Journey Through Depression Avril Thorn:

A Journey Through Depression Avril Thorn, 2015-12 Avril was born in 1954 and from an early age had problems with her bowels and vomiting It was not until 1981 that this became so acute that it affected her health with a massive loss of weight Doctors were unable to pinpoint a cause and her problems were put down as psychosomatic It was not until she was seen by Dr Mohanna that the fight to recognise her problems as a physical illness became a reality He was convinced the illness had to be physical as there was no known mental illness that had her symptoms So after 30 years of suffering the fight to diagnose the illness really began Her poems were written in the blackest period of her life and give an insight to the feelings that assail in the darkest depths of depression "Will you walk into my parlor?" ; The thorns of the rose ;
