The Dystopian Imagination in Contemporary Spanish Literature and Film Diana Q. Palardy, 2018-07-27 This study examines contemporary Spanish dystopian literature and films in directly related to the 2008 financial crisis from an urban cultural studies perspective It explores culturally charged landscapes that effectively convey the zeitgeist and reveal deep rooted anxieties about issues such as globalization consumerism immigration speculation precarity and political resistance particularly by Indignados Indignant Ones from the 15 M Movement The book loosely traces the trajectory of the crisis with the first part looking at texts that underscore some of the behaviors that indirectly contributed to the crisis and the remaining chapters focusing on works that directly examine the crisis and its aftermath This close reading of texts and films by Ray Loriga Elia Barcel Ion de Sosa Jos Ardillo David Llorente Eduardo Vaquerizo and Ricardo Menéndez Salmón offers insights into the creative ways that these authors and directors use spatial constructions to capture the dystopian imagination

The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translation Kelly Washbourne, Ben Van Wyke, 2018-10-10 The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translation provides an accessible diverse and extensive overview of literary translation today This next generation volume brings together principles case studies precepts histories and process knowledge from practitioners in sixteen different countries Divided into four parts the book covers many of literary translation's most pressing concerns today from teaching to theorising to translation techniques to new tools and resources Featuring genre studies in which graphic novels crime fiction and ethnopoetry have pride of place alongside classics and sacred texts The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translation represents a vital resource for students and researchers of both translation studies and comparative literature

Gender and Contemporary Television in Iberia and Latin America Anja Louis, Abigail Loxham, 2025-08-07 This book provides an inclusive and intersectional look into television from Latin America and the Iberian Peninsula Each of the essays written by international scholars across various disciplines offer close textual analyses of popular series from Mexico Spain Brazil and Cuba these include La casa de papel 2017 2021 Drag Race España 2021 Inés del alma mía 2020 and El ministerio del tiempo 2015 The detailed case studies of seminal local and global hits provide overdue critical attention to Latin American television programming highlighting on screen representations of gendered identities and the role of online streaming in facilitating social change The collection goes on to explore recent industrial changes through first hand interviews with prominent practitioners such as Veronica Fernandez and Leticia Dolera Discussing a broad range of genres including the telenovela melodrama historical drama and reality TV alongside critical theories of media and gender the collection contextualises and interrogates representational practices in Spanish television programming

Popular Texts in English Antonio Ballesteros González, 2001 This book comprises a collection of articles devoted to the academic study of popular texts in English Authors analyse genres which had been habitually looked down on by canonical approaches to literature and art They take into serious consideration forms like horror literature the gothic fantasy detective fiction science fiction best sellers films and television series of different kinds among some other representations of what conservative scholars had been considering as marginal The referential richness of the perspectives reflected here demonstrates that popular texts can be enjoyable for readers and audiences at the same time that they can be significant in order to reach a better understanding of our culture and ourselves at the beginning of a new millennium

Dark Assemblages Kay Pritchett, 2015-10-22 This book examines strategies of transformation becoming image making and the phantasmagoric that figure in four stories and a novel by Gothic fiction writer Pilar Pedraza Spain 1951 While critics have long associated the Bildungsroman with Gothic fiction this study takes a close look at the developmental process itself the means by which a protagonist young or old might transcend a deprived status to achieve a complete sense of self Pedraza's works imply that regardless of the path followed a character's ability to think differently is crucial to progress The fixed image representative of an inflexible socially determined mindset arises as an obstacle to maturation In Das Perros for example a triangular arrangement of coins in a cigar box elucidates the connection between individual lives and the social order or assemblage Literary texts such as this one serve as collective assemblages of enunciation capable of exposing fixed images as powerful instruments of control Tristes Ayes del guila Mejicana discovers fixed images among the icons of Colonial Spain s exequias reales used in this case to territorialize the evolving identity of indigenous peoples The territory that Pedraza s fiction best illuminates is in reality the image When images remain fixed or territorialized they uncannily infect the assemblages over which they exert influence Placing emphasis on images that impact women Pedraza in Anfiteatro for example deconstructs cat woman which albeit a potentially subversive image in its early manifestations eventually ceases to empower the feminine lashing it rather to a burdensome stereotype Territorialized the feminine must then break free from the image in order to discover representations more capable of illuminating present day challenges The phrase dark assemblages drawn from Deleuze and Guattari s A Thousand Plateaus gestures toward societal stagnation as a decisive factor in individual evolvment Gothic fiction represents an uneven landscape in that it tenders the possibility of a social critique yet equally well lends itself to the exclusion of specific identities and practices that society brands as anomalous Pedraza s Gothic fiction is indeed subversive in that it offers readers original perceptions of modern day people and the assemblages dark or otherwise to which they belong
