Labor Of Dionysus A Critique Of The State Form Theory Out Of Bounds:

Labor of Dionysus Michael Hardt, 2003 Labor of Dionysus Michael Hardt, 1994 Becoming-woman Camilla Griggers, 1997 Griggers analyses contemporary articulations of the feminine in American cultural practices ranging from fashion to foeticide and from Hollywood's production of feminine charismatic military leaders to pop mediated lesbianness

Critical Environments Cary Wolfe, 1998 Unique in its collation of major theorists rarely considered together Critical Environments incorporates detailed discussions of the work of Richard Rorty Walter Benn Michaels Stanley Cavell Humberto Maturana Francisco Varela Niklas Luhmann Donna Haraway Michel Foucault Gilles Deleuze Fredric Jameson and others and ranges across fields from feminist philosophy of science to the theory of ideology Offering American readers a comprehensive introduction to systems theory and responding to the widespread charge of relativism leveled against it Wolfe's work will enhance and inspire new kinds of critical thought Neuropolitics William E. Connolly, 2002 Why would a political theorist venture into the nexus between neuroscience and film According to William Connolly whose new book is itself an eloquent answer the combination exposes the ubiquitous role that technique plays in thinking ethics and politics By taking up recent research in neuroscience to explore the way brain activity is influenced by cultural conditions and stimuli such as film technique Connolly is able to fashion a new perspective on our attempts to negotiate and thrive within a deeply pluralized society whose culture and economy continue to quicken In Neuropolitics Connolly draws upon recent brain/body research to explore the creative potential of thinking the layered character of culture the cultivation of ethical sensibilities and the critical role of technique in all three He then shows how a series of films including Vertigo Five Easy Pieces and Citizen Kane enhances our appreciation of technique and contests the linear image of time now prevalent in cultural theory Connolly deftly brings these themes together to support an ethos of deep pluralism within the democratic state and a politics of citizen activism across states His book is an original and rigorous study that attends to the creative possibilities of thinking in identity culture and ethics Wetwares Richard Doyle, 2003 The mind of the machine the body suspended in time organs exchanged thought computed genes manipulated DNA samples abducted by aliens the terrain between science and speculation fraught with the possibility of technological and perhaps even evolutionary transformations is the territory Richard Doyle explores in Wetwares In a manner at once sober and playful Doyle maps potentials for human transformation by new ecologies of information in the early twenty first century Wetwares ranges over recent research in artificial life cloning cryonics computer science organ transplantation and alien abduction Moving between actual technical practices serious speculative technology and science fiction Doyle shows us emerging scientific paradigms where life becomes more a matter of information than of inner vitality in short becomes wetwares for DNA and computer networks Viewing technologies of immortality from cryonics to artificial life as disciplines for welcoming a thoroughly other future a future of neither capital god human nor organism the book offers tools for an evolutionary transhuman mutation in the utterly unpredictable decades to come Means Without End Giorgio Agamben, 2000-10-12 An essential reevaluation of the proper role of politics in contemporary life In this critical rethinking of the categories of politics within a new sociopolitical and historical context the distinguished political philosopher Giorgio Agamben builds on his previous work to address the status and nature of politics itself Bringing politics face to face with its own failures of consciousness and consequence Agamben frames his analysis in terms of clear contemporary relevance He proposes in his characteristically allusive and intriguing way a politics of gesture a politics of means without end Among the topics Agamben takes up are the properly political paradigms of experience as well as those generally not viewed as political He begins by elaborating work on biopower begun by Foucault returning the natural life of humans to the center of the polis and considering it as the very basis for politics He then considers subjects such as the state of exception the temporary suspension of the juridical order the concentration camp a zone of indifference between public and private and at the same time the secret matrix of the political space in which we live the refugee who breaking the bond between the human and the citizen moves from marginal status to the center of the crisis of the modern nation state and the sphere of pure means or gestures those gestures that remaining nothing more than means liberate themselves from any relation to ends as the proper sphere of politics Attentive to the urgent demands of the political moment as well as to the bankruptcy of political discourse Agamben's work brings politics back to life and life back to politics Giorgio Agamben teaches philosophy at the Collège International de Philosophie in Paris and at the University of Macerata in Italy He is the author of Language and Death 1991 Stanzas 1992 and The Coming Community 1993 all published by the University of Minnesota Press The Matrixial Borderspace Bracha Ettinger, 2006 Artist psychoanalyst and feminist theorist Bracha Ettinger presents an original theoretical exploration of shared affect and emergent expression across the thresholds of identity and memory Ettinger works through Lacan's late works the anti Oedipal perspectives of Deleuze and Guattari as well as object relations theory to critique the phallocentrism of mainstream Lacanian theory and to rethink the masculine feminine opposition She replaces the phallic structure with a dimension of emergence where objects images and meanings are glimpsed in their incipency before they are differentiated This is the matrixial realm a shareable psychic dimension that underlies the individual unconscious and experience Concerned with collective trauma and memory Ettinger's own experience as an Israeli living with the memory of the Holocaust is a deep source of inspiration for her paintings several of which are reproduced in the book The paintings like the essays replay the relation between the visible and invisible the sayable and ineffable the gaze the subject and the other Bracha Ettinger is a painter and a senior clinical psychologist She is professor of psychoanalysis and aesthetics at the University of Leeds England and Bezalel Academy Jerusalem Judith Butler is professor of rhetoric and comparative literature at the University of California Berkeley Griselda Pollock is professor of fine arts at the University of Leeds Brian Massumi is professor of communication at the University of Montreal The Invention of Modern Science Isabelle Stengers, 2000 The Invention of Modern Science proposes a fruitful way of going beyond the apparently irreconcilable positions that science is either objective or socially constructed Instead suggests Isabelle Stengers one of the most important and influential philosophers of science in Europe we might understand the tension between scientific objectivity and belief as a necessary part of science central to the practices invented and reinvented by scientists pub desc Sound Ideas Aden Evens, A highly original approach to the philosophy of musical experience Modernity at Sea Cesare Casarino, 2002 At once a literary philosophical meditation on the question of modernity and a manifesto for a new form of literary criticism Modernity at Sea argues that the nineteenth century sea narrative played a crucial role in the emergence of a theory of modernity as permanent crisis In a series of close readings of such works as Herman Melville's White Jacket and Moby Dick Joseph Conrad's The Nigger of the Narcissus and The Secret Sharer and Karl Marx's Grundrisse Cesare Casarino draws upon the thought of twentieth century figures including Giorgio Agamben Louis Althusser Walter Benjamin Leo Bersani Gilles Deleuze Félix Guattari and Antonio Negri to characterize the nineteenth century ship narrative as the epitome of Michel Foucault's heterotopia a special type of space that simultaneously represents inverts and contests all other spaces in culture Elaborating Foucault's claim that the ship has been the heterotopia par excellence of Western civilization since the Renaissance Casarino goes on to argue that the nineteenth century sea narrative froze the world of the ship just before its disappearance thereby capturing at once its apogee and its end and producing the ship as the matrix of modernity

Deleuze Alain Badiou, 2000 The works of Gilles Deleuze on cinema literature painting and philosophy have made him one of the most widely read thinkers of his generation This compact critical volume is not only a powerful reappraisal of Deleuze's thought but also the first major work by Alain Badiou available in English Badiou compellingly redefines Deleuzian throwing down the gauntlet in the battle over the very meaning of Deleuze's legacy For those who view Deleuze as the apostle of desire flux and multiplicity Badiou's book is a deliberate provocation Through a deep philosophical engagement with his writings Badiou contends that Deleuze is not the Dionysian thinker of becoming he took himself to be on the contrary he is an ascetic philosopher of Being and Oneness Deleuze's self-declared anti-Platonism fails and that in Badiou's view may ultimately be to his credit Perhaps it is not Platonism that has to be overturned Badiou writes but the anti-Platonism taken as evident throughout this entire century This volume draws on a five year correspondence undertaken by Badiou and Deleuze near the end of Deleuze's life when the two put aside long standing political and philosophical differences to exchange ideas about similar problems in their work Badiou's incomparably attentive readings of key Deleuzian concepts radically revise reigning interpretations offering new insights to even the veteran Deleuze reader and serving as an entree to the controversial notion of a restoration of Plato advocated by Badiou in his own right one of the most original figures in postwar French philosophy The result is a critical tour de force that repositions Deleuze one of the most important thinkers of our time and introduces Badiou to English speaking readers Arrow of Chaos Ira Livingston, 1997-01-01

respond to pain what we think about it what we say and what we do is the subject of this collection of writings and images The book's five sections contain a myriad of complex responses to the occurrence of pain Each section comprises original artwork scholarly analyses literary texts and more 15 b w photos 33 figures

Signs of Danger Peter C. Van Wyck, A rising ocean A falling building A toxic river Species extinguished A nuclear landscape In a world so configured the state of contemporary ecological thought and practice is woefully and perilously inadequate Focusing on the government's nuclear waste burial program in Carlsbad New Mexico Signs of Danger begins the urgent work of finding a new way of thinking about ecological threat in our time The Waste Isolation Pilot Plant in Carlsbad began receiving shipments in 1999 With a proposed closing date of 2030 this repository for nuclear waste must be secured with a sign the purpose of which will be to keep people away for three hundred generations In the official documents uncovered by Peter van Wyck we encounter a government bureaucracy approaching the issue of nuclear waste as a technical problem only to find itself confronting a host of intractable philosophical issues concerning language culture and history Signs of Danger plumbs these depths as it shows us how the problem raised in the desert of New Mexico is actually the problem of a culture grappling with ecological threats and with questions of the limits of meaning and representation in the deep future The reflections at the center of this book on memory trauma disaster representation and the virtual are aimed at defining the uniquely modern status of environmental and nuclear threats They offer invaluable insights into the interface of where culture ends and nature begins and how such a juncture is closely linked with questions of risk concepts of history and the cultural experience of time

Capital Times Eric Alliez, 1996 Offers a history of the philosophy of time and a comparison of the ways of conceiving the temporal concentrating on European philosophy and its impact the connection between time and money in Western civilization Analyzes the social and political processes involved in conceptions of time in ancien

Metamorphoses of the Body José Gil, 1998 Explores the relationship between power and the body This investigation of power and the body is a brilliantly original account of the nature of force as it functions in religious rituals sorcery political relations and other social domains Laying the foundation for an anthropology of forces it is crucial reading for anyone interested in how bodies and power circulate in a range of human contexts and cultures For Jose Gil the body with its capacity to translate forces into signs is the source of power Analyzing the language of mime and gestures comparing magical cures to psychiatric ones contrasting the flayed body of Kafka's In the Penal Colony with the anatomical body in Vesalius's De Humani Corporis Fabrica he develops a typology of metamorphoses of the body as they correspond to systems of signs A major intervention that marks the first appearance of Gil's work in English Metamorphoses of the Body gives us an entirely new way of looking at relationships between bodies forces politics and people

The New Spinoza Warren Montag, Ted Stolze, 1997 Modeled on THE NEW NIETZSCHE this collection revitalizes the thought of Spinoza These essays establish Spinoza's rightful role in the development and direction of contemporary continental philosophy The volume should interest not only the growing group of scholars attracted to Spinoza's ideas on ethics politics and subjectivity but also theorists in a variety of fields The Year of Passages Réda Bensmaïa, Straddling the boundary between fiction and nonfiction this rich and unconventional novel provokes thought at the turn of every page The tale is narrated by a North African author exiled to the United States because he has been condemned by religious fanatics after the publication of his novel entitled Dead Letters Bensmaïa's knowledge of the history the literature and the philosophical ideas of our times underlies the novel without intruding into it directly

Power and Invention Isabelle Stengers, 1997 Using the law of thermodynamics one of today's most penetrating and celebrated thinkers sets out to explain the consequences of nonlinear dynamics or chaos theory for philosophy and science Concerned with the interplay between science society and power Isabelle Stengers offers a unique perspective on the power of scientific theories to modify society and vice versa 9 diagrams
