Sagittarius Ascendant Secrets Saket Shah, 2020-01-05 There are times when people just can't identify with the attributes of their Sun or Moon sign. In fact, they may feel that they are an antithesis of their zodiac sign. You may also have observed it. Your Leo friend may not seek attention, may be because he or she has a Capricorn ascendant. Your Sagittarius friend is very possessive, may be because he or she has a Scorpio Ascendant. It is easy to understand why some people do not correspond to their Sun or Moon signs once you know about what is the rising sign or Ascendant in a horoscope. Ascendant is the degree of the zodiac sign that was highest on the Eastern horizon at the time and place of birth. When seen from Earth, the sky seems to move so the entire zodiac can be observed in a span of 24 hours, day which means the rising sign changes on the Eastern horizon every 2 hours because there are 12 zodiac signs. People tend to associate their physical, emotional, and spiritual attributes more with rising sign at times.

Rough Guide to Genes & Cloning Rough Guides,2007-04-26 What exactly is a gene How does cloning actually work Are designer babies a bad idea Could we ever clone a human The Rough Guide To Genes Cloning answers all these questions and more From the inside story of cells and their structure and the sleuths who cracked the genetic code to DNA cloning twins and Dolly the sheep Illustrated throughout with helpful pictures and diagrams this Rough Guide turns the microscope on the things that make us what we are Christian Roots, Contemporary Spirituality Lynda Barley,2006 Time to Listen is a series of booklets that present current research messages for the Church today in an accessible way It is intended to help ordinary churches understand the changes in the world around them Christian roots contemporary spirituality the first title in the series looks at recent social trends and attitudes towards church God and belief Drawing on current research Lynda Barley addresses the question of how British society engages with church today and uncovers some surprising signs of encouragement Her analysis shows that the Christian faith still has a place at the heart of the nation on a personal and national level Combining analysis with real life stories she encourages the Church to take advantage of residual inherited faith in order to engage with the spiritual needs of those outside the Church Education and the Global Rural Barbara Pini,Relebohile Moletsane,Martin Mills,2017-10-02 This edited collection challenges the urban centric nature of much feminist work on gender and education The context for the book is the radical reconfiguration of rural areas that has occurred in recent decades as a result of globalisation From a range of diverse national contexts including Kenya and South Africa Australia and Canada and the United States and Pakistan authors explore the intersections between masculinity femininity and rurality in education In recognition of the heterogeneity of categories such as rural girl and rural boy they attend to how educational exclusions can be magnified by differences in relation to social locations such as class race or sexuality Similar critical insights are brought to bear as authors examine what it means to be a male or female teacher in rural environments Contributors draw on data ranging from contemporary feature films to historical materials along with detailed ethnographic work and participatory approaches to produce a compelling narrative of the need to understand education as experienced by those who are not part of the urban majority This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education
