Catalog, 1926* Isabella Mitchell Cooper, Marion Horton, 1926 Complete Critical Assembly David Langford, 2002-10-01 This new collection of essays commissioned from a range of scholars across the world takes as its theme the reception of Rome's greatest poet in a time of profound cultural change. Amid the rise of Christianity the changing status of the city of Rome and the emergence of new governing classes Vergil remained a bedrock of Roman education and identity. This volume considers the different ways in which Vergil was read, understood and appropriated by poets, commentators, Church fathers, orators and historians. The introduction outlines the cultural and historical contexts. Twelve chapters dedicated to individual writers or genres and the contributors make use of a wide range of approaches from contemporary reception theory. An epilogue concludes the volume. The Complete Works of Lord Byron, Reprinted from the Last London Edition ... To which is Prefixed a Life by Thomas Moore [abridged] ... With a Portrait George Gordon Byron, Baron Byron, 1852 The San Francisco Bay Marine Piling Survey Second Annual Progress Report (Classic Reprint) Bay Marine Piling Committee, 1921 Excerpt from The San Francisco Bay Marine Piling Survey Second Annual Progress Report C. A. Kofoed, Professor of Biology and Assistant Director of the Scripps Institution for Biological Research, Walter Mulford, Professor of Forestry and head of the Division of Forestry, D. R. The proper way to mark this occasion was to organize a symposium that would be as comprehensive as possible both in content and in variety of approaches and which would be held in the land of the Scrolls. The papers here reflect not only the variety and richness of subjects treated by contemporary research on Qumran but also its international character. Since the study of texts remains the first task of the Qumran scholar, many of the collection's papers belong to its first section, Texts and Text Studies. The other six sections are The History of the Qumran Community, Halakha at Qumran, Qumran and the Hebrew Bible, Qumran and the New Testament, and The Hebrew of the Dead Sea Scrolls. The Sea of Learning Steven B. Miles, 2020-05-11 In 1817 a Cantonese scholar was mocked in Beijing as surprisingly learned for someone from the boondocks. In 1855 another Cantonese scholar boasted of the flourishing of literati culture in his home region Not without reason the second man pointed to the Xuehaitang Sea of Learning Hall as the main factor in the upsurge of learning in the Guangzhou area Founded in the 1820s by the eminent scholar official Ruan Yuan the Xuehaitang was indeed one of the premier academies of the nineteenth century The celebratory discourse that portrayed the Xuehaitang as having radically altered literati culture in Guangzhou also legitimated the academy's place in Guangzhou and Guangzhou's place as a cultural center in the Qing empire This study asks Who constructed this discourse and why And why did some Cantonese elites find this discourse compelling while others did not To answer these questions Steven Miles looks beyond intellectual history to local social and cultural history Arguing that the academy did not exist in a scholarly vacuum Miles contends that its location in the city of Guangzhou and the Pearl River Delta embedded it in social settings and networks that determined who utilized its resources and who celebrated its successes and values
