Hot She Was Tempted To Give In False Reflections Volume 2:

Continuations to Sidney's Arcadia, 1607-1867, Volume 2 Marea Mitchell, Ann Lange, Dianne Osland, 2024-08-01 Sir Philip Sidney's Arcadia has held a significant place in literary imagination since its inception over 430 years ago. Our four volume set presents five reimaginings of the text as well as two short supplements that attempt to bridge the gap between Sidney's original and revised versions of the work. The London Stage: vol. 2, 18?? The Posthumous Papers of the Pickwick Club, Volume 2 (of 2) (Illustrations) Charles Dickens, 2015-02-09 Example in this ebook CHAPTER I The Story of the Goblins who Stole a Sexton In an old abbey town down in this part of the country a long long while ago so long that the story must be a true one because our great grandfathers implicitly believed it there officiated as sexton and grave digger in the churchyard one Gabriel Grub. It by no means follows that because a man is a sexton and constantly surrounded by the emblems of mortality therefore he should be a morose and melancholy man. Your undertakers are the merriest fellows in the world and I once had the honour of being on intimate terms with a mute who in private life and off duty was as comical and jocose a little fellow as ever chirped out a devil may care song without a hitch in his memory or drained off the contents of a good stiff glass without stopping for breath. But notwithstanding these precedents to the contrary Gabriel Grub was an ill conditioned cross grained surly fellow a morose and lonely man who consorted with nobody but himself and an old wicker bottle which fitted into his large deep waistcoat pocket and who eyed each merry face as it passed him by with such a deep scowl of malice and ill humour as it was difficult to meet without feeling something the worse for. A little before twilight one Christmas Eve Gabriel shouldered his spade lighted his lantern and betook himself towards the old churchyard for he had got a grave to finish by next morning and feeling very low he thought it might raise his spirits perhaps if he went on with his work at once. As he went his way up the ancient street he saw the cheerful light of blazing fires gleam through the old casements and heard the loud laugh and the cheerful shouts of those who were assembled around them. He marked the bustling preparations for next day's cheer and smelt the numerous savoury odours consequent thereupon as they steamed up from the kitchen windows in clouds. All this was gall and wormwood to the heart of Gabriel Grub and when groups of children bounded out of the houses tripped across the road and were met before they could knock at the opposite door by half a dozen curly headed little rascals who crowded round them as they flocked up stairs to spend the evening in their Christmas games Gabriel smiled grimly and clutched the handle of his spade with a firmer grasp as he thought of measles scarlet fever thrush hooping cough and a good many other sources of consolation besides. In this happy frame of mind Gabriel strode along returning a short sullen growl to the good humoured greetings of such of his neighbours as now and then passed him until he turned into the dark lane which led to the churchyard. Now Gabriel had been looking forward to reaching the dark lane because it was generally speaking a nice gloomy mournful place into which the townspeople did not much care to go except in broad daylight and when the sun was shining consequently he was not a little indignant to hear a young urchin roaring out some jolly song about a merry Christmas in this very sanctuary which had been called Coffin Lane ever since the days of the old abbey and the time of the shaven headed monks As Gabriel walked on and the voice drew nearer he found it proceeded from a small boy who was hurrying along to join one of the little parties in the old street and who partly to keep himself company and partly to prepare himself for the occasion was shouting out the song at the highest pitch of his lungs So Gabriel waited until the boy came up and then dodged him into a corner and rapped him over the head with his lantern five or six times to teach him to modulate his voice And as the boy hurried away with his hand to his head singing quite a different sort of tune Gabriel Grub chuckled very heartily to himself and entered the churchyard locking the gate behind him To be continue in this ebook
