Mother Archive Erika Morillo, 2024-10-28 2024 NBCC Award Finalist Autobiography A family murder kept secret the mysterious disappearance of her father the systematic erasing of family photographs a turbulent relationship with her mother layers of trauma and abuse In Mother Archive Erika Morillo reconciles these demons of her past by searching for and seeking out the roots of her family Intertwining memories with archival family photographs news clippings film stills and artistic images Morillo revisits her childhood growing up in the Dominican Republic a place and time riddled with a history of violence and a tradition of erasure Spanning three generations across three different countries this memoir works as a map in which the author traces incidents in her family history to help her understand herself and her own experience as a mother

Kitchenspace Maria Elisa Christie, 2009-08-17 Throughout the world the kitchen is the heart of family and community life Yet while everyone has a story to tell about their grandmother's kitchen the myriad activities that go on in this usually female world are often devalued and little scholarly attention has been paid to this crucial space in which family gender and community relations are forged and maintained To give the kitchen the prominence and respect it merits Maria Elisa Christie here offers a pioneering ethnography of kitchenspace in three central Mexican communities Xochimilco Ocotepéc and Tetecala Christie coined the term kitchenspace to encompass both the inside kitchen area in which everyday meals for the family are made and the larger outside cooking area in which elaborate meals for community fiestas are prepared by many women working together She explores how both kinds of meal preparation create bonds among family and community members In particular she shows how women s work in preparing food for fiestas gives women status in their communities and creates social networks of reciprocal obligation In a culture rigidly stratified by gender Christie concludes kitchenspace gives women a source of power and a place in which to transmit the traditions and beliefs of older generations through quasi sacramental food rites 'Speeches & Specifics; a five-step introduction into Peruvian Spanish' Marco Rixecker,2016-09-12

Northern Peru has often been described as the Egypt of South America BetweenEcuador and Lima countless archaeological sites ancient cities and unexplored ruins await the traveler willing to deviate fromthe Pan American Highway and to see more of Peru than Cuzco or Machu Picchu Near the capital Lima there is a small town by the name of Supe From there a side road goes to the ancient city of Caral It is thought to be the oldest city in the Americas and one of the oldest developedsettlements in the world There is Egypt There is Mesopotamia And there is Caral in Peru which is more than 5 000 years old Puerto Rican Sabbatical Roscoe Mitchell Pierson,1959 Puerto Rico Grand Cuisine of the Caribbean José Luis Díaz de Villegas,2004 Directory of Chain Restaurant Operators ,1995 An American Beach for African Americans Marsha Dean Phelts,2010-05-25 In the only complete history of Florida s American Beach to date Marsha Dean Phelts draws together personal interviews photos newspaper articles memoirs maps and official documents to reconstruct the character and traditions of Amelia Island s 200 acre African American community In its heyday when other beaches grudgingly provided only limited access black vacationers traveled as many as 1 000 miles down the east coast of the United States and hundreds of miles along the Gulf coast to a beachfront that welcomed their business Beginning in 1781 with the Samuel Harrison homestead on the southern end of Amelia Island Phelts traces the birth of the community to General Sherman s Special Field Order No 15 in which the Union granted many former Confederate coastal holdings including Harrison s property to former slaves She then follows the lineage of the first African American families known to have settled in the area to descendants remaining there today including those of Zephaniah Kingsley and his wife Anna Jai Moving through the Jim Crow era Phelts describes the development of American Beach s predecessors in the early 1900s Finally she provides the fullest account to date of the life and contributions of Abraham Lincoln Lewis the wealthy African American businessman who in 1935 as president of the Afro American Life Insurance Company initiated the purchase and development of the tract of seashore known as American Beach From Lewis s arrival on the scene Phelts follows the community s sustained development and growth highlighting landmarks like the Ocean Vu Inn and the Blue Palace and concluding with a stirring plea for the preservation of American Beach which is currently threatened by encroaching development In a narrative full of firsthand accounts and old timer stories Phelts who has vacationed at American Beach since she was four and now lives there frequently adopts the style of an oral historian to paint what is ultimately a personal and intimate portrait of a community
