polling day and to explain why people voted the way they did They also take a close look at the various constituency battlegrounds across the country showing how and why voting patterns varied across Britain Finally they discuss the implications of the election outcome for the future of the party system and British politics more generally This book provides important insights into an election which has permanently changed the political geography of Britain

The Towers of New Capital P. Tiwari,2016-04-29 With mega townships as the tool this book analyses the complexity scale and the challenges associated with the development paradigm in India from various built environment lenses The Towers of New Capital is an enquiry into how these global fixes are leading to territorial reorganization Racism and Everyday Life Andrew Smith,2016-04-29 What does it mean to talk about everyday racism and why should we do so Racism and Everyday Life brings together the sociologies of racism and everyday life in a new way in order to reflect on these questions Smith argues that racism and everyday life are not just act and context respectively but rather they are part of the making of each other Using a variety of historical and contemporary examples this book draws on the pioneering insights of W E B Du Bois and other writers in order to explore the interwoven relationship between racism and the everyday iMedia Sarah Kember,2016-04-05 What can queer feminist writing strategies such as parody and irony do to outsmart the sexism of smart objects environments and materials and open out the new dialecticism of structure and scale critique and creativity

Drawing on science and technology studies and feminist theory this book examines the gendering of current and future media technologies such as smart phones Google glass robot nurses tablets and face recognition Kember argues that there is a tendency to affirm and celebrate the existence of smart and often sexist objects environments and materials in themselves to elide writing and other forms of mediation and to engage in disembodied knowledge practices Disembodied knowledge practices tend towards a scientism that currently includes physics envy and are also masculinist Where there is some degree of convergence between masculinist and feminist thinking about objects environments and materials there is also divergence conflict and the possible opening towards a politics of imedia Presenting a lively manifesto for refiguring imedia this book forms an often neglected gender critique of developments in smart technologies and will be essential reading for scholars in Communication Studies Cultural and Media Science and Technology and Feminism

Networks Governance, Partnership Management and Coalitions Federation Christophe Assens, Aline Courie Lemeur, 2016-05-12 This book explores the governance of networks A network's governance mechanisms are based on trust and confidence which go beyond a simple economic logic As the network's boundaries expand to include clusters of businesses and stakeholders and the emergence of coalitions of all kinds the trust will gradually dilute and the network's unifying role will be lost The organization then evolves into the form of a network of networks where the challenge is to bring together coalitions Using examples from the European Union and the Regional Health Federation of Networks this book explores the political and socio-economic challenges including the decision making and division of tasks faced by network organizations which move to a federation model of governance

Australian Women in Advertising in the Twentieth Century J. Dickenson, 2016-04-29 When did Australian women first enter the advertising industry The stereotypical advertising executive might be a pony tailed Ferrari driving youngish man but women have worked in Australian advertising agencies from the first years of the modern industry and today they comprise half of the industry's workforce Australian Women in Advertising in the Twentieth Century rescues these women from their obscurity By employing a broader definition of advertising than usual this study reveals the important role women have played in the development of the Australian advertising industry sheds light on women's struggle to reach the higher echelons of the industry and considers why the popular image of the advertising executive is at such variance from the reality The experiences of these remarkable women across a century of Australian advertising provide valuable information on the role of gender in the development of this ubiquitous industry as well as the encroachment of consumer culture

The New Deal as a Triumph of Social Work S. Miller, 2016-04-13 The New Deal as a Triumph of Social Work concerns the hand the New Deal plays from the perspective of early American History in which government and business cooperation is assumed and economic rights are addressed collectively whereas political rights are considered individually The New Deal reconfigures this ratio of rights by folding social work into the aims of government Miller describes the vital part Frances Perkins and her personal history play in this development Successful Social Media and Ecommerce Strategies in the Wine Industry Gergely Szolnoki, Liz Thach, Dani Kolb, 2016-04-30 This book focuses on principles and practices in digital wine marketing By providing a global overview of social media and e commerce strategies and practices in the wine business this book allows readers to understand how consumers and producers deal with these modern communication and selling platforms Football and the Women's World Cup Carrie Dunn, 2016-05-03 Women s football is the fastest growing participation sport in both the UK and across the world and the 2015 Women s World Cup was the biggest tournament the sport had ever seen This book explores the experience of fans of women s football who followed their teams in Canada examining their practices and fan behaviour How did host cities manage the influx of visitors And how did fans manage to support their teams considering the vast amounts of travel expected across such a big country Dunn also examines the way that the England team is structured and run relating this to the country s domestic competition as well as assessing the media coverage of women s football globally This research is all framed within the author s own experiences of the Women s World Cup as both an academic and as a sports journalist
