Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz, 2008-09-05

When it began modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime In 1950 the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco s policies a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism In the 1950s and early 1960s filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem Luis García Berlanga and Luis Buñuel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista Death of a Cyclist Bienvenido Se or Marshall Welcome Mr Marshall and Viridiana The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura Jos Luis Borau Víctor Erice and others After Franco s death in 1975 censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality drugs the church the army and the Civil War The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but at long last mirrored the society it depicted While established directors like Saura Bardem and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armendáriz Tasio Fernando Trueba First Work Imanol Uribe The Death of Mikel and Pedro Almodóvar Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown In the last couple of decades exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced including Alejandro Amenábar s Thesis Jos Luis García s The Grandfather and Almodóvar s Talk to Her and Volver In Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz presents a compendium of outstanding Spanish films from the pre Francoist era through the Spanish New Wave of the 80 s and 90 s and into the present day Schwartz provides background plot and commentaries of key films from six decades of Spanish cinema In addition to identifying

Otherness in Hispanic Culture Teresa Fernandez Ulloa, 2014-06-26

This book addresses contemporary discourses on a wide variety of topics related to the ideological and epistemological changes of the 19th 20th and 21st centuries and the ways in which they have shaped the Spanish language and cultural manifestations in both Spain and Hispanic America The majority of the chapters are concerned with otherness in its various dimensions the alien Other foreign immigrant ethnically different disempowered female or minor as well as the Other of different sexual orientation and or ideology Following Octavio Paz otherness is expressed as the attempt to find the lost object of desire the frustrating endeavour of the androgynous Plato wishing to embrace the other half of Zeus who in his wrath tore off from him Otherness compels human beings to search for the complement from which they were severed Thus a male joins a female his other half the only half that not only fills him but which allows him to return to the unity and reconciliation which is restored in its own perfection formerly altered by divine will As a result of this transformation one can annul the distance that keeps us away from that which not being our own turns into a source of anguish The clashing diversity of all things requires the human predisposition to accept that which is different Such a predisposition is an expression of epistemological ethical and political aperture The disposition to co exist with the different is imagined in the de anthropocentricization of the bonds with all living realms And otherness is in some way the reflection of sameness mismidad The other is closely related to the self because the vision of the other implies a reflection about the self it implies consciously or not a relationship with the self These topics are addressed in this book from an interdisciplinary perspective encompassing arts humanities and social sciences Guide to the Cinema of Spain Marvin D'Lugo,1997-11-25 This guide to Spanish film documents the film industry s interpretation of the isolating effects of the cultural traditionalism of the early twentieth century to the expanding international popularity of such films as Trueba s Belle Epoque Aranda s Amantes and Bigas Luna s Jam n Jam n and such actors as Victoria Abril Carmen Maura and Antonio Banderas This is the first volume in a new Greenwood series that discusses historically and critically films directors and actors in film industries throughout the world Each volume will include a detailed historical introduction and will provide an in depth treatment of the most important films and individuals involved in the industry End of entry bibliographies provide sources for further reading and appendixes provide additional useful information The Guides will be valuable to scholars students and film buffs Spanish cinema is in many ways a microcosm of the tensions and conflicts that have shaped the evolution of the nation over the course of this century Spanish film as a cultural institution is rarely divorced from the political and social currents that have shaped the larger Spanish culture torn as it was between tendencies of localism and internationalism It languished in industrial and artistic underdevelopment for many years under Franco it is now however experiencing international recognition while remaining rooted in the specificity of its own popular cultural styles Theatre Censorship in Spain, 1931-1985 Catherine O'Leary,Michael Thompson,2023-05-15 This is a comprehensive study of the impact of censorship on theatre in twentieth century Spain It draws on extensive archival evidence vivid personal testimonies and in depth analysis of legislation to document the different kinds of theatre censorship practised during the Second Republic 1931-6 the civil war 1936-9 the Franco dictatorship 1939-75 and the transition to democracy 1975-85 Changes in criteria administrative structures and personnel from these periods are traced in relation to wider political social and cultural developments and the responses of playwrights directors and companies are explored With a focus on censorship new light is cast on particular theatremakers and their work the conditions in which all kinds of theatre were produced the construction of genres and canons as well as on broader cultural history and changing ideological climate all of which are linked to reflections on the nature of censorship and the relationship between culture and the state

Theatrical Translation and Film Adaptation Phyllis Zatlin,2005-10-12 Translation and film adaptation of theatre have received little study In filling that gap this book draws on the experiences of theatrical translators and on movie versions of plays from various countries It also offers insights into such concerns as the translation of bilingual plays and the choice between subtitling and dubbing of film Contemporary Spanish Literature Aubrey Fitz Gerald Bell,1925 A Companion to the Twentieth-century Spanish Novel Marta E. Altisent,2008 The Spanish novel in a turbulent century This collection of studies by eighteen prominent theorists and critics offers a diverse panorama of the modern Spanish novel seen through the prism of Spain's recent political cultural and ideological history It considers the development of the novel as a social mirror and as a changing literary form torn between the tradition of stern realism and the aesthetics of rupture affecting all Western literature from the Avant Garde to the Postmodern age While some essays emphasise the Spanish cultural context and canonical writers others are of a broader nature grouping lesser known writers under certain literary tendencies the metaphysical novel the urban novel recuperative accounts of the Civil War feminine first person narrations and the rise of the popular detective historical and erotic novels Three studies address the resurgence of the Catalan Basque and Galician novel and their departure from a poetics of identity to one of global concerns Interdisciplinary approaches address the reciprocal impacts of literature and cinema and the effects of the marketplace on the consumption of fiction are not forgotten The Companion provides ample bibliographies and a valuable chronology while all titles and quotations are translated into English Contributors Marta E Altisent Katarzyna Olga Beilin Ramon Buckley Jos F Colmeiro Stacey Dolgin Casado Sebastiaan Faber David K Herzberger Carlos Alex Longhurst Kathleen N March Cristina Mart nez Carazo Alfredo Mart nez Expósito Nina L Molinaro Gonzalo Navajas Mari Jose Olaziregi Janet D Perez Randolph D Pope Josep Miquel Sobrer H Rosi Song

Comfort and Domestic Space in Modern Spain Professor Susan Larson,2024-08-30 Comfort and domestic space are complex narratives that can help draw our attention to everything from urban planning everyday objects and new technologies to class conflict racial and ethnic segregation and the gendering of domestic labour Comfort and Domestic Space in Modern Spain delves into the history of ideas surrounding the modern home It explores how the collective experience of domestic space has been shaped by government ideologues technocrats and artists as well as working and middle class Spaniards since the late nineteenth century The book focuses on the social and cultural meanings of domestic space in ways that invite us to cross boundaries between private and public the particular and the general the local and the global and to pay attention to the role of the cultural imagination in making a house into a home Considering a wide variety of voices and perspectives that have resulted in new ideas about how to inhabit domestic space Comfort and Domestic Space in Modern Spain brings together an international interdisciplinary group of scholars to illuminate the cultural history of everyday life The Comic Spirit of Federico Garcia Lorca Virginia Higginbotham,2014-02-19 During the years since his death Federico Garcia Lorca Spain's best known twentieth century poet and playwright has generally been considered a writer of tragedy Three of his major plays are fatalistic stories of suffering and death and his poetry is filled with dread Yet most of Lorca's dramatic production consists of comedies and farces. Throughout his poetry and prose as well as in his most somber plays runs an undercurrent of humor, dark irony and satire that is in no way contradictory to his tragic view of life. On the contrary as Virginia Higginbotham demonstrates through humor Lorca defines intensifies and tries to come to terms with what he sees as the essentially hopeless condition of humankind. Although Lorca's comic moments and techniques have been discussed in isolated articles the importance of humor has largely been ignored in the fundamental studies of his work. Higginbotham is concerned with Lorca's total output: lyric poetry, tragicomedies and farces, avant garde prose and plays, puppet farces and master plays. She describes Lorca's place in the mainstream of the Spanish theater and shows his relationship to some relevant non-Spanish dramatists. Furthermore she discusses ways in which Lorca's work anticipates the modern theater of the absurd. The result is a comprehensive study of an important but previously ignored aspect of Lorca's work. The Comic Spirit of Federico García Lorca includes a Lorca chronology and an extensive bibliography. From Silver Screen to Spanish Stage Stuart Nishan Green, 2011-05-31. This is the first book-length English language study of a group of five artists closely linked with the Spanish avant garde in the 1920s and 1930s now known as the Other Generation of 27. In the same way that their contemporaries of the celebrated Generation of 27 which included Federico García Lorca attempted a revolution of the arts through poetry inspired by European modernism the Other Generation of 27 attempted to renovate Spanish humour first in prose and then in the theatre and cinema. This book demonstrates how these humorists drew on the humour of Chaplin, Keaton, Lubitsch and the Marx Brothers for their stage comedy and how they stretched the limits of the stage at the time by incorporating cinematic techniques such as flashback, voice overs and montage in their search for new dramatic forms. A Companion to Spanish Cinema Bernard P. E. Bentley, 2008. This volume offers a detailed chronological account of the history of Spanish cinema. An Annotated Edition of Carlos Arniches' La Señorita de Trevélez Ana Mandiola, 1978. Suggested Reading in Twentieth Century Literature Vassar College. Depts. of Modern Languages, 1927.
