Branding Books Across the Ages Helleke Braber, Jeroen Dera, Jos Joosten, Maarten Steenmeijer, 2025-10-01 For many literature and marketing are considered opposite phenomena This book discusses cases in which the two are closely connected It argues that literature is subject to the same mechanisms as other commercial products our experience of literary texts is prefigured by brands trademarks that identify a product and differentiate it from its competitors From the early modern period onwards literary authors and their texts are constantly branded and have been both the object and the trailblazer of a complex marketing process The authors of this volume analyze this branding process throughout the centuries focusing on the Netherlands To what extent is our experience of Dutch literature prefigured by brands and what role does branding play when introducing European authors in the Dutch literary field or vice versa By answering these questions Branding Books Across the Ages seeks to show how literary scholars understand branding a phenomenon that has long been intertwined with literature

A Diffuse Murmur of History Fiona Schouten, 2010 After decades of uncomfortable silence Spain has now started dealing with its violent twentieth century past In recent years a vibrant memory discourse has emerged in Spanish society the number of films TV series newspaper articles history books and memorials dedicated to the Civil War of 1936 1939 and the ensuing dictatorship of Franco has increased dramatically Literature has also played its part in provoking and maintaining this memory boom and as a consequence the study of contemporary Spanish novels has started revolving around questions on the responsibility of the author on the impact of literature in society on its role in shaping memories and on its ethical status This book takes up these questions in an attempt to combine the outlook of collective memory studies with the theoretical demands of Poststructuralist theories Focusing on themes such as haunting and the uncanny nostalgia the Bildungsroman genre and autobiography its author analyses memory narratives in fourteen novels by foremost Spanish authors like Javier Mar as Luis Goytisolo Enrique Vila Matas and Manuel Vicent From publisher s website

Spanish Gothic Xavier Aldana Reyes, 2017-03-16 This book presents the first English introduction to the broad history of the Gothic mode in Spain It focuses on key literary periods such as Romanticism the fin de siècle spiritualist writings of the early twentieth century and the cinematic and literary booms of the 1970s and 2000s With illustrative case studies Aldana Reyes demonstrates how the Gothic mode has been a permanent yet ever shifting fixture of the literary and cinematic landscape of Spain since the late eighteenth century He proposes that writers and filmmakers alike welcomed the Gothic as a liberating and transgressive artistic language

Tiffany Sly Lives Here Now Dana L. Davis, 2018-05-01 I've got seven days to come clean to my new dad Seven days to tell the truth For sixteen year old Tiffany Sly life hasn't been safe or normal for a while Losing her mom to cancer has left her a little bit traumatized and now she has to leave her hometown of Chicago to live with the biological dad she's never known Anthony Stone is a rich man with four other daughters and rules for every second of the day Tiffany tries to make the best of things but she doesn't fit into her new luxurious but super strict home or get along with her standoffish sister London The only thing that makes her new life even remotely bearable is the strange boy across the street Marcus McKinney has had his own experiences with death and the unexpected friendship that blossoms between them is the only thing that makes her feel grounded But Tiffany has a secret Another man claims he's Tiffany's real dad and she has only seven days before he shows up to demand a paternity test and the truth comes out With her life about to fall apart all over again Tiffany finds herself discovering unexpected truths about her father her mother and herself and realizing that maybe family is in the bonds you make and that life means sometimes taking risks Memory and Spatiality in Post-Millennial Spanish Narrative Lorraine Ryan, 2016-04-22 Focusing on literary texts produced from 2000 to 2009 Lorraine Ryan examines the imbrication between the preservation of Republican memory and the transformations of Spanish public space during the period from 1931 to 2005 Accordingly Ryan analyzes the spatial empowerment and disempowerment of Republican memory and identity in Dulce Chac n s Cielos de barro ngeles L pez s Martina la rosa n mero trece Alberto M ndez s Los girasoles ciegos Carlos Ruiz Zaf n s La sombra del viento Emili Teixidor s Pan negro Bernardo Atxaga s El hijo del acordeonista and Jos Mar a Merino s La sima The interrelationship between Republican subalternity and space is redefined by these writers as tense and constantly in flux undermined by its inexorable relationality which leads to subjects endeavoring to instill into space their own values Subjects erode the hegemonic power of the public space by articulating in an often surreptitious form their sense of belonging to a prohibited Republican memory culture In the democratic period they seek a categorical reinstatement of same on the public terrain Ryan also considers the motivation underlying this coterie of authors commitment to the issue of historical memory an analysis which serves to amplify the ambits of existing scholarship that tends to ascribe it solely to postmemory Dictatorships in the Hispanic World Patricia Swier, Julia Riordan-Goncalves, 2013-07-18 This book broaches a comparative and interdisciplinary approach in its exploration of the phenomenon of the dictatorship in the Hispanic World in the twentieth century Some of the themes explored through a transatlantic perspective include testimonial accounts of violence and resistance in prisons hunger and repression exile silence and intertextuality bildungsroman and the modification of gender roles and the role of trauma and memory within the genres of the novel autobiography testimonial literature the essay documentaries puppet theater poetry and visual art By looking at the similarities and differences of dictatorships represented in the diverse landscapes of Latin America and Spain the authors hope to provide a more panoramic view of the dictatorship that moves beyond historiographical accounts of oppression and engages actively in a more broad dialectics of resistance and a politics of memory The Gothic in Contemporary Literature and Popular Culture Justin Edwards, Agnieszka Soltysik Monnet, 2013-02-15 This interdisciplinary collection brings together world leaders in Gothic Studies offering dynamic new readings on popular Gothic cultural productions from the last decade Topics covered include but are not limited to contemporary High Street Goth ic fashion Gothic performance and art festivals Gothic popular fiction from Twilight to Shadow of the Wind Goth ic popular music Goth ic on TV and film new trends like Steampunk well known icons Batman and Lady Gaga and theorizations of popular Gothic monsters from zombies and vampires to werewolves and ghosts in an age of terror ism New Spain, New Literatures Luis Martín-Estudillo, Nicholas Spadaccini, 2010-09-27 Hispanic Studies Literature Latin American Studies Material Interculturality Cristina Ros i Solé, 2024-09-09 This book shows how objects can create new linguistic and cultural orders spotlighting the ways in which everyday collections help make the world anew by rearranging its materiality and how multilingual speakers make meanings without words Adopting an innovative approach to intercultural research drawing on work from visual and multisensorial ethnography Ros i Sol critically reflects on what we know as interculturality by going beyond the verbal and the more than human to understand languages and cultures This book expands the meaning of interculturality by seeing it as the result of the relations between people places and materiality Using everyday multilingual artefacts such as clothes cookie cutters LPs books and pens it presents a new semiotic multilingual landscape where the intercultural is closely connected to the ground and it is felt rehearsed and re enacted through the stories and the memories contained in multilingual objects This book will be of particular interest to students and scholars in intercultural communication multilingualism language education and applied linguistics

Bibliophiles, Murderous Bookmen, and Mad Librarians Robert Richmond Ellis, 2022-03-01 The word bibliophilia indicates a love of books both as texts to be read and objects to be cherished for their physical qualities Throughout the history of Iberian print culture bibliophiles have attempted to explain the psychological experiences of reading and collecting books as well as the social and economic conditions of book production Bibliophiles Murderous Bookmen and Mad Librarians analyses Spanish bibliophiles who catalogue organize and archive books as well as the publishers artists and writers who create them Robert Richmond Ellis examines how books are represented in modern Spanish writing and how Spanish bibliophiles reflect on the role of books in their lives and in the histories and cultures of modern Spain Through the combined approaches of literary studies book history and the book arts Ellis argues that two strains of Spanish bibliophilia coalesce in the modern period one that envisions books as a means of achieving personal fulfilment and another that engages with politics and uses books to affirm linguistic cultural and regional and national identities
