Walker-Nixon, 2022-07-01 A Fire to Light Our Tongues Texas Writers on Spirituality brings together the works of writers in Texas. The title is taken with permission from Naomi Shihab Nye's introduction to Salting the Ocean: 100 Poems by Young Poets, where she states the role of poetry serves as a fire to light our tongues. This view describes the role that creative writers encountering the challenges of this past decade face as they grapple with shifting views of spirituality. While the project started before COVID-19, given the current worldwide pandemic, a book of creative work responding to writers' spirituality could not be more timely. This anthology offers readers creative works by Texas writers as they wrestle with evolving systems of belief or nonbelief. The Biology of Death Gary C. Howard, 2021 The Biology of Death ties together the many ways that death helps scientists understand life. In the book, science writer Gary C. Howard synthesizes the involvement and relation of cells, tissues, organisms, and populations, offering a comprehensive overview of what happens at the end of life.

The Old Ways Robert Macfarlane, 2012-10-11 From the acclaimed author of The Wild Places and Underland, an exploration of walking and thinking. In this exquisitely written book, Robert Macfarlane sets off from his Cambridge, England home to follow the ancient tracks, holloways, drove roads, and sea paths that crisscross both the British landscape and its waters and territories beyond. The result is an immersive, enthralling exploration of the ghosts and voices that haunt old paths, of the stories our tracks keep and tell, and of pilgrimage and ritual. Told in Macfarlane's distinctive voice, The Old Ways folds together natural history, cartography, geology, archaeology, and literature. His walks take him from the chalk downs of England to the bird islands of the Scottish northwest, from Palestine to the sacred landscapes of Spain and the Himalayas. Along the way he crosses paths with walkers of many kinds wanderers pilgrims guides and artists Above all this is a book about walking as a journey inward and the subtle ways we are shaped by the landscapes through which we move Macfarlane discovers that paths offer not just a means of traversing space but of feeling knowing and thinking
