Handbook of Philosophy of Management Cristina Neesham, Markus Reihlen, Dennis Schoeneborn, 2022-12-01 The

Handbook of Philosophy of Management addresses the philosophical foundations of management in theory and practice It covers established branches of philosophy such as aesthetics epistemology moral philosophy political and social philosophy philosophy of education philosophy of practice and philosophy of science The Handbook s broad scope maps out the field and provides a forum where philosophy can be meaningfully applied to the study of management in all its forms The original peer reviewed research published here sheds new light on the complexities of management theory and practice beyond what hitherto has been possible with the sole application of the social sciences As philosophy provides a meta framework for moving beyond paradigm fragmentation within management research and education this allows researchers and practitioners to find harmony and discord in the perspectives revealed by a philosophical lens The Media Handbook

Helen Katz,2022-07-07 The eighth edition of The Media Handbook continues to provide a practical introduction to the media planning and buying processes Starting with the broader context in which media planning occurs including a basic understanding of competitive spending and target audiences the book takes readers through the fundamentals of each media channel leading to the creation of a media plan Throughout concepts and calculations are clearly explained This new edition reflects the changes in how people consume media today with a new chapter on how audiences are defined and created reorganization of the media channel chapters to cover planning and buying together expanded coverage of digital formats in all channels added discussion of measurement completely updated data and examples The Media Handbook Eighth Edition is the ideal text for courses in media planning and buying in advertising communication departments Supplemental online resources for both students and instructors are also available For students there is a list of key media associations and chapter overviews To assist in their course preparation instructors will find lecture slides sample test questions and new sample media planning exercise scenarios with accompanying practice spreadsheets These resources are available at www.routledge.com/9780367775568 under Support Material The Handbook of Global Media Research Ingrid

Volkmer,2012-08-14 Bringing together the perspectives of more than 40 internationally acclaimed authors The Handbook of Global Media Research explores competing methodologies in the dynamic field of transnational media and communications providing valuable insight into research practice in a globalized media landscape Provides a framework for the critical debate of comparative media research Posits transnational media research as reflective of advanced globalization processes and explores its roles and responsibilities Articulates the key themes and competing methodological approaches in a dynamic and developing field Showcases the perspectives and ideas of 30 leading internationally acclaimed scholars Offers a platform for the discussion of crucial issues from a variety of theoretical methodical and practical viewpoints Knowing with New Media Lena Redman,2018-11-21 This cutting edge book considers how advances in technologies and new media have transformed our perception of education and focuses on the impact of the privatisation of digital tools as a mean of knowledge production Arguing that education needs to adapt to the modern learner the book s unique approach is based on a disassociation with the deeply ingrained attitude with which people have traditionally viewed education learning the existing symbolic systems of certain disciplines and then expressing themselves strictly within the operational modes of these systems The ways of knowledge production exploring recording representing making meaning of and sharing human experiences have been fundamentally transformed through the infusion of digital technologies into all aspects of human activity allowing learners to engage with their immediate natural social and cultural environments by capitalising on their individual abilities and interests This book proposes a new approach to teaching and learning termed cinematic bricolage which involves generating knowledge from heterogeneous resources in a do it yourself manner while making meaning through multimodal representations It shows how cinematic bricolage reconnects ways of knowing with ways of being empowering the individual with a sense of personal identity and responsibility helping to shape more aware social citizens

Campaigning in the Aftermath of the 2020 Elections Robert E. Denton Jr.,2021-10-28 The post election period of the 2020 presidential campaign is historic not only for the culmination of tensions in the January 6 2021 storming of the US capitol but also in the very persistence of campaigning after the election was over Historically political campaigns have had only four phases pre primary primary convention and general election In 2020 there was a distinct and active post election campaign in which President Donald Trump vigorously challenged the election calling for recounts court challenges amid charges of voter fraud and irregularities Speeches rallies fundraising and advertising continued weeks past the election For the first time modern electoral history there was an active dramatic and decisive post election phase of the 2020 presidential campaign This volume explores political communication during the post election phase from election day until the inauguration of President Joseph R Biden Chapters address political branding the nature of argumentation in the era of partisanship the themes and issues of media coverage examination of Trump s January 6th address in terms of inciting an insurrection or free speech Trump s discursive strategy political advertising and political cartoons during this period concluding with an examination of the post election lawsuits
