

i kissed dating goodbye

Notes Chapter 1 & 2

Opening comments

The suggestions on how to date in the book are not for the entire world, but for you who have put your faith in Jesus Christ. That is because God has Lordship over our lives. He is our master.

Chapter 1

1. In the introduction (page 9) the author says that IKDG is not about how to make dating work for you, but how to make your life pleasing to God. Are you interested in exploring this idea?
2. Discuss the culture's idea of "romance" and share the ways you feel tempted to accept the culture's idea of romance instead of the Bible's. (Leader: You might share one way you are tempted to accept it to get things rolling)
3. How does the book describe "Christian Dating?" (16&17, don't have sex, only date Christians)
4. In what ways do you agree with the following statement from chapter one?
"God's lordship in my life doesn't merely tinker with my approach to romance- it completely transforms it. God not only wants me to act differently; He wants me to think different - to view love, purity, and singleness from His perspective, to have a new lifestyle and a new attitude." (pg 18)
5. After breaking up with his girlfriend Josh, the author, asks, "What does it mean to genuinely care about the girls [or boys] I knew?" How would you answer that question?
6. Why does the author say he thinks short-term dating is harmful? Do you agree with him that there must be something better? why or why not?
7. Describe your reaction to Anna's dream (pages 13-14). In what ways does thinking about your wedding day in that way help you to make changes in the way you relate to the opposite gender now at your age?
8. Read Philippians 1:9-10, "And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ" If you desire something better in relationships, how does this verse challenge your perspective on love?
