since 1895 making it the oldest continuously producing British manufacturer From its origins in a small Guildford shop the company has grown to become a major bus manufacturer with its products selling around the world This book discusses the company s highs and lows through two world wars challenging markets and ownership changes It documents the vehicles produced and their innovative design features from early cars and street cleaning machines to vans buses trucks fire engines and ambulances First hand descriptions of how and why some of the company s most successful products such as the Dart Trident and Enviro buses evolved It explains why their once market leading fire engines are no longer made It also analyses the reasons why some products were less successful and explores what happened to parts of the company that were sold over the years Finally the company s future opportunities and challenges are considered The author Andy Goundry has not only drawn on his own personal experience of almost twenty years of employment with the company but he has drawn on what is left of the company archives private collections and first hand accounts to produce this book as a salutation of over 125 years
