González-Justiniano,2022-09-23 Where is the hope What does it look like Is the Christian church providing a hope that materializes in the grounding of people s thriving These questions posed the catalysts of this work where the author sets up a journey that parses the definition of hope within Christian theology as an ontological category of the human experience

Through ethnographic research and ecclesial study of diverse congregations in Puerto Rico the work moves from an articulation of context hope practice and future to reveal its aim of liberation through a hope that can be sustainable in time and space She analyzes the operations of political systems that suppress hope in the island Weaving the theme of a theology of hope with the fields of ecclesiology memory studies postcolonial and decolonial theory liberation theology and the study of social movements she builds a model that puts hope at the center of socio economic practices and moves toward a recipe for a hope that is sustainable in practice

Hollinger,2009-09-20 As Christians we are to love God with all of our being heart mind soul and strength But many of us tend to overemphasize one aspect or another and as a result our faith becomes imbalanced Some of us have an intellectual faith but lack compassion or spiritual discipline Others of us have a vibrant heartfelt relationship with God but lack commitment to truth or doctrine And many of us overlook translating our faith into service and ministry In this book ethicist Dennis P Hollinger presents a holistic integrative vision for reuniting Christian thought passion and action He shows how individuals churches and movements throughout history have focused on either the head or the heart or the hands often to the exclusion of other expressions But by linking our intellect emotions and actions Hollinger points us toward a whole faith for the whole person where each dimension feeds nurtures and sustains the others The Lancet ,1837 England to 1485 Henry Smith Williams,1904 A Commentary on the Gospels for the Sundays and Other Holy Days of the Christian Year.
