Classic Questions and Contemporary Film Dean A. Kowalski, 2015-08-17 Featuring significant revisions and updates Classic Questions and Contemporary Film An Introduction to Philosophy 2nd Edition uses popular movies as a highly accessible framework for introducing key philosophical concepts Explores 28 films with 18 new to this edition including Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Hotel Rwanda V for Vendetta and Memento Discusses numerous philosophical issues not covered in the first edition including a new chapter covering issues of personal identity the meaningfulness of life and death and existentialism Offers a rich pedagogical framework comprised of key classic readings chapter learning outcomes jargon free argument analysis critical thinking and trivia questions a glossary of terms and textboxes with notes on the movies discussed Revised to be even more accessible to beginning philosophers Life in the Balance Leader's Guide Joni Eareckson Tada, 2010-08-11 Never before has it been so important for Christians to discover the answers God's Word holds to our culture's biggest ethical and social dilemmas Every day the 24 hour news cycle offers stories from around the world of unimaginable physical mental and emotional suffering Yet more often than not these stories and the underlying problems they represent are reported with no suggestions for resolution Can it really be true that there are no solutions to our world's biggest crises Joni Eareckson Tada refuses to believe it On her TV show she has interviewed scores of people who have faced life's toughest battles and emerged victorious In Life in the Balance Joni and her friends take on some of the most difficult issues covered by the evening news such as street violence abortion autism genocide and stem cell research But they don't just tell the stories they dig deep into the Word of God to find real and lasting solutions to so called unsolvable problems This workbook designed for participants in a Life in the Balance individual and group study will guide readers to apply the timeless yet timely truth of God's Word to society's greatest challenges Hollywood or History? Paul J. Yoder, Aaron P. Johnson, 2022-05-01 Traumagenic events episodes that have caused or are likely to cause trauma color the experiences of K 12 students and the social studies curriculum they encounter in U S schools At the same time that the global COVID 19 pandemic has heightened educators awareness of collective trauma the racial reckoning of 2020 has drawn important attention to historical and transgenerational trauma At a time when social studies educators can simply no longer ignore difficult knowledge instruction that acknowledges trauma in social studies classrooms is essential Through employing relational pedagogies and foregrounding voices that are too often silenced the lessons in Hollywood or History An Inquiry Based Strategy for Using Film to Acknowledge Trauma in Social Studies engage students in examining the role of traumatic or traumagenic events in social studies curriculum The 20 Hollywood or History lessons are organized by themes such as political trauma and war and genocide Each lesson presents film clips instructional strategies and primary and secondary sources targeted to the identified K 12 grade levels As a collection they provide ready to teach resources that are perfect for teachers who are committed to acknowledging trauma in their social studies instruction Teaching for Peace and Social Justice in Myanmar Mary Shepard Wong, 2022-06-02 Bringing together scholars and educators based in Myanmar the USA the UK Denmark and Thailand this book presents new perspectives and research on the struggle for social justice and peace in Myanmar at this critical juncture It shows how actors from diverse backgrounds and regions of Myanmar are drawing from their identities evoking their agency and using critical pedagogy to advance social justice and peace The chapters provide the compelling life stories of the authors specific examples of what they are doing and insights of how their work might be applied to other contexts The topics discussed include addressing structural violence peace curriculum development identity based conflict teaching the history of the country promoting inclusion civic education critical pedagogy teacher agency and agendas of research funding for peacebuilding The foreword and afterword written by well known scholars of Myanmar address the relevance and importance of the book vis a vis the current social and political crisis following the February 2021 military coup

A Vision of Justice Susan Crawford Sullivan, Ron Pagnucco, 2014 A Vision of Justice Engaging Catholic Social Teaching on the College Campus draws together the insights of social scientists historians and theologians in order to introduce readers to central topics in Catholic Social Teaching and to provide concrete examples of how it is being put into action by colleges and college students The authors bring their disciplinary backgrounds and knowledge of Catholic Social Teaching to the exploration of the issues making the book suitable for use in a wide range of courses and settings Discussion questions at the end of each chapter help readers to think about issues raised in the essays and to think creatively about Catholic Social Teaching in an ever changing world The authors invite readers to join them in engaging contemporary thought and experience in the light of Catholic Social Teaching and the college campus

Listening to and Learning from Students Brian D. Schultz, 2011-01-01 This book embraces the idea of listening to and learning from students Although many educational theorists have long argued that incorporating children s perspectives about teaching and curriculum has the potential for increasing students interest and participation in learning their radical perspectives are still ignored or dismissed in theory and practice Through featured essays historical excerpts and provocative poetry this collection provides research literature and inquiry ideas that ought to be part of educational debates policy discussions and decision makings Articulated through thoughtful prose and discerning analysis youth teachers and scholars featured in this collection illuminate the power and promise of not only listening to and learning from students but also acting upon the insights of students This book calls for the 21st century educational workers teachers educators parents community workers administrators and policy makers to perceive students as massive reservoirs of knowledge that invigorate possibilities for teaching learning and curriculum in the contested educational landscape

Moral Theory at the Movies Dean Kowalski, 2011-12-08 Moral Theory at the Movies provides students with a wonderfully approachable introduction to ethics The book incorporates film summaries and study questions to draw students into ethical theory and then pairs them with classical philosophical texts The students see how moral theories dilemmas and questions are represented in the given films and learn to apply these theories to the world they live in There are 36 films and a dozen readings including Thank you for Smoking Plato's Gorgias John Stuart Mill's Utilitarianism Hotel Rwanda Plato's Republic and Horton Hears a Who Topics cover a wide variety of ethical theories including ethical subjectivism moral relativism ethical theory and virtue ethics Moral Theory at the Movies will appeal to students and help them think about how philosophy is relevant today Organizational Behaviour and Work Fiona M. Wilson, 2018 A critical yet accessible introduction to organisational behaviour and work this book will help you understand the complexities of organisational life and evaluate modern business practices Classic organisational behaviour topics such as team working motivation and change are complemented by core critical approaches such as power and control organisational misbehaviour and health and well being through a clear three part structure Students are encouraged to look beyond a descriptive approach and truly engage with the content Examples and Stop and Think boxes placed throughout chapters as well as end of chapter case studies with accompanying questions provide the opportunity for this engagement and show how each chapter's theoretical coverage applies in real life business situations Representing Genocide Rebecca Jinks, 2016-06-02 This book explores the diverse ways in which Holocaust representations have influenced and structured how other genocides are understood and represented in the West Rebecca Jinks focuses in particular on the canonical 20th century cases of genocide Armenia Cambodia Bosnia and Rwanda Using literature film photography and memorialisation she demonstrates that we can only understand the Holocaust's status as a benchmark for other genocides if we look at the deeper structural resonances which subtly shape many representations of genocide Representing Genocide pursues five thematic areas in turn how genocides are recognised as such by western publics the representation of the origins and perpetrators of genocide how western witnesses represent genocide representations of the aftermath of genocide and western responses to genocide Throughout the book distinguishes between mainstream and other more nuanced and engaged representations of genocide It shows how these mainstream representations the majority largely replicate the representational framework of the Holocaust including the way in which mainstream Holocaust representations resist recognising the rationality instrumentality and normality of genocide preferring instead to present it as an aberrant exceptional event in human society By contrast the more engaged representations often but not always originating from those who experienced genocide tend to revolve around precisely genocide's ordinariness and the structures and situations common to human society which contribute to and become involved in the violence Emerging Evangelicals James S. Bielo, 2011-10 The Emerging Church movement developed in the mid 1990s among primarily white urban middle class pastors and laity who were disenchanted with America's conservative Evangelical sub culture It is a response to the increasing divide between conservative Evangelicals and concerned critics who strongly oppose what they consider overly slick corporate and consumerist versions of faith A core feature of their response is a challenge to traditional congregational models often focusing on new church plants and creating networks of related house churches Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork James S Bielo explores the impact of the Emerging Church movement on American Evangelicals He combines ethnographic analysis with discussions of the movement's history discursive contours defining practices cultural logics and contentious interactions with conservative Evangelical critics to rethink the boundaries of Evangelical as a category Ultimately Bielo makes a novel contribution to our understanding of the important changes at work among American Protestants and illuminates how Emerging Evangelicals interact with the cultural conditions of modernity late modernity and visions of postmodern Christianity Reel Spirituality (Engaging Culture) Robert K. Johnston, 2006-12-01

Increasingly thinking Christians are examining the influential role that movies play in our cultural dialogue Reel Spirituality successfully heightens readers sensitivity to the theological truths and statements about the human condition expressed through modern cinema This second edition cites 200 new movies and encourages readers to ponder movie themes that permeate our culture as well as motion pictures that have demonstrated power to shape our perceptions of everything from relationships and careers to good and evil Reel Spirituality is the perfect catalyst for dialogue and discipleship among moviegoers church based study groups and religious film and arts groups The second edition cites an additional 200 movies and includes new film photos

The Poor Will Be Glad Peter Greer, Phil Smith, 2009-10-20 This eminently practical book challenges the church to shift tactics in the battle against spiritual and physical poverty and equips ordinary Christians to translate their compassion into thoughtful action Authors Peter Greer and Phil Smith examine the pitfalls of traditional approaches to reducing poverty Then through real life stories and insight born of personal experience in serving the poor they outline a new model of economic development based on proven solutions for effectively reducing poverty They demonstrate how microfinance and employment based solutions free people from the cycle of dependency helping them regain their dignity and provide for their families Blending passion with practicality they show readers who share God s heart for the poor how to reorient their efforts from giving handouts to offering a hand up paving the way for local initiative and ownership By highlighting poverty fighting methods for small groups and churches along with workable steps for individuals to pursue The Poor Will Be Glad sounds a compelling call to carry God s justice mercy and compassion to the hurting people of this world The Art of Human Rights Romola Adeola, Michael Gyan Nyarko, Adebayo Okeowo, Frans Viljoen, 2020-03-24 This book highlights the use of art in human rights specifically within Africa It advances an innovative pattern of thinking that explores the intersection between art and human rights law In recent years art has become an important tool for engagement on several human rights issues In view of its potency and yet potential to be a danger when misused this book seeks to articulate the use of arts in the human rights discourse in its different forms Chapters cover how music photography literature photojournalism soap opera commemorations sculpting and theatre can be used as an expression of human rights This book demonstrates how arts have become a formidable expression of thoughts and a means of articulating reality in a form that simplifies truth and congregates resolve to advance change The War Hotel Arlene Audergon, 2004-12-10 Human Nature is the fuel of violent conflict The War Hotel looks at how we get aroused and how we get silenced into violent conflict We are pulled apart in the name of justice and loyalty Past trauma is triggered into a replay Out of love and longing to step beyond the ordinary world we sacrifice ourselves and others Dehumanizing the enemy disinformation torture stirring fear in order to crack down these terror tactics too are based in psychology The manipulation of psychological dynamics to create violent conflict is distressing But if our emotions and behaviour are the fuel then our awareness can impact world events There is something truly hopeful here Awareness makes a difference Examples draw particularly from the author s work in the Balkans Other examples include Nazi Germany Rwanda the Israeli Palestinian conflict Communism and its fall in Europe South Africa the treatment of Native Americans and African Americans in the USA Vietnam and the war on terror The World and Darfur Amanda F. Grzyb, 2009-04 Ms Grzyb s book is a commendable volume holding to account those states and organizations including the UN who have so callously broken their promise of never again Embassy Economic assistance; statement of the Secretary of state; testimony of members of Congress, interested organizations and individuals United States.
