broken but their faith in each other helps them get across In The Meadow of Mists they meet Misty the fox She becomes a good friend and teacher for them showing them how to trust others and depend on their skills The Mountain That Moans shows kids how laughter can help them feel better They learn a lot about themselves and what it means to be truly brave by meeting challenges like the Garden of Time the Valley of Shadows and the Bridge of Questions These places test their honesty bravery and mental toughness When they see themselves in the City of Mirrors they learn how important it is to know and like who they are The Forest of Giants shows kids how to get along with creatures much bigger than them and the Cave of Echoes stresses how important it is to be able to communicate clearly In the end their trip brings them to the Crystal of Light which is watched over by a dragon whose worth is based on the good things they did along the way When they get back to Greenwood after getting the Crystal everyone is happy for them The Crystal of Light which is on top of the tallest building gives off light which drives away darkness and protects the town for a long time The journey of Pixie and Pippin is a touching tale of bravery friendship and the desire to learn They not only save their town but they also grow as people and learn important lessons about being brave working together and having faith in yourself Their story backs up the idea that real adventures bring out the best in us and teach us lessons that shape who we are and help others Chapter 1 What They Found A curious and lively friend pair named Pixie and Pippin lived in Greenwood a cute little town surrounded by big green trees Pippin was a little quieter than Pixie but she was just as curious Pixie had beautiful eyes that were always shining with wonder and fun They liked looking for things in the woods and making up stories while the leaves and bark rustled Pixie and Pippin were playing hide and seek near an old oak tree on a sunny morning The sunbeams danced through the leaves making beautiful shadows on the ground There was no other tree in town like this one Its huge branches seemed to reach for the sky The person was the oldest and smartest in the town Pippin closed his eyes and counted while Pixie looked for the best place to hide That s when she saw something strange in the ground around the tree s roots It looked a little different like the ground had been shaken up Pixie was so interested that she didn t play the game and instead called Pippin They dug together to carefully get rid of the leaves and dirt They quickly touched something tough They got more excited with each scoop of dirt so they dug faster and soon found a box The sun moon and stars were carved into the chest in a very detailed way The iron clasp was rusty Pixie and Pippin both looked worried and happy as they opened the chest together The most beautiful map they had ever seen was on a silk cloth inside They had never seen a chart like this one before It shone with its own light and the way it pointed to was gentle and friendly The path went around and around going through an area that no one knew until it reached a fork in the road that was marked by a sparkling gem Their hearts skipped a beat They were about to have a real experience that was unlike anything they had ever thought of The thrill of finding something new and the promise of what s to come filled their eyes as they looked at each other This map was their ticket to a trip they could never have imagined It took them through beautiful places that were far from Greenwood s well known roads Pixie and Pippin knew big things were going to happen in their lives when they held the map They were about to enter a magical and mysterious world where anything was possible Chapter 2 Making a Choice It was a nice night and Pixie and Pippin slept well in their beds while the moon shone over Greenwood They were so excited about what they had found that they couldn't sleep The charming map stuck in their thoughts Its worn corners and well drawn lines showed them a road they had never seen before It wasn't just a map it held the promise of an exciting journey and problems to be solved They had so many questions in their minds What amazing things might they see What kind of people might they meet along the way They got chills down their spines just thinking about it Though there was some joy there was also some fear They knew that having experiences meant more than just knowing about the world's wonders Having adventures meant taking chances getting past problems and visiting places that had not been seen before And this wasn't just any adventure they were looking for the legendary Crystal of Light a diamond that would keep their town safe from the dark As they lay there in the dark and talked about what might happen they realized this was more than just a chance to go on a journey It was a chance to make a change and become the leads in their own story They gave careful thought to their family friends and everyone else in Greenwood What would happen if the Crystal of Light was found Think about how happy and relieved everyone would be During the night people mumbled their plans and shared their dreams As soon as the sun came up and lit up their windows Pixie and Pippin knew what they were going to do It really would be dangerous Their path would be hard and they might even be in danger On the other hand the thought of taking care of their town and discovering the magic of the enchanted worlds made them very determined They were excited and nervous at the same time when they chose to leave at first light Even though they knew the trip wouldn't be easy they couldn't say no to the thrill of the adventure and the chance to be heroes With the magical map to help them find the Crystal of Light Pixie and Pippin were about to go on an adventure into the unknown They were eager to follow the path because they knew this was the moment that would make their lives different every day
