Cognitive Sophistication and the Development of Judgment and Decision-Making

Maggie E. Toplak, 2021-10-27 Cognitive Sophistication and the Development of Judgment and Decision Making reviews the existing literature on the development of reasoning judgment and decision making with a primary focus on measures from the heuristics and biases tradition. The book presents a model based on cognitive sophistication to examine the development of judgment and decision making including age related differences in developmental samples associations with intellectual abilities and executive functions and associations with dispositional tendencies that support judgment and decision making. Additional sections cover the empirical findings of a longitudinal study conducted over seven years that tie together the discussed aspects related to cognitive sophistication. This book will provide a much needed description of the theoretical and conceptual issues, a review of empirical findings and an integrative summary of the implications for developmental models of reasoning judgment and decision making. Explores whether individual heuristics and biases are associated. Reviews individual differences in cognitive abilities and thinking dispositions. Examines reasoning from the lens of cognitive sophistication. Discusses the implications for models including dual process models. Tests and elaborates using empirical findings from a longitudinal study.

Tactical Decision-Making in Sport David Cooper, Barrie Gordon, 2020-05-28 This book expands on the Developing Thinking Players model across a wide range of team and individual sports to explain how coaches can help athletes to learn how to make better decisions during play and to think for themselves. It provides an overview of game centred and athlete centred approaches to teaching and coaching in sport combining essential theory with practical tips and guidance. Written by an international team of coaching researchers and practising coaches the book provides sport specific instructions for coaching players in territory games net games striking games target games racquet games and combat sports including netball basketball ice hockey cricket softball football rugby volleyball squash and karate. The book argues that the implementation of these student and athlete centred approaches creates more opportunities for athletes to understand their sport and improves their ability to think for themselves and to learn to make better in game decisions.
