Lourdes Castrillo Brillantes, 2006 Creature Discomfort Scott M. DeVries, 2016-05-02 In Creature Discomfort Fauna criticism Ethics and the Representation of Animals in Spanish American Fiction and Poetry Scott M DeVries uncovers a tradition in Spanish American literature where animal ethical representations anticipate many of the most pressing concerns from present debates in animal studies The author documents moments from the corpus that articulate long standing positions such as a defense of animal rights or advocacy for liberationism that engage in literary philosophical meditations concerning mind theory and animal sentience and that anticipate current ideas from Critical Animal Studies including the rejection of hierarchical differentiations between the categories human and nonhuman Creature Discomfort innovates the notion of fauna criticism as a new literary approach within animal studies this kind of analysis emphasizes the reframing of literary history to expound animal ethical positions from literary texts both those that have been considered canonical as well as those that have long been neglected In this study DeVries employs fauna criticism to examine nonhuman sentience animal interiority and other ethical issues such as the livestock and pet industries circuses zoos hunting and species extinction in fictional narrative and poetry from the nineteenth century modernista Regional indigenista and contemporary periods of Spanish American literature Facundo and the Construction of Argentine Culture Diana Sorensen

Goodrich, 2010-01-01 Domingo F Sarmiento s classic 1845 essay Facundo Civilizacion y Barbarie opened an inquiry into the nature of Argentinian culture that continues to the present day In this elegantly written study Diana Sorensen Goodrich explores the varied and often conflicting readings that Facundo has received since its publication and shows how these readings have contributed to the making and remaking of the Argentine nation and its culture Goodrich s analysis sheds new light on the intersection between canon formation and nation building While much has been written about Facundo as a primary text in Latin American letters this is the first study that locates it within the problematics of canon formation and the cultural social and political contexts in which conflicting interpretations are constructed This new approach to Facundo illuminates the interactions among institutions cultural ideologies and political life This book will be important reading for everyone interested in questions of national identity and the institutionalization of a national tradition Spanish at a Glance Heywood Wald, 1992 Two books in one Phrase book over 1 500 expressions for every travel situation Dictionary bilingual guide to over 2 000 key words Includes emergency phrases dialogues pronunciations color maps travel tips food and shopping guides Revista Filipina , 1917 English-Spanish/Spanish-English Medical Dictionary, Third Edition Glenn T.
