How I Got This Idea:

The American Museum of Natural History and How It Got That Way Colin Davey, 2019-05-14 Tells the story of the building of the American Museum of Natural History and Hayden Planetarium a story of history politics science and exploration including the roles of American presidents New York power brokers museum presidents planetarium directors polar and African explorers and German rocket scientists The American Museum of Natural History is one of New York City's most beloved institutions and one of the largest most celebrated museums in the world Since 1869 generations of New Yorkers and tourists of all ages have been educated and entertained here Located across from Central Park the sprawling structure spanning four city blocks is a fascinating conglomeration of many buildings of diverse architectural styles built over a period of 150 years The first book to tell the history of the museum from the point of view of these buildings including the planned Gilder Center The American Museum of Natural History and How It Got That Way contextualizes them within New York and American history and the history of science Part II The Heavens in the Attic is the first detailed history of the Hayden Planetarium from the museum's earliest astronomy exhibits to Clyde Fisher and the original planetarium to Neil deGrasse Tyson and the Rose Center for Earth and Space and it features a photographic tour through the original Hayden Planetarium Author Colin Davey spent much of his childhood literally and figuratively lost in the museum's labyrinthine hallways The museum grew in fits and starts according to the vicissitudes of backroom deals personal agendas two world wars the Great Depression and the Cold War Chronicling its evolution from the selection of a desolate rocky hilly swampy site known as Manhattan Square to the present day the book includes some of the most important and colorful characters in the city's history including the notoriously corrupt and powerful Boss Tweed Father of New York City Andrew Haswell Green and twentieth century powerbroker and master builder Robert Moses museum presidents Morris K Jesup Henry Fairfield Osborn and Ellen Futter and American presidents polar and African explorers dinosaur hunters and German rocket scientists Richly illustrated with period photos The American Museum of Natural History and How It Got That Way is based on deep archival research and interviews

If You Can Count to Four - How to Get Everything You Want Out of Life! James Breckenridge Jones, 2016-02-20 How To Get Everything You Want Out Of Life There are basic laws in this universe that will work for you if you know how to apply them They work for anyone who knows they exist and how to use them The law of electricity works for all of us We can burn your house down with electricity or you can light your home with it You don't have to be a genius to do it A child three years old can push a button and turn the lights on Millions of people have been taught to believe that the rules of success are indeed so very difficult and complicated that surely they could never learn them I found out that anyone can be genuinely successful if he will learn the exact same rules that the successful people learned and use them Scroll up to get your copy now
