Judge Not Lee Lowry, 2015-08-26 When Jenny Longworth moves from the U.S. to Switzerland to marry David Perry a former lover longtime friend and recent widower she underestimates the problems inherent in the new life she has chosen. Dealing with a new country new culture and new language poses unanticipated difficulties and David's continuing grief over the loss of his first wife to cancer weakens Jenny's self confidence in her new role. Struggling to find her place Jenny discovers that all was not as it seemed in David's first marriage. His late French wife the elegant and vivacious Sandrine had a secret she withheld from her family. Jenny ultimately uncovers the truth but must then decide how and even whether it should come to light. In this sequel to If You Needed Me author Lee Lowry continues her tale of mid life love and second marriage with a searingly honest portrayal of grief betrayal and the power of forgiveness. Praise for Judge Not Lee Lowry beautifully expresses the vulnerabilities and insecurities that so often surface when we were in love. Her characters are rich and complex. Judge Not is one of those rare books that I couldn't put down but at the same time didn't want to end. Heather Bruce artist Provincetown MA Is love really more comfortable the second time around Lee Lowry continues to draw wonderfully intricate portraits of people facing the very real challenges of late love second marriage and life's unexpected turns. In Judge Not love is certainly wonderful but addressing those challenges often feels like stepping gingerly through a minefield of triggered vulnerabilities wounded feelings and divided loyalties. Carol Deanow Professor Emerita School of Social Work Salem State University Salem MA Judge Not is about wishes granted and the price that must be paid. Jenny Longworth has just married a widower whom she has always loved but with him come angry adult children life in a new country and constant reminders of his first wife Jennys struggles to navigate this ever challenging dynamic make this a compelling narrative I found myself rooting out loud for her Kay Harrold Management Consultant Yoga Teacher Asheville NC Lee Lowry writes with honesty about human frailty while leaving the reader feeling empathy for all the characters She also captures detail so well that despite my Harvard degree in French Literature I identified completely with the protagonists sometimes funny sometimes traumatic struggle with French Lorrie Stuart Retired Marketing Executive New York NY Getting to the Rule of Law James E. Fleming, 2011 The rule of law has been celebrated as an unqualified human good yet there is considerable disagreement about what the ideal of the rule of law requires When people clamor for the preservation or extension of the rule of law are they advocating a substantive conception of the rule of law respecting private property and promoting liberty a formal conception emphasizing an inner morality of law or a procedural conception stressing the right to be heard by an impartial tribunal and to make arguments about what the law is When are exertions of executive power outside the law justified on the ground that they may be necessary to maintain or restore the conditions for the rule of law in emergency circumstances such as defending against terrorist attacks In Getting to the Rule of Law a group of contributors from a variety of disciplines address many of the theoretical legal political and moral issues raised by such questions and examine practical applications on the ground in the United States and around the world This timely interdisciplinary volume examines the ideal of the rule of law questions when if ever executive power outside the law is justified to maintain or restore the rule of law and explores the prospects for and perils of building the rule of law after military interventions Pomegranates David Heber, Risa N. J.M. Coetzee's Austerities Graham Bradshaw, Michael Neill, 2016-05-06 Representing a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives this volume examines J.M. Coetzee's novels from Dusklands to Diary of a Bad Year The choice of essays reflects three broad goals aligning the South African dimension of Coetzee's writing with his late modernist aesthetic exploring the relationship between Coetzee's novels and his essays on linguistics and paying particular attention to his more recent fictional experiments These objectives are realized in essays focusing on among other matters the function of names and etymology in Coetzee's fiction the vexed relationship between art and politics in apartheid South Africa the importance of film in Coetzee's literary sensibility Coetzee's reworkings of Defoe the paradoxes inherent in confessional narratives ethics and the controversial politics of reading Disgrace intertextuality and the fictional self-consciousness of Slow Man Through its pronounced emphasis on the novelist's later work the collection points towards a narrato-political and linguistic reassessment of the Coetzee canon
