Maye! Sipho Sithole, 2024-10-04 This book presents an analysis of Johannesburg's Kwa Mai Mai market which was once known to regulars as a place of healing and has experienced numerous changes of significant national transformation over time It explores how the Kwa Mai Mai community formerly a working class of migrants reversed roles and took control of the means of production from the dominant class Through their heightened cultural consciousness this marginalised migrant community reimagined new economic realities and possibilities forever distancing themselves from their painful repressive past This book chronicles the significance of cultural memory and discusses how it can be used as a weapon to not only resist subjugation but also to invoke entrepreneurial and creative spirit Written out of the collective observations and interpretations of his ethnographic research spanning four years Sipho Sithole's Maye Maye is dedicated to marginalised communities and those who despite operating on the fringes of the economy have sought to create their own fortune and destiny Print edition not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa The Music and Dance of the World's Religions E. Engaging Modernity Dawid J. Venter, 2004-05-30 The key theme addressed by all the contributors to this book is the relationship between South Africa s indigenous churches AICs to modernity The key question asked by each of the contributors is to what extent if any do AICs serve as bridges to tradition or as facilitators for modernizing practices Although the researchers do not agree on the answer to this question some argue for the return to tradition others argue for the facilitation perspective they do provide provocative and timely insights for prospective researchers interested in exploring concepts and methodologies for understanding modernity and modernization Based on a number of case studies of AICs in South Africa this book will also be of great interest to scholars of comparative religion and the role churches play in negotiating the complex terrains of politics society and economy in this era of globalization

Text and Authority in the South African Nazareth Church Joel Cabrita, 2014-04-24 Text and Authority in the South African Nazareth Church tells the story of one of the largest African churches in South Africa Ibandla lamaNazareth or Church of the Nazareth Founded in 1910 by charismatic faith healer Isaiah Shembe the Nazareth church with over four million members has become an influential social and political player in the region Deeply influenced by a transnational evangelical literary culture Nazareth believers have patterned their lives upon the Christian Bible They cast themselves as actors who enact scriptural drama upon African soil But Nazareth believers also believe the existing Christian Bible to be in need of updating and revision For this reason they have written further scriptures a new Bible which testify to the miraculous work of their founding prophet Shembe Joel Cabrita's book charts the key role that these sacred texts play in making breaking and contesting social power and authority both within the church and more broadly in South African public life

Religion, Media, and Marginality in Modern Africa Felicitas Becker, Joel Cabrita, Marie Rodet, 2018-02-02 In recent years anthropologists historians and others have been drawn to study the profuse and creative usages of digital media by religious movements At the same time scholars of Christian Africa have long been concerned with the history of textual culture the politics of Bible translation and the status of the vernacular in Christianity Students of Islam in Africa have similarly examined politics of knowledge the transmission of learning in written form and the influence of new media Until now however these arenas Christianity and Islam digital media and old media have been studied separately Religion Media and Marginality in Modern Africa is one of the first volumes to put new media and old media into significant conversation with one another and also offers a rare comparison between Christianity and Islam in Africa The contributors find many previously unacknowledged correspondences among different media and between the two faiths In the process they challenge the technological determinism the notion that certain types of media generate particular forms of religious expression that haunts many studies In evaluating how media usage and religious commitment intersect in the social cultural and political landscapes of modern Africa this collection will contribute to the development of new paradigms for media and religious studies Contributors Heike Behrend Andre Chappatte Maria Frahm Arp David Gordon Liz Gunner Bruce S Hall Sean Hanretta Jorg Haustein Katrien Pype and Asonzeh Ukah

Bourdieu in Africa ,2015-11-02 Bourdieu in Africa Exploring the Dynamics of Religious Fields offers a view of religions as social games played by interested actors Analyzing practices as strategic moves this critical approach conceptualizes the religious field as relations of exchange and competition between experts and laity and explores how the actors habitus including religious beliefs serve to misrecognize and thus legitimize relations of power within the religious sphere and beyond The authors discuss the volatile religious fields of Nigeria Ethiopia Eritrea Kenya and South Africa with their variably configured tensions between African traditions Christianity and Islam but also consider the interrelations of religion with other social fields with politics economy education and law Contributors are Ulrich Berner Chikas Danfulani Jonathan Draper Magnus Echtler Gemechu Jemal Geda Magnus Treiber Asonzeh Ukah Dale Wallace Halkano Abdi Wario

The Bible, Cultural Identity, and Missions Dziedzorm Reuben Asafo,Daniel Kwame Bediako,Daniel Berchie,2016-04-26 This collection brings together a number of very carefully authored articles that outline practical approaches to three of theology s most intriguing subjects namely The Bible Cultural Identity and Mission Each of these subjects is indispensable to both the astute Christian theologian and Christian since they form the very core of what Christians believe Each contributor explores a unique theme and carefully through academic exactness and contextual experience communicates this without forgetting to employ very basic and familiar cultural analogies to drive home the missionary imperative of the Christian faith

Missions and Empire Norman Etherington,2005-07-14 The idea that Christian missions went hand in hand with Imperialism and colonial conquest is challenged here By showing the variety of missions and the vital role played by indigenous men and women this book places missions in a long historical perspective

Special attention is paid to emerging themes

The New Faces of Christianity Philip Jenkins, 2006-09 Named one of the top religion books of 2002 by USA Today Philip Jenkins's phenomenally successful The Next Christendom permanently changed the way people think about the future of Christianity In that volume Jenkins called the world's attention to the little noticed fact that Christianity's center of gravity was moving inexorably southward to the point that Africa may soon be home to the world's largest Christian populations Now in this brilliant sequel Jenkins takes a much closer look at Christianity in the global South revealing what it is like and what it means for the future The faith of the South Jenkins finds is first and foremost a biblical faith Indeed in the global South many Christians identify powerfully with the world portrayed in the New Testament an agricultural world very much like their own marked by famine and plague poverty and exile until very recently a society of peasants farmers and small craftsmen In the global South as in the biblical world belief in spirits and witchcraft are commonplace and in many places such as Nigeria Indonesia and Sudan Christians are persecuted just as early Christians were Thus the Bible speaks to the global South with a vividness and authenticity simply unavailable to most believers in the industrialized North More important Jenkins shows that throughout the global South believers are reading the Bible with fresh eyes and coming away with new and sometimes startling interpretations Some of their conclusions are distinctly fundamentalist but Jenkins finds an intriguing paradox for they are also finding ideas in the Bible that are socially liberating especially with respect to women's rights Across Africa Asia and Latin America such Christians are social activists in the forefront of a wide range of liberation movements It's hard to overstate how interesting how eye opening how frequently surprising and sometimes disturbing Jenkins findings are Anyone interested in the implications of these trends for the major denominations for Muslim Christian conflict and for global politics will find The New Faces of Christianity provocative and incisive and indispensable

Bantu Prophets in South Africa Bengt Sundkler, 1961 In this impressive study Dr Sundkler traces the development of the Bantu Churches in South Africa which seceded from the Missions or split amongst themselves The author gives a fascinating account of the life and aspirations of these purely Bantu churches and of their leaders Dr Sundkler's study is concentrated on the contact which took place in these churches between the old heritage of the people and the new message of the Christian Gospel In the Foreword Dr E H Brookes pays tribute to the spirit in which the author has written not merely an unbiased scientific spirit but a spirit which shows true kindness a positive attitude and a sympathetic understanding of Zulu ideas and aspirations Dr Sundkler's Bantu Prophets in South Africa is an important and remarkable work on religion in this region
