Labour Relations in the Global Fast-Food Industry Tony Royle,Brian Towers,2004-08-02 The fast food industry is one of the few industries that can be described as truly global not least in terms of employment which is estimated at around ten million people worldwide This edited volume is the first of its kind providing an analysis of labour relations in this significant industry focusing on multinational corporations and large national companies in ten countries the USA Canada the UK the Netherlands Germany Australia New Zealand Singapore and Russia The extent to which multinational enterprises impose or adapt their employment practices in differing national industrial relations systems is analysed Results reveal that the global fast food industry is typified by trade union exclusion high labour turnover unskilled work paternalistic management regimes and work organization that allows little scope for developing workers participation in decision making let alone advocating widely accepted concepts of social justice and workers rights

Marketing Management: Theory and Practice, 2nd Edition Alexander Chernev, 2025-09-15 Marketing Management Theory and Practice provides a systematic overview of the fundamentals of marketing theory defines the core principles of marketing management and presents a value based framework for developing viable market offerings This theory is grounded in the view of marketing as a value creation process essential to any business enterprise The discussion of marketing theory is complemented by practical tools that help managers apply the generalized frameworks to address specific business challenges and capture market opportunities The marketing theory outlined in this book applies to a broad range of companies startups and established enterprises consumer packaged goods companies and business to business firms high tech and low tech ventures online and brick and mortar businesses product manufacturers and value added service providers as well as nonprofit and profit driven organizations This book combines theoretical rigor with practical relevance to strengthen the marketing skills of a wide spectrum of business professionals from those creating new market offerings to those enhancing existing ones from entrepreneurs launching new ventures to managers in established corporations and from product managers to senior executives The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968
