Journeys Through Fascism Italian Travel Writing Between The Wars Author Charles Burdett Jan 201:

Journeys Through Fascism Charles Burdett, 2007-11-01 During the twenty years of Mussolini's rule a huge number of travel texts were written of journeys made during the interwar period to the sacred sites of Fascist Italy Mussolini's newly conquered African empire Spain during the Civil War Nazi Germany Communist Russia and the America of the New Deal Examining these observations by writers and journalists the author throws new light on the evolving ideology of Fascism how it was experienced and propagated by prominent figures of the time how the regime created a utopian vision of the Roman past and the imperial future and how it interpreted the attractions and dangers of other totalitarian cultures The book helps gain a better understanding of the evolving concepts of imperialism which were at the heart of Italian Fascism and thus shows that travel writing can offer an important contribution to historical analysis

Cultural Encounters Charles Burdett, Derek Duncan, 2002 The 1930s were one of the most important decades in defining the history of the twentieth century It saw the rise of right wing nationalism the challenge to established democracies and the full force of imperialist aggression Cultural Encounters makes an important contribution to our understanding of the ideological and cultural forces which were active in defining notions of national identity in the 1930s By examining the work of writers and journalists from a range of European countries who used the medium of travel writing to articulate perceptions of their own and other cultures the book gives a comprehensive account of the complex intellectual climate of the 1930s
