Finding Abundance in the Shadow of Death

The background of the lower half of the cover is a rich, textured painting. It depicts a landscape with a path or riverbed in shades of orange and red leading towards a blue body of water. The surrounding areas are filled with thick, expressive brushstrokes in various shades of green, yellow, and blue, suggesting dense foliage and trees. The overall style is impressionistic and colorful.

Joy in the Journey Steve Hayner, Sharol Hayner, 2015-06-01 Steve Hayner was serving as president of Columbia Seminary and was healthy and fit when he found out he had terminal pancreatic cancer These pages including reflections from some of those closest to Steve and his wife Sharol offer us a hope filled glimpse into what it means to walk with God in honesty with joy even through great pain Living in Bonus Time Alec Hill, 2020-01-07 Those who experience and survive cancer live in bonus time a season of grace that can be both disorienting and wonderful In this honest and hopeful account two time survivor Alec Hill helps readers recalibrate expectations grapple with survivor's guilt and steward the opportunities for new purpose and growth Survivors and caregivers can discover how encountering death can bring us to a different kind of life

To Count Our Days Erskine Clarke, 2022-04-13 An in depth look at the institution as the center of many important cultural shifts with which the South and the wider Church have wrestled historically Columbia Theological Seminary's rich history provides a window into the social and intellectual life of the American South Founded in 1828 as a Presbyterian seminary for the preparation of well educated mannerly ministers it was located during its first one hundred years in Columbia South Carolina During the antebellum period it was known for its affluent and intellectually sophisticated board faculty and students Its leaders sought to follow a middle way on the great intellectual and social issues of the day including slavery Columbia's leaders Unionists until the election of Lincoln became ardent supporters of the Confederacy While the seminary survived the burning of the city in 1865 it was left impoverished and poorly situated to meet the challenges of the modern world Nevertheless the seminary entered a serious debate about Darwinism Professor James Woodrow uncle of Woodrow Wilson advocated a modest Darwinism but reactionary forces led the seminary into a growing provincialism and intellectual isolation In 1928 the seminary moved to metropolitan Atlanta signifying a transition from the Old South toward the New mercantile South The seminary brought to its handsome new campus the theological commitments and racist assumptions that had long marked it Under the leadership of James McDowell Richards Columbia struggled against its poverty provincialism and deeply embedded racism By the final decade of the twentieth century Columbia had become one of the most highly endowed seminaries in the country had internationally recognized faculty and had students from all over the world and many Christian denominations By the early years of the twenty first century Columbia had embraced a broad diversity in faculty and students Columbia's evolution has challenged assumptions about what it means to be Presbyterian southern and American as the seminary continues its primary mission of providing the church a learned ministry A well written and carefully documented history not only of Columbia Theological Seminary but also of the interplay among culture theology and theological institutions This is necessary reading for anyone seeking to discern the future of theological education in the twenty first century Justo L. Gonzalez Church Historian Decatur GA Clarke's engaging history of one institution is also an incisive study of change in Southern culture This is institutional history at its best Clarke takes us inside a school of theology but also lets us feel the outside forces always pressing in on it and he writes with the skill of a novelist A remarkable accomplishment E Brooks Holifield Emory University The Collected Sermons of David Bartlett David L. Bartlett,2020-01-21 This collection of fifty two sermons shows beloved New Testament scholar David Bartlett at his best Bartlett who died in 2017 spent his career teaching and mentoring preachers at The University of Chicago Divinity School Yale Divinity School Union Presbyterian Seminary and Columbia Theological Seminary as well as serving as a pastor in American Baptist churches Thus he has generations of friends and former students who knew him for his quick wit passion for justice and deep knowledge of the Bible Those traits show through in these sermons As Nora Tisdale says in the foreword All of the sermons in this volume give witness to Davids passion for preaching that is solidly grounded in the biblical text Most of them actually begin as Karl Barth urged preachers to begin with the biblical text If they dont begin there they always get there fairly quickly And Davids interpretations of texts often surprise the reader with their freshness and clarity In addition to individual sermons several multiweek sermon series including a series on Who Is Jesus and Great Words of the Faith are included Walking Through Twilight Douglas Groothuis,2017-11-21 How do you continue to find God as dementia pulls your loved one into the darkness Philosopher Douglas Groothuis offers a window into his experience of caring for his wife as a rare form of dementia ravages her once brilliant mind Mixing personal narrative with spiritual insight he captures moments of lament as well as theological reflection and poignant pictures of their life together Broken Hallelujahs Beth Allen Slevcove,2016-02-24 The losses in our lives are both big and small We leave home We experience physical illness We struggle with vocation We may long for a spouse or child We lose people we love to addiction or death In this book spiritual director Beth Slevcove offers stories of loss from her own life along with distinctive spiritual practices that can guide us back to God Empowered to Repair Brenda Salter McNeil,2024-05-28 An inspiring starting point for Christians looking to put their beliefs into action Publishers Weekly Political and cultural wars are tearing communities apart Issues such as immigration racism and guns are driving wedges between people and hampering Christians impact in the world In Empowered to Repair Brenda Salter McNeil looks to the biblical story of Nehemiah for answers There she finds an action based model for repairing and rebuilding our communities and transforming broken systems McNeil goes beyond theories offering practical tools Christians need for organizing empowering and activating people to join in God s work of equality reparations and justice She provides strategies to drive systemic changes that go beyond superficial diversity and teaches the skills needed to engage in this important work long term such as organizing people leveraging resources and avoiding burnout through rest prayer and self care Learning from Nehemiah readers will be emboldened to go out and help build congregations organizations and communities where all people can flourish and reach their full God given potential Happy Church Tim McConnell,2016-01-06 Has your church lost its sense of gladness Most Christians resist the idea of pursuing happiness We re comfortable with finding joy or being blessed but seeking happiness seems too superficial Offering a radical call to reclaim happiness Tim McConnell shares his countercultural vision for radiating a deep sense of joy in a world that desperately needs it

Strong and Weak Andy Crouch, 2016-01-22 Two common temptations lure us away from abundant living withdrawing into safety or grasping for power True flourishing says Andy Crouch travels down an unexpected path being both strong and weak Regardless of your stage or role in life here is a way of love and risk so that we all even the most vulnerable can flourish

Becoming Curious Casey Tygrett, 2017-05-02 A little curiosity is essential to growth In this engaging and interactive book pastor and spiritual director Casey Tygrett explores the benefits of a healthy curiosity in our spiritual lives When we make curiosity a spiritual practice we open up to new ways of knowing God and knowing ourselves as well Come and discover the power of asking questions

Walking with God through Deep Valleys Dr. Stephen A. Gammon, 2020-09-01 All of life is not lived on mountaintops We will experience some deep valleys of pain disappointment uncertainty sickness grief and even the valley of the shadow of death Sometimes multitudes enter long and deep valleys together as in prolonged seasons of war or the COVID 19 pandemic that brought many to hardship uncertainty and fear Yet it often feels like we are walking through a deep valley alone It doesn't have to be that way Scripture makes it clear that if we have even a little faith the Lord walks with us and guides us If we keep our eyes on Him our deepest valleys will strengthen and enrich our walk with God Stephen Gammon faithfully served God for 40 years as a pastor and military chaplain Then in October 2018 he was diagnosed with cancer Multiple Myeloma he and his wife Helen entered this deep valley walking with God by faith With personal vulnerability and spiritual insight he posted regular medical updates on the CaringBridge website sharing many priceless lessons learned while walking with God through their valley Tens of thousands of online visits and innumerable personal responses and reflections from readers attest to the power of these truths Now edited and published in this book these lessons will point you towards genuine contentment and peace as you walk through your own deep valleys

I Want You to Be Happy Pope Francis, 2025-02-18 From Pope Francis a daily reader that explains the characteristics of true lasting happiness achievable no matter your circumstances or situation Pope Francis shares wisdom and encouragement to help readers seek God's will and His best The short accessible chapters distill His message into bite sized readings that can be read all at once or in daily segments This collection of inspiring pieces reminds readers that God cares and wants us to live well and love well God wants us to be happy

Richard Hooker, Beyond Certainty Andrea Russell, 2016-10-04 In spite of the differing and often conflicting interpretations there have been several constants beliefs about Hooker and his work that have remained virtually unchallenged throughout the centuries Richard Hooker Beyond Certainty examines and calls into question three of these constants The first to be challenged is the fundamental belief that Hooker is attached securely to the English Church and that their identities are so interwoven that to speak of one is to speak of the other The second is that Hooker's prose his unique writing style and powerful rhetoric can be ignored in the process of assessing his theology The third is the widely held belief that as the champion of reason Hooker's faith is essentially rational and that God is perceived and experienced primarily through the intellect Challenging the truth of each of these statements leads to an uncertainty about Hooker which rather than negating scholarship allows research to be liberated from the dominance of categorisation Such a change it is suggested would acknowledge that Hooker s theology transcends Anglican studies and allows his radical thinking to reach a wider audience      Intercessions of Mercy Sisters of Mercy,2009 Intercessions of Mercy consists of simple prayers that blend religious convictions and current concerns in a way that can be shared by groups of believers or privately by those who prefer to pray in solitude It is designed to be used by readers in the ways that are most meaningful and helpful to them at any given time using it in different ways in the different seasons of your soul The prayers of Intercessions of Mercy are invocations that link prayer to God with service to others They connect the enduring convictions of faith with the recurring concerns of modern life The intercessions in this book are organized around the liturgical seasons feasts days in the Catholic calendar and on behalf of particular groups including artists caregivers families parents government leaders those who are ill or dying and many others      The Westminster ,1909      The Friend ,1874      The Church of England temperance chronicle [afterw.] The Temperance chronicle Church of England temperance society,1880      Evangelical Magazine Anonymous,2024-09-25 Reprint of the original first published in 1837      Evangelical Magazine and Gospel Advocate ,1837      The Treasury; a Magazine of Religious and Current Thought for Pastor and People ,1887
