La Flaqueza Del Bolchevique:

Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz, 2008-09-05 When it began modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime In 1950 the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco's policies a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism In the 1950s and early 1960s filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem Luis García Berlanga and Luis Buñuel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista Death of a Cyclist Bienvenido Se or Marshall Welcome Mr Marshall and Viridiana The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura Jos Luis Borau Víctor Erice and others After Franco's death in 1975 censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality drugs the church the army and the Civil War The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but at long last mirrored the society it depicted While established directors like Saura Bardem and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armendáriz Tasio Fernando Trueba First Work Imanol Uribe The Death of Mikel and Pedro Almodóvar Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown In the last couple of decades exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced including Alejandro Amenábar's Thesis Jos Luis García's The Grandfather and Almodóvar's Talk to Her and Volver In Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz presents a compendium of outstanding Spanish films from the pre Francoist era through the Spanish New Wave of the 80's and 90's and into the present day Schwartz provides background plot and commentaries of key films from six decades of Spanish cinema In addition to identifying The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films Salvador Jiménez Murguía, Alex Pinar, 2018-05-18 Under the Franco regime 1939-1976 films produced in Spain were of poor quality promoted the regime's agenda or were heavily censored After the dictator's death the Spanish film industry transitioned into a new era one in which artists were able to more freely express themselves and tackle subjects that had been previously stifled Today films produced in Spain are among the most highly regarded in world cinema The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films features nearly 300 entries on the written by a host of international scholars and film critics Beginning with movies released after Franco's death this volume documents four decades of films directors actresses and actors of Spanish cinema Offering a comprehensive survey of films the entries address such topics as art culture society and politics Each includes comprehensive production details and provides brief suggestions for further reading Through its examination of the films of the post Franco period this volume offers readers valuable insights into Spanish history politics and culture An indispensable guide to one of the great world cinemas The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films will be of interest to students academics and the general public alike Africa in the Contemporary Spanish Novel, 1990-2010 Mahan L. ¿Qué me pasa, doctor? Javier Figuerro Espadas, Juan Orellana Gutiérrez de Terán, 2024-12-31 El siglo XXI ha traído debajo del brazo cambios sustanciales a tantos niveles cultural social tecnológico climático político sanitario que bien puede hablarse de un cambio de poca del fin de una civilización que da paso a otra nueva. La familia como institución milenaria es una de esas realidades que ha sufrido una honda transformación. Ya no existe un modelo familiar compartido sino que en la sociedad coexisten de hecho diversas fórmulas que tienen sendas repercusiones en sus miembros. El mundo del cine y de las series de televisión como siempre ha hecho refleja lo que ocurre en la sociedad pero también induce comportamientos en la misma. En ese sentido las nuevas experiencias familiares con sus luces y sus sombras sus problemáticas y sus sanaciones han encontrado un gran eco en las producciones audiovisuales de este siglo. En este libro pretendemos recoger distintas aportaciones que ilustran la forma en la que se representan los vínculos y relaciones familiares en películas y series contemporáneas. No queremos ofrecer únicamente una fría exposición de lo que hay en las pantallas sino también tratar de suscitar con toda humildad una reflexión y un juicio que puedan encender una cierta luz en medio de nuestro confuso presente.
