Rereading German History (Routledge Revivals) Richard J. Evans, 2015-06-05 In Rereading German History first published in 1997 Richard J Evans draws together his seminal review essays on the political economic cultural and social history of Germany through war and reunification This book provides a study of how and why historians mainly German American British and French have provided a series of differing and often conflicting readings of the German past It also presents a reconsideration of German history in the light of the recent decline of the German Democratic Republic collapse of the Berlin Wall and the reunification of Germany

Rereading German History re-examines major controversies in modern German history such as the debate over Germany's special path to modernity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the discussions in the 1980s on the uniqueness or otherwise of Auschwitz Evans also analyses the arguments over the nature of German national identity The book offers trenchant and important analytical insights into the history of Germany in the last two centuries and is ideal reading material for students of modern history and German studies

I. A. Richards (Routledge Revivals) John Paul Russo, 2015-06-11 A pioneering critic educator and poet I A Richards 1893-1979 helped the English speaking world decide not only what to read but how to read it Acknowledged father of New Criticism he produced the most systematic body of critical writing in the English language since Coleridge His method of close reading dominated the English speaking classroom for half a century John Paul Russo draws on close personal acquaintance with Richards as well as on unpublished materials correspondence and interviews to write the first biography originally published in 1989 of one of last century's most influential and many-sided men of letters

Narrative Exchanges (Routledge Revivals) Ian Reid, 2014-08-13 First published in 1992 Narrative Exchanges shows how a general model of communicative exchanges can be refined to deal with the complexities of narrative fiction Going beyond the two way structure of reciprocity it gives particular attention to the processes of framing substitution and dispossession by which written texts generate meaning The title provides an innovative way of combining narrative and exchange theory bringing the two areas of thought into a mutually critical relationship Using a wide variety of narrative texts literary and non literary canonical and non canonical authors discussed include Flaubert Achebe Mansfield Boccaccio Duras Daudet Moorhouse DeLillo and Wordsworth Drawing on perspectives from anthropology linguistics and education and combining accessible readings with theoretical debate Ian Reid makes a significant contribution to the debate about narrative theory Jacques Derrida (Routledge Revivals) William Schultz, Lewis L.B. Fried, 2016-06-17 First published in 1992 this book represents the first major attempt to compile a bibliography of Derrida's work and scholarship about his work It attempts to be comprehensive rather than selective listing primary and secondary works from the year of Derrida's Master's thesis in 1954 up until 1991 and is extensively annotated It arranges under article type a huge number of works from scholars across numerous fields reflecting the interdisciplinary and controversial nature of Deconstruction The substantial introduction and annotations also make this bibliography in part a critical guide and as such will make a highly useful reference tool for those studying his philosophy Images of Crisis (Routledge Revivals) George P. Landow, 2014-08-01 First published in 1982 Images of Crisis explores the premise that literature and art exploit various images to present culturally prevalent ideas and thus create their own form of iconology George Landow shows how the tumultuous history of the past two hundred years has resulted in a plethora of metaphors associated with moments of human crisis Avalanches and volcanoes emerge as focal images in an aesthetic that concerns itself increasingly with the vulnerability of humanity However it is in the transformation of traditional religious images that the ideas of the vacant universe are most dramatically presented Associated with this central idea are ironic transformations of other images that formerly had been associated with Christianity as paradigms of belief the journey of Odysseus the rainbow of the Covenant and Robinson Crusoe Combining close textual analysis with a theory of literary iconology this fascinating reissue will be of particular value to students with an interest in literary images and literary and cultural history Routledge Revivals: Neglected Powers (1971) G. Wilson Knight, 2017-11-22 First published in 1971 Professor Knight's book draws analytic attention to poets including Tennyson Masfield and Brooke who are shown to hold a dimension of meaning previously ignored or misunderstood Homage is paid to John Cowper Powys as one of the foremost seers of the modern age A comprehensive review of the work of Francis Berry claims to establish him as our foremost living poet Professor Knight urges and goes far to prove that modern literary criticism up until the 1970s failed to touch upon the richer meanings of contemporary literature he stresses the relation between such acclaimed poets as Yeats and Eliot and the spiritualistic movements of contemporary times Knight regards youth revolts as a sign of a healthy dissatisfaction with an irreligious and directionless culture and believes that hope lies in the neglected powers pressing for acceptance Discourse in Psychoanalysis and Literature (Routledge Revivals)

Shlomith Rimmon-Kenan, 2014-11-13 The essays in this collection first published in 1987 represent a collective attempt to listen with the third ear to the underhand ways the unspoken has of speaking and to speak of these ways By focusing on discourse the volume is distinguished from traditional literature by its emphasis on rhetorical structures and textual strategies and the investment of these structures with desire power and other aspects of subjectivity rather than the personality of the artist or the creative process However in this book the human dimension is not lost By claiming that the structures in question are not merely linguistic semiotic or narratological although they are all of these the human dimension is returned not in the raw as in traditional approaches but through the traces it leaves in the text as activated by its reading This book is ideal for students of literature and psychoanalytical theory Routledge Revivals: Arguing With The Past (1989)

Gillian Beer, 2018-04-17 First published in 1989 this book analyses fiction and long narrative drawing on a broad range of writing from earlier periods and on recent narrative theory Gillian Beer looks at the work of writers as diverse as Thomas Carlyle and Philip Sydney Samuel Richardson and George Eliot Three chapters on Virginia Woolf demonstrate how Woolf's reading of past literature philosophy and science gave her an intellectual and emotional purchase on problems of feminism and modernism Beer examines how writers create dialogues with past writing how readers of the present day engage with the difference of past literature and how we make contact with the desires and debates of past readers The Major Victorian Poets: Reconsiderations (Routledge Revivals)

Isobel Armstrong, 2013-06-17 First published in 1969 this edition collection brings together a series of essays offering a re evaluation of Victorian poetry in the light of early 20th Century criticism The essays in this collection concentrate upon the poets whose reputations suffered from the great redirection of energy in English criticism initiated in this century by Eliot Richards and Leavis What these poets wrote about the values they expressed the form of the poems the language they used all these were examined and found wanting in some radical way One of the results of this criticism was the renewal of interest in metaphysical and eighteenth century poetry and corresponding ebb of enthusiasm for Romantic poetry and for Victorian poetry in particular Most of the essays in this book take as their starting point questions raised by the debate on Victorian poetry both earlier in this century and in the more recent past There are essays on the poetry of Tennyson Browning and Arnold on that of Clough who until recently has been neglected and Hopkins because of rather than in spite of the fact that he is usually considered to be a modern poet The volume is especially valuable in that it will give a clearer understanding of the nature of Victorian poetry concentrating as it does on those areas of a poet's work where critical discussion seems most necessary Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006)

Josef Meri, 2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today's Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such

Islands, Identity and the Literary Imagination Elizabeth

McMahon, 2016-07-09 Australia is the planet s sole island continent This book argues that the uniqueness of this geography has shaped Australian history and culture including its literature Further it shows how the fluctuating definition of the island continent throws new light on the relationship between islands and continents in the mapping of modernity The book links the historical and geographical conditions of islands with their potent role in the imaginary of European colonisation It prises apart the tangled web of geography fantasy desire and writing that has framed the Western understanding of islands their real and material conditions and their symbolic resonance from antiquity into globalised modernity The book also traces how this spatial imaginary has shaped the modern man who is imagined as being the island s natural inhabitant or mirror

Importantly the book challenges these habits of thought by their relocation within larger topological and imaginary visions from islanders themselves

Virtual Play and the Victorian Novel Timothy Gao, 2021-04-15 Pondering the town he had invented in his novels Anthony Trollope had so realised the place and the people and the facts of Barset that the pavement of the city ways are familiar to my footsteps After his novels end William Thackeray wonders where his characters now live and misses their conversation How can we understand the novel as a form of artificial reality Timothy Gao proposes a history of virtual realities stemming from the imaginary worlds created by novelists like Trollope Thackeray Charlotte Bronte and Charles Dickens Departing from established historical or didactic understandings of Victorian fiction Virtual Play and the Victorian Novel recovers the period s fascination with imagined places people and facts This text provides a short history of virtual experiences in literature four studies of major novelists and an innovative approach for scholars and students to interpret realist fictions and fictional realities from before the digital age This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Early Anthropocene Literature in Britain, 1750-1884 Seth T. Reno, 2020-08-19 This book questions when exactly the Anthropocene began uncovering an early Anthropocene in the literature art and science of eighteenth and nineteenth century Britain In chapters organized around the classical elements of Earth Fire Water and Air Seth Reno shows how literary writers of the Industrial Era borrowed from scientists to capture the changes they witnessed to weather climate and other systems Poets linked the hellish flames of industrial furnaces to the magnificent geophysical force of volcanic explosions Novelists and painters depicted cloud formations and polluted urban atmospheres as part of the emerging discipline of climate science In so doing the subjects of Reno's study some famous some more obscure gave form to a growing sense of humans as geophysical agents capable of reshaping Earth itself Situated at the intersection of literary studies environmental studies and science studies Early Anthropocene Literature in Britain tells the story of how writers heralded and wrestled with Britain's role in sparking the now familiar epoch of humans Infertilities Robin Truth Goodman, 2001 In today's global market ideas about family femininity and reproduction are traded on as actively as any currency or stock The connection has a history one rooted in a conception of feminine identities invented through a science interwoven with the pursuit of empire the accumulation of goods and the furtherance of power It is this history that Robin Truth Goodman exposes in her analysis of literary and political representations of female infertility from the mid nineteenth century to our day Goodman takes Darwin's studies on sterility between species as her starting point exploring evolutionary science as the intersection of a colonial worldview based on class struggle and the pathologizing of female identities that fall outside of reproductive normalcy She then examines how Joseph Conrad constructs a vision of feminism as a product of miscegenation how Alejo Carpentier and Mario Vargas Llosa deploy female figures of miscegenation to recast Latin American literature as difference and how ecological devastation in the Brazilian Amazon is envisioned through failures in Indian marriage Locating points of conjunction between queer feminist and postcolonial theories Infertilities points to the role of lesbian representation and reproductive politics in ongoing critiques of globalism BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Apart from Modernism Robin Peel, 2005 The study emphasizes the crucial role that Wharton's contact with Europe had on her writing and the significance intellectually and politically of her relationship with Morton Fullerton and her reading of his books on politics It locates Wharton in her period surrounded as she was by discourses which called for political and social change change which an outlook that Peel calls American Toryism made her reluctant to embrace Her love of motorcars and her excitement about other technological developments such as aeroplanes was inspired by a feeling of exclusivity and not the democratization of culture which she feared and condemned France England Italy and America formed the quartet of countries that contained the best and worst of culture and Peel emphasizes how ironical it was that a writer whose ideological beliefs endorsed the importance of home roots and tradition should have spent so much of her life as a restless apparently rootless traveler BOOK JACKET

Grasping for the Wind John W. Whitehead, 2001 Whitehead applies his razor sharp thinking to the question How did our culture get into the dismal moral and cultural state it is in today He provides a fascinating sketch of 20th century culture clearly showing how the artists and culture makers influenced the philosophical and moral climate of the world today Skillfully synthesizing major philosophical movements of the century he places cultural heroes into a larger context of truth and morality Great Power Strategy in Asia Jonathan Bailey, 2006-11-22 This book analyzes the enduring themes underlying the strategic struggles of the great powers in East Asia beginning with the watershed event of the 1904-5 Russo

Japanese War Mistaking Africa Curtis Keim, Carolyn Somerville, 2018-04-17 For many Americans the mention of Africa immediately conjures up images of safaris ferocious animals strangely dressed tribesmen and impenetrable jungles Although the occasional newspaper headline mentions authoritarian rule corruption genocide devastating illnesses or civil war in Africa the collective American consciousness still carries strong mental images of Africa that are reflected in advertising movies amusement parks cartoons and many other corners of society Few think to question these perceptions or how they came to be so deeply lodged in American minds Mistaking Africa looks at the historical evolution of this mind set and examines the role that popular media plays in its creation The authors address the most prevalent myths and preconceptions and demonstrate how these prevent a true understanding of the enormously diverse peoples and cultures of Africa Updated throughout the fourth edition covers the entire continent North and sub Saharan Africa and provides new analysis of topics such as social media and the Internet the Ebola crisis celebrity aid and the Arab Spring Mistaking Africa is an important book for African studies courses and for anyone interested in unravelling American misperceptions about the continent
