Police Division, 1980 FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin , 1974 FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin United States. Federal Bureau of Investigation, 1935 Learning from Error in Policing Jon Shane, 2013-04-16 While the proximate cause of any accident is usually someone's immediate action or omission failure to act there is often a trail of underlying latent conditions that facilitated their error the person has in effect been unwittingly set up for failure by the organization This Brief explores an accident in policing as a framework for examining existing police practices Learning from Error in Policing describes a case of wrongful arrest from the perspective of organizational accident theory which suggests a single unsafe act in this case a wrongful arrest is facilitated by several underlying latent conditions that triggered the event and failed to stop the harm once in motion The analysis demonstrates that the risk of errors committed by omission failing to act were significantly more likely to occur than errors committed by acts of commission By examining this case policy implications and directions for future research are discussed The analysis of this case and the underlying lessons learned from it will have important implications for researchers and practitioners in the policing field Supervision of Police Personnel N.
