Amazing Grace Richard Tomlinson, 2015-09-03 On a sunny afternoon in May 1868 nineteen year old Gilbert Grace stood in a Wiltshire field wondering why he was playing cricket against the Great Western Railway Club A batting genius W G should have been starring at Lord's in the grand opening match of the season But MCC did not want to elect this humble son of a provincial doctor W G's career was faltering before it had barely begun Grace finally forced his way into MCC and over the next three decades millions came to watch him not just at Lord's but across the British Empire and beyond Only W G could boast a fan base that stretched from an American Civil War general and the Prince of Wales's mistress to the children who fingered his coat tails as he walked down the street just to say I touched him The public never knew the darker story behind W G's triumphal progress Accused of avarice W G was married to the daughter of a bankrupt Disparaged as a simpleton his subversive mind recast how to play sport thrillingly hard pushing the rules beating his opponents his own way

The Love of the Game Mark Chapman,2016-11-03 BBC sports presenter Mark Chapman is no longer in his physical prime There is an argument to suggest he has never been in his physical prime Now in his forties he is facing a world of knee replacements and ever expanding waistlines whilst his children are thriving There is huge pride that they are doing so well mixed with a fair amount of jealousy that actually they are better at a wide range of sport than he ever was He is passionate about sport and it has played a huge part in his life His parents encouraged him from a very early age and he wants to pass the baton on to his son and daughters Although there is every chance he might drop it and have a massive strop instead He is also very aware of the huge changes in sport today compared to when he was growing up and he is determined that his own attitude to his son and daughters sport be it football netball cricket or gymnastics will be exactly the same And he wants to shine a light on grass roots sports the incredible and largely unsung contribution that volunteers make in the sporting community without whom for example no professional footballer would be in the game today Funny touching passionate about sport and parenthood Mark Chapman paints sport as a touchstone for everything important growing up becoming a parent enjoying family time getting old learning how to win and how to lose gracefully the legacy we all hope to leave our children in short life and all that goes into it
