undertaking a research project Christopher Lamont is Dean of E Track s International Relations program and Vice Dean of the Graduate School of International Relations at Tokyo International University in Japan Mieczyslaw P Boduszynski is Associate Professor of Politics and International Relations at Pomona College in California USA The Concept, the Meaning and the Phenomenon New World Order Casian Anton,2024-11-01 In this research paper I have explored and deepened the concept meaning and phenomenon of New World Order NWO through a structured approach inspired mainly by the logical order used by Ludwig Wittgenstein but also by the ideas of Thomas Hobbes My aim is to achieve five key objectives i to present an innovative method to build a concept starting from etymological bases ii to explore the meanings attached to each individual term new world order followed by their reunification in a single concept iii to examine the process of forming a concept based on three specific terms and to analyse how they combine to create a central idea iv to explore the NWO phenomenon by exposing its stages to discover key concepts theories and other theoretical main lines of research that contribute to its development and understanding v to review the existent literature and to extract key points and lines from existing theoretical debates and identifying real examples from world politics that reflect the concept and phenomenon of NWO By using Ludwig Wittgenstein s method I aimed to show not only the content and meaning of NWO as a concept but also the process and form of its construction The method used has the ability to offer an atomistic understanding of how complex ideas are built from their fundamental elements revealing how they intertwine to create a solid theoretical conceptual framework It is time to discover the concept meaning and phenomenon of New World Order in its truest form

Politics: The Key Concepts Lisa Harrison,Adrian Little,Ed Lock,2015-02-11 Politics The Key Concepts is an up to date and broad ranging introduction to the terms that lie at the heart of political discourse Entries are drawn from areas such as political theory international politics political science and methodology As well as explaining core established principles this informative guide explores some of the more complex topical and contested concepts from the world of politics Concepts covered include Capitalism Class Identity Institutionalism Referendum Marxism Pluralism Postmodernism Socialism Social Constructivism In an accessible A Z format with helpful cross referencing and suggestions for further reading Politics The Key Concepts is an invaluable reference for all students of politics international relations and related courses Concept, Meaning and Phenomenon: I(i)nternational R(r)elations and New World Order Casian Anton,2024-11-15 This volume brings together two pivotal research papers that delve into distinct yet interconnected themes The Concept and the Meaning of I i nternational R r elations and The Concept the Meaning and the Phenomenon New World Order These research papers unified in one volume share a common method of inquiry drawing more inspiration from Ludwig Wittgenstein s Tractatus Logico Philosophicus than from Thomas Hobbes s Elements of Natural and Political Law The rigorous clarity precision and structured thought processes employed in both papers offer the ideal lens for examining complex and multidimensional concepts Through an atomistic approach we can dissect the meanings of terms and their interrelations to uncover deeper insights into these well known ideas A special chapter What is Phenomenon exclusive to The Concept the Meaning and the Phenomenon New World Order appears separately offering further depth into this particular theme The volume also concludes with a comparative chapter on the differences and similarities between I i nternational R r elations and New World Order This volume not only achieves its objectives of providing fresh perspectives on I i nternational R r elations and the New World Order but also completes a research journey that began in 2009 during my university studies I am thrilled to present these ideas in a cohesive thoughtful form the culmination of years of passion and dedication I trust that this volume will be valuable to both those embarking on their research in International Relations and seasoned scholars I believe these research papers have the potential to inspire new ways of understanding the world and its evolving dynamics

The Concept and the Meaning of I(i)nternational R(r)elations Casian Anton,2024-10-25 In this research paper I have explored the concept of I i nternational R r elations with a focus on three key goals i presenting two distinct methods of writing and their representations ii examining the meaning associated with each method and iii uncovering the process of concept creation based on the interaction between two terms This research sets out to achieve the following objectives i to resume the attempt to theorise the concept of international relations from the etymological bases ii international relations is based on a wide range of concepts and I want to show the sources of the creation of a concept iii to supplement and contribute to the existing literature that discusses this concept iv to contribute to the historical development of the International Relations interdiscipline v to offer an answer to the crisis of ideas that haunts the science of IR By achieving these objectives this research paper makes a significant contribution to both the theoretical and practical understanding of I i nternational R r elations The insights generated here provide a strong foundation for future research while addressing ongoing theoretical challenges It is time to explore and understand the concept of I i nternational R r elations in its most authentic form Third Edition October 2024

International Relations Martin Griffiths, Terry O'Callaghan, 2002 While white racism has global dimensions it has an unshakeable lease on life in South African political organizations and its educational system Donnarae MacCann and Yulisa Maddy here provide a thorough and provocative analysis of South African children's literature during the key decade around Nelson Mandela's release from prison Their research demonstrates that the literature of this period was derived from the same milieu intellectual educational religious political and economic that brought white supremacy to South Africa during colonial times This volume is a signal contribution to the study of children's literature and its relation to racism and social conditions

The Politics of Haunting and Memory in International Relations Jessica Auchter, 2014-03-21 International Relations has traditionally focused on conflict and war but the effects of violence including dead bodies and memorialization practices have largely been considered beyond the purview of the field Drawing on Jacques Derrida's notion of hauntology to consider the politics of life and death Auchter traces the story of how life and death and a clear division between the two is summoned in the project of statecraft She argues that by letting ourselves be haunted or looking for ghosts it is possible to trace how statecraft relies on the construction of such a dichotomy Three empirical cases offer fertile ground for complicating the picture often painted of memorialization Rwandan genocide memorials the underexplored case of undocumented immigrants who die crossing the US Mexico border and the body ruins nexus in 9 11 memorialization Focusing on the role of dead bodies and the construction of particular spaces as the appropriate sites for memory to be situated it offers an alternative take on the new materialisms movement in international relations by asking after the questions that arise from an ethnographic approach to the subject viewing things from the perspective of dead bodies who occupy the shadowy world of post conflict international politics This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of critical international relations security studies statecraft and memory studies

Encyclopedia of International Relations and Global Politics Martin Griffiths,2013-11-26 The study of international relations has changed rapidly in recent years Firstly as a consequence of major political and economic change the end of the cold war and the fall of communism the resurgence of nationalism terrorism and forms of fundamentalism globalization and secondly linked with these developments because of the vitality of the discipline with ongoing debates on the fundamental paradigms for the understanding of international relations and the emergence of the perspectives of feminism postmodernism constructivism and critical theory The Routledge Encyclopedia of International Relations and Global Politics provides a unique reference source for students and academics covering all aspects of global international relations and the contemporary discipline across IR s major subject divisions of diplomacy military affairs international political economy and theory Written by a distinguished group of international scholars the Encyclopedia is largely comprised of substantial entries of more than 1 000 words with fifty major entries of 5 000 words on core contemporary topics Each entry is fully cross referenced and followed by a listing of complementary entries and a short bibliography for further reading The whole is comprehensively indexed There is no other resource of its kind and the Encyclopedia of International Relations and Global Politics will be an extremely valuable addition to all libraries supporting teaching and research in the social sciences Social Emergence in International Relations Maren Wagner, 2016-10-03 This book presents a conceptualization of social emergence in international relations as a novel angle to analyse institutional dynamics in East Asia introducing the concept of emergence from a critical realist perspective The author examines East Asia's characteristic mesh work of regional institutions that affect integrative processes and regional policies exploring how such institutions emerge and acquire their own nature and why this pattern persists over time an unresolved and contested subject in the field of International Relations This book suggests that regional institutions are emergent entities of the international system that arise as forms of self organization by states to achieve certain emergent properties and powers The author's approach sheds light on the particular emergent properties and powers of regional institutions and identifies discourse as a key mechanism of social emergence Besides engaging in relevant questions of the philosophy of science and its methodological implications for studying social emergence in world politics the book also analyses the concrete case of two East Asian regional institutions ASEAN Plus Three and the East Asia Summit This book will engage scholars and postgraduate students of Asian Studies and International Relations

Political Research Sandr Halperin, 2025 EU Foreign Policy through the Lens of Discourse Analysis Caterina Carta, Jean-Frederic Morin, 2016-04-22 Leading scholars in discourse analysis and European foreign policy join forces in this book marking a real breakthrough in the literature Not only do they offer original perspectives on European foreign policy but they bring together various theories on foreign policy discourses that remain too often isolated from each other This theoretical diversity is clearly reflected in the book's four pronged structure Part I Post structuralist Approaches with contributions from Thomas Diez Henrik Larsen and Beste Isleyen Part II Constructivist Approaches with contributions from Knud Erik J rgensen Jan Orbie Ferdi de Ville Esther Barb Anna Herranz Surrall s and Michal Naturski Part III Critical Discourse Analytical Approaches with contributions from Senem Aydin D zgit Amelie Kutter Ruth Wodak Salomi Boukala and Caterina Carta Part IV Discursive Institutional Approaches with contributions from Ben Rosamond Antoine Rayroux and Vivien A Schmidt The volume is the first full length study on how to apply different discourse analytical approaches and methodologies to European foreign policy The paperback edition makes for a unique selling point as a course text

Qualitative Methods in International Relations A. Klotz, D. Prakash, 2008-02-27 We still lack practical answers to one of the most basic questions in empirical research How should researchers interpret meanings The contributors take seriously the goals of both post modernist and positivist researchers as they offer detailed guidance on how to apply specific tools of analysis and how to circumvent their inherent limitations
