Talking to Learn Pauline Jones, Jennifer Hammond, 2018-10-09 This book examines the place of talk in learning and the role of such talk in literacy education It builds on a strong tradition of research into the role of talk in constructing curriculum knowledge the relationship between talking and thinking and the significance of extended in depth dialogic interaction in classroom talk However it differs from tradition with its emphasis on the need to make the role of language in learning more visible and more explicit This book places particular emphasis on the relationship between dialogic pedagogy and language based approaches to learning Contributions range from discussions on educational linguistics and dialogic pedagogy as complementary perspectives to needs of students for whom English is an additional language or dialect This volume was originally published as a special issue of Research Papers in Education Educating

Everybody's Children Robert W. Cole W. Cole, 2008-06-15 Designed to promote reflection discussion and action among the entire learning community Educating Everybody's Children encapsulates what research has revealed about successfully addressing the needs of students from economically ethnically culturally and linguistically diverse groups and identifies a wide range of effective principles and instructional strategies Although good teaching works well with all students educators must develop an extensive repertoire of instructional tools to meet the varying needs of students from diverse backgrounds Those tools and the knowledge base behind them are the foundation of this expanded and revised second edition of Educating Everybody's Children Each strategy discussed in the book includes classroom examples and a list of the research studies that support it The most important thing we have learned as a result of the education reform movement is that student achievement stands or falls on the motivation and skills of teachers We must ensure that all teachers are capable of delivering a standards based curriculum that describes what students should know and be able to do and that these standards are delivered by means of a rich and engaging pedagogy of plenty By these two acts we can ensure that all schools will be ready and able to educate everybody's children
