explain its continuing popularity after over a century Sufism and the Scriptures Fitzroy Morrissey, 2020-12-10 The Sufi thinker Abd al Karim al Jili d 1408 is best known for his treatment of the idea of the Perfect Human yet his masterpiece al Insan al kamil The Perfect Human is in fact a wide ranging compendium of Sufi metaphysical thought in the Ibn Arabian tradition One of the major topics treated in that work is sacred history the story of God s revelation of the truth to humanity through His prophets and scriptures Fitzroy Morrissey provides here the first in depth study of this important section of al Jili s major work and the key ideas contained within it Through a translation and analysis of the key passages on the Qur an Torah Psalms and Gospel it shows how al Jili s view of sacred history is conditioned by his Ibn Arabian Sufi metaphysics whereby the phenomenal world is viewed as a manifestation of God and the prophets and scriptures as special places where the divine attributes appear more completely It also looks at how this idea influences al Jili s understanding of the hierarchy of prophets scriptures and religions The book argues that contrary to common assumptions al Jili s Sufi metaphysical view of sacred history is in keeping with the common medieval Muslim view of sacred history whereby the Qur an is viewed as the best of scriptures Muhammad as the best of prophets and Islam as the best religion The book therefore not only gives an insight into a key text within medieval Sufi thought but also has ramifications for our understanding of medieval Sufi views on the relationship between Islam and other religions Islamic Societies to the Nineteenth Century Ira M. Hasidic Reflections on Temporality Elliot R. Wolfson,2021-05-25 No one theory of time is pursued in these essays but a major theme that threads them together is Wolfson s signature idea of the timeswerve as a linear circularity or a circular linearity expressions that are meant to avoid the conventional split between the two temporal modalities of the line and the circle The conception of time elicited by Wolfson from a host of philosophical and mystical sources both Jewish and non Jewish buttresses the contention that it is precisely structural invariability that engenders interpretive variation This hermeneutical axiom is justified in turn by the presumption regarding the cadence of time as the constant return of what has always been what is yet to be The telling of time wells forth from the time of telling One cannot speak of the being of time consequently except from the standpoint of the time of being nor of the time of being except from the standpoint of the being of time Mysticism Jess Hollenback,1996-09-15 This sweeping study of mysticism by Jess Hollenback considers the writings and experiences of a broad range of traditional religious mystics including Teresa of Avila Black Elk and Gopi Krishna It also makes use of a new category of sources that more traditional scholars have almost entirely ignored namely the autobiographies and writings of contemporary clairvoyants mediums and out of body travelers This study contributes to the current debate about the contextuality of mysticism by presenting evidence that not only are the mystic s interpretations of and responses to experiences culturally and historically conditioned but historical context and cultural environment decisively shape both the perceptual and affective content of the mystic s experience as well Hollenback also explores the linkage between the mystic s practice of recollection and the onset of other unusual or supernormal manifestations such as photisms the ability to see auras telepathic sensitivity clairvoyance and out of body experiences He demonstrates that these extraordinary phenomena can actually deepen our understanding of mysticism in unexpected ways A unique feature of this book is its in depth analysis of empowerment an important phenomenon ignored by most scholars of mysticism Empowerment is a peculiar enhancement of the imagination thoughts and desires that frequently accompanies mystical states of consciousness Hollenback shows its cross cultural persistence its role in constructing the perceptual and existential environments within which the mystic dwells and its linkage to the fundamental contextuality of mystical experience The Nightfolk Dunja Rasic,2025 This story begins with a divine unveiling In 1220 a mysterious youth took the Sufi scholar poet and philosopher Muhy al D n Ibn Arab behind the veil of the night There Ibn Arab first came face to face with advanced and morally ambiguous spiritual practitioners known as the Nightfolk In The Nightfolk Duja Rasi offers a pioneering historical and conceptual analysis of the once widespread beliefs about the night and its people in Muslim cultures and societies Drawing on a wealth of primary source materials Rasi traces these beliefs from their origins in the seventh century to their most prominent form in the thirteenth century works of Ibn Arab Re examining common notions of spiritual authority ascension self isolation moral choice and transgression in Muslim cultures and societies The Nightfolk is a crucial read for those interested in philosophical Sufism and Ibn Arab s attempts to bridge the gap between the visible world and the realms of the unseen Fifty Key Figures in Islam Roy Jackson,2006-09-27 The perfect resource for those wishing to learn more about the Muslim culture its people and its teachings Fifty Key Figures in Islam explores the lives and thoughts of fifty influential individuals in Islam and surveys a heritage that spans 1 500 years Covering key figures such as the Prophet Muhammad Suleiman the Magnificent and El Hajj Malik El Shabazz Malcolm X the entry for each figure includes biographical details a presentation and analysis of their main ideas an account of their impact and influence within and if appropriate beyond the Islamic tradition list of major works and additional reading Fully cross referenced for ease of use this clearly presented work is ideal for those interested in or studying the area and could not have come at a more fascinating time in history for Islam Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Julie Scott Meisami,Paul Starkey,1998 This reference work covers the classical transitional and modern periods Editors and contributors cover an international scope of Arabic literature in many countries Tales of a Modern Sufi Nevit O. Ergin,2009-02-12 A collection of modern Sufi tales by renowned Rumi translator and Sufi initiate Nevit Ergin Contains 24 deceptively simple stories that invoke questioning and awareness By the renowned English translator of Rumi s complete Divan i Kebir Sufi stories have traditionally been a means of opening a portal that allows us to advance from our basic perceptions into states of extraordinary awareness This collection of deceptively simple stories by renowned Rumi translator and Sufi Nevit Ergin has the ability to remove readers complacent sense of self and identity and to expand their ordinary awareness of reality from every possible direction In his stories the primrose path we travel suddenly turns into a trickster s hall of mirrors where we learn that we are not children of Adam and Eve so much as children of our perceptions The protagonists and antagonists of these stories are constantly morphing and exchanging places They exist in a world where individuals are stalked by a cricket that is an invisible monster with the face of a demon confront the ambiguous burden of ridding oneself of one's own corpse and discover the invisible fence of reality existing in the layers of a discarded piece of art. The symbols in these stories are booby traps designed to release the mind from the sense of its own importance and awaken the realization that if you refuse to be born you cannot die. Blind faith the author says has proved itself incapable of producing wisdom, tolerance, or world peace. This is because the answers to humanity's problems lie beyond our ordinary perception and require love and ecstasy to be made visible. Our thirst for wisdom and understanding must go to the fountain of universal truth. These stories provide water from that fountain.

Rumi's Four Essential Practices Will Johnson, 2010-01-19. Poems and commentary that open the door for a new generation to experience the ecstatic and embodied spiritual truths contained in Rumi's poetry. Reveals how the four practices of eating lightly, breathing deeply, moving freely, and gazing intently can invoke the divinity within us all. Explains how these practices dissolve the self's need for identity so that we may experience a state of transcendent ecstasy and union with the divine. Takes Rumi's path to finding God from theoretical to embodied practices. The great thirteenth-century Sufi mystic and poet Jalaluddin Rumi began his life as an orthodox Islamic believer but felt that to fully experience complete union with the divine he must abandon institutionalized religion and its prescribed forms of worship. Surrendering his will to his overriding urge for a much more immediate, intuitive, and compelling union with the divine, he found that by manipulating certain behavioral aspects of his physiology—eating lightly, breathing deeply, moving freely, and gazing raptly—he was capable of loosening the rigid confines of the self, thereby overriding its limitations and achieving a transcendent merging with his own divinity. His message is simple: if you wish to affect the spirit, you must first make changes in the way your body responds to the world. Through clearly written commentary interspersed with Rumi's beautiful poems, this book details these four practices in a very precise way. As such, it is a sweet and open invitation to follow the examples set forth in order to embark upon one's own path of inner illumination. The freshness of Rumi's poetry dissolves the 700 years that separate his life from our own time, making his message as pertinent today as when he walked the streets of Konya, Anatolia, present-day Turkey, reciting his inspiring verse. This book allows us, through Rumi's gentle guidance, to touch the face of God that resides deep within us all. The Minaret, 1999.
