MOBBING, WELL-BEING, AND
THE WORKPLACE

A grayscale photograph of a person with dark, curly hair, wearing a striped shirt, resting their head on their hand in a gesture of exhaustion or stress. They are sitting at a desk with a laptop and other office equipment visible in the background. The image is dimly lit and serves as the background for the book cover.

Labor Disorders in Neoliberal Italy Noelle J. Molé, Noelle Molé Liston, 2012 Psychological harassment at work or mobbing has become a significant public policy issue in Italy and elsewhere in Europe Mobbing has given rise to specialized counseling clinics a new field of professional expertise and new labor laws For Noelle J Mol mobbing is a manifestation of Italy's rapid transition from a highly protectionist to a market oriented labor regime and a neoliberal state She analyzes the classification of mobbing as a work related illness the deployment of preventive public health programs the relation of mobbing to gendered work practices and workers use of the concept of mobbing to make legal and medical claims with implications for state policy labor contracts and political movements For many Italian workers mobbing embodies the social and psychological effects of an economy and a state in transition

Unraveling Management James G. Carrier, 2025-03-01 Management is everywhere Schools teach it and professional organisations counsel about it Books and articles are written for managers and about them Management is usually understood in terms of styles of management management policies and successful management but few tend to think about management in an abstract sense This book addresses this gap and provokes us to think seriously about this assumed entity It does so in various ways by treating management as an institution as an object of study as engaged with culture in different ways and as laden with conflicts

The Grecanici of Southern Italy Stavroula Pipyrrou, 2016-09-13 In this groundbreaking ethnography of fearless governance Stavroula Pipyrrou shows how Grecanici the Greek linguistic minority of Calabria Southern Italy have crafted the means to invert hegemonic culture and participate in the power games of minority politics on local and national scales

Reworking Japan Nana Okura Gagné, 2021-01-15 Reworking Japan examines how the past several decades of neoliberal economic restructuring and reforms have challenged Japan's corporate ideologies gendered relations and subjectivities of individual employees With Japan's remarkable economic growth since the 1950s the lifestyles and life courses of salarymen came to embody the New Middle Class family ideal However the nearly three decades of economic stagnation and reforms since the bursting of the economic bubble in the early 1990s has intensified corporate retrenchment under the banner of neoliberal restructuring and brought new challenges to employees and their previously protected livelihoods In a sweeping appraisal of recent history Gagn demonstrates how economic restructuring has reshaped Japanese corporations workers and ideals as well as how Japanese companies and employees have resisted and actively responded to such changes Gagn explores Japan's fraught and problematic transition from the postwar ideology of companyism to the emergent ideology of neoliberalism and the subsequent large scale economic restructuring By juxtaposing Japan's economic transformation with an ethnography of work and play and individual life histories Gagn goes beyond the abstract to explore the human dimension of the neoliberal reforms that have impacted the nation's corporate governance socioeconomic class workers subjectivities and family relations Reworking Japan with its firsthand analysis of how the supposedly hegemonic neoliberal regime does not completely transform existing cultural frames and social relations will shake up preconceived ideas about Japanese men and the social effects of neoliberalism

Mapping Precariousness, Labour Insecurity and Uncertain Livelihoods Emiliana Armano, Arianna Bove, Annalisa Murgia, 2017-04-07 The condition of precariousness not only provides insights into a segment of the world of work or of a particular subject group but is also a standpoint for an overview of the condition of the social on a global scale Because precariousness is multidimensional and polysemantic it traverses contemporary society and multiple contexts from industrial to class gender family relations as well as political participation citizenship and migration This book maps the differences and similarities in the ways precariousness and insecurity in employment and beyond unfold and are subjectively experienced in regions and sectors that are confronted with different labour histories legislations and economic priorities Establishing a constructive dialogue amongst different global regions and across disciplines the chapters explore the shift from precariousness to precariat and collective subjects as it is being articulated in the current global crisis This edited collection aims to continue a process of mapping experiences by means of ethnographies fieldwork interviews content analysis where the precarious define their condition and explain how they try to withdraw from cope with or embrace it This is valuable reading for students and academics interested in geography sociology economics and labour studies Milanese Encounters Cristina Moretti, 2015-03-27 In a city driven by fashion and design visibility and invisibility are powerful forces Milanese Encounters examines how the acts of looking recognizing and being seen reflect social relations and power structures in contemporary Milan Cristina Moretti's ethnographic study reveals how the meanings of Milan's public spaces shift as the city's various inhabitants use appropriate and travel through them Moretti's extensive fieldwork covers international migrants social justice organizations and middle class citizens groups in locations such as community centers abandoned industrial areas and central plazas and streets Situated at the intersection of urban and visual anthropology her work will challenge and inspire scholars in anthropology urban studies and other fields Contributing to studies of urban Italy neoliberalism and immigration Milanese Encounters is a welcome demonstration of ethnography's potential to analyse the connections and divisions created by complex modern cities Encountering Entrepreneurs Elena Sischarenco, 2019-04-09 This book shows the daily life of businessmen in a particularly productive area of Northern Italy Lombardy It provides insights into their business entrepreneurialism and of them as individuals allowing the reader to immerse themselves in these businessmen's world full of plans ideas hopes and failures in the struggle to survive during a time of economic recession The analysis reveals the importance of trust and networks as a way of opposing the vulnerability and risk involved in entrepreneurialism As such the book has an appeal that extends beyond anthropology It will be of interest not only to students of sociology Italian studies and business studies but also to anyone with an interest in seeing business through different lenses Through its close ethnographic accounts of businessmen it provides a different approach to capitalism and a reflection on human nature Corporate Responsibility and Sustainable Development Lez Rayman-Bacchus, Philip R.

Walsh,2015-11-19 Corporate responsibility and sustainable development are two concepts that may be able to reconcile many of the big challenges facing the world challenges such as tensions between respect for the natural environment social justice and economic development the long view versus short term imperatives and the competing priorities between developed and developing economies This book explores the gaps and overlaps between corporate responsibility and sustainable development These concerns overlap because they implicate corporate practices state development policy challenges the concerns and priorities of non governmental organisations and the potential for innovative forms of organisation to address these challenges This collection examines these questions in terms of tensions and interdependencies between competing claims to resources rights and responsibilities strategy and governance between public and private interest and the implications for equity and the common good over the long term This is a valuable resource for researchers lecturers practitioners postgraduate and final year undergraduates in business strategy international business and international management public sector policy and management international development political economy It is also suitable for more specialist courses on sustainability corporate responsibility governance and international development New

Anthropologies of Italy Paolo Heywood,2024-07-01 Anthropologists working in Italy are at the forefront of scholarship on several topics including migration far right populism organised crime and heritage This book heralds an exciting new frontier by bringing together some of the leading ethnographers of Italy and placing together their contributions into the broader realm of anthropological history culture and new perspectives in Europe The Politics of Joking Jana Kopelent

Rehak,Susanna Trnka,2018-10-25 This book engages anthropologically with humor as political expression It reveals how humor is in many instances central to human efforts to cope with political struggle and significant to understanding power dynamics in socio political life The chapters examine humor and joking activities across a diverse range of geographic areas and cultural contexts The contributors consider humor as it is constituted in political anxiety aggression and power and when it becomes a tool to resist repair reconcile or make a moral claim Collectively they demonstrate that humor can provide a powerful critique a non violent form of political protest and the space for restoration of human dignity Citizens without a City Jan-Jonathan Bock,2022-02-01 In 2009 after seismic tremors struck the Italian mountain town of L'Aquila survivors were subjected to a second earthquake invasive media attention and a relief effort that left them in a state of suspended citizenship as they were forcibly resettled and had to envision a new future In Citizens without a City Jan Jonathan Bock reveals how a disproportionate government response exacerbated survivors sense of crisis divided the local population and induced new types of political action Italy's disenfranchising emergency reaction relocated citizens to camps and sites across a ruined townscape without a plan for restoration or return Through grassroots politics arts and culture commemoration rituals architectural projects and legal avenues local people now sought to shape their hometown's recovery Bock combines an analysis of the catastrophe's impact with insights into post disaster civic life urban heritage the politics of mourning and community fragmentation A fascinating read for anyone interested in urban culture disaster and politics Citizens without a City illustrates how survivors battled to retain a sense of purpose and community after the L Aquila earthquake The Truth Society Noelle Molé Liston,2020-11-15 Noelle Mol Liston s The Truth Society seeks to understand how a period of Italian political spectacle which regularly blurred fact and fiction has shaped how people understand truth mass mediated information scientific knowledge and forms of governance Liston scrutinizes Italy s late twentieth century political culture particularly the impact of the former prime minister and media mogul Silvio Berlusconi By doing so she examines how this truth bending political era made science logic and rationality into ideas that needed saving With the prevalence of fake news and our seeming lack of shared reality in the post truth world many people struggle to figure out where this new normal came from Liston argues that seemingly disparate events and practices that have unfolded in Italy are historical reactions to mediatized political forms and particular cultivated ways of knowing Politics then is always sutured to how knowledge is structured circulated and processed The Truth Society offers Italy as a case study for understanding the remaking of politics in an era of disinformation Precarity in Western European Cinema Temenuga Trifonova,2025-10-01 This book explores the new European cinema of precarity with a particular focus on Western European films by revisiting some of its most important precursors including 1930s Popular Front films and 1990s French New Realism Italian neorealism and the British New Wave It identifies dominant themes and motifs in contemporary films and their precursors as well as important continuities and discontinuities between earlier and later representations of work class class struggle solidarity precarity the moral economy of capitalism and neoliberalism and their affective pathologies Trifonova examines the ways in which the cinema of precarity mediates economic and social capital in the age of neoliberalism and considers whether these films lend validity to Guy Standing s idea of the precariat as the new dangerous class The Negotiation of Urgency Mirko Pasquini,2025-06-17 Who is to be attended first And how should such a decision be made The Negotiation of Urgency Economies of Attention in an Italian Emergency Room ethnographically explores the everyday life of one of the thickest places in contemporary societies the ER where aging economic precarity draconian migration laws hospital overcrowding and life and death intersect daily The book describes the effect of those intersections for clinicians and their patients as well as for policy makers and the health care system more generally Mirko Pasquini shows that there is more than medical urgency at stake in the ER where mistrust of medical authority is fueled and violence often sparks He analyzes the making of urgency that is triage not as a neutral medical way of sorting but as a practice that actively creates difference through economies of attention The Negotiation of Urgency illustrates both the limits of triage and how those limits can spark improvisation and creative reinvention Creative Urbanity Emanuela Guano,2017 Based on more than a decade of ethnographic research in Genoa Italy Creative Urbanity argues for an understanding of contemporary urban life that refuses scholarly condemnation of urban lifestyles and consumption and casts a fresh light on an oft neglected social group the middle class      The Spectral Within Elena Miltiadis, 2025-10-01 Latina was founded in 1932 by the Fascist Regime and is often described by its inhabitants through its absences as a place where there is nothing The book examines the role of absence in place making and delves into the lived experience of Latina Through the analytical lens of haunting this work explores its inhabitants efforts to see their city as a meaningful social space as they navigate the city s multiple histories and the absent presence of the contested past      Tight Knit Elizabeth L. Krause, 2018-08-17 The coveted Made in Italy label calls to mind visions of nimble fingered Italian tailors lovingly sewing elegant high end clothing The phrase evokes a sense of authenticity heritage and rustic charm Yet as Elizabeth L Krause uncovers in Tight Knit Chinese migrants are the ones sewing Made in Italy labels into low cost items for a thriving fast fashion industry all the while adding new patterns to the social fabric of Italy s iconic industry Krause offers a revelatory look into how families involved in the fashion industry are coping with globalization based on longterm research in Prato the historic hub of textile production in the heart of metropolitan Tuscany She brings to the fore the tensions over value money beauty family care and belonging that are reaching a boiling point as the country struggles to deal with the same migration pressures that are triggering backlash all over Europe and North America Tight Knit tells a fascinating story about the heterogeneity of contemporary capitalism that will interest social scientists immigration experts and anyone curious about how globalization is changing the most basic of human conditions making a living and making a life      The SAGE Handbook of Cultural Anthropology Lene Pedersen, Lisa Cliggett, 2021-03-31 The SAGE Handbook of Cultural Anthropology is the first instalment of The SAGE Handbook of the Social Sciences series and encompasses major specialities as well as key interdisciplinary themes relevant to the field Globally societies are facing major upheaval and change and the social sciences are fundamental to the analysis of these issues as well as the development of strategies for addressing them This handbook provides a rich overview of the discipline and has a future focus whilst using international theories and examples throughout The SAGE Handbook of Cultural Anthropology is an essential resource for social scientists globally and contains a rich body of chapters on all major topics relevant to the field whilst also presenting a possible road map for the future of the field Part 1 Foundations Part 2 Focal Areas Part 3 Urgent Issues Part 4 Short Essays Contemporary Critical Dynamics      The Market in Mind Mark Dennis Robinson, 2019-07-23 A critical examination of translational medicine when private risk is transferred to the public sector and university research teams become tech startups for global investors A global shift has secretly transformed science and medicine Starting in 2003 biomedical research in the West has been reshaped by the emergence of translational science and medicine the idea that the aim of research is to translate findings as quickly as possible into medical products In The Market in Mind Mark Dennis Robinson charts this shift arguing that the new research paradigm has turned university research teams into small biotechnology startups and their industry partners into early stage investment firms There is also a larger surprising consequence from this shift according to Robinson translational science and medicine enable biopharmaceutical firms as part of a broader financial strategy to outsource the riskiest parts of research to nonprofit universities Robinson examines the implications of this new configuration What happens for example when universities absorb unknown levels of risk Robinson argues that in the years since the global financial crisis translational science and medicine has brought about the financialization of health Robinson explores such topics as shareholder anxiety and industry retreat from Alzheimer s and depression research how laboratory research is understood as health innovation even when there is no product the emergence of investor networking events as crucial for viewing science in a market context and the place of patients in research decisions Although translational medicine justifies itself by the goal of relieving patients suffering Robinson finds patients voices largely marginalized in translational neuroscience

Work in Cinema E. Kerr, 2013-12-18 Cinema frequently depicts various types of work but this representation is never straightforward It depends on and reflects many factors especially the place and time the film is made and the type of audience it addresses Here the contributors employ transnational and transhistorical perspectives to compare filmic depictions of work
