Masculinities and Hong Kong Cinema Laikwan Pang, Day Wong, 2005-03-01 This collection of exciting essays explores how the representations and the ideologies of masculinities can be productively studied in the context of Hong Kong cinema It has two objectives first to investigate the multiple meanings and manifestations of masculinities in Hong Kong cinema that compliment and contradict each other Second to analyze the social and cultural environments that make these representations possible and problematic Masculinities and Hong Kong Cinema presents a comprehensive picture of how Hong Kong mainstream cinematic masculinities are produced within their own socio cultural discourses and how these masculinities are distributed received and transformed within the setting of the market place This volume is divided into three interrelated parts the local cinematic tradition the transnational context and reverberations and the larger production reception and mediation environments The combination of these three perspectives will reveal the dynamics and tensions between the local and the transnational between production and reception and between text and context in the gendered manifestations of Hong Kong cinema The Routledge Handbook of Mobilities Peter Adey, David Bissell, Kevin Hannam, Peter Merriman, Mimi Sheller, 2014-01-10 The 21st century seems to be on the move perhaps even more so than the last With cheap travel and more than two billion cars projected worldwide for 2030 And yet all this mobility is happening incredibly unevenly at different paces and intensities with varying impacts and consequences to the extent that life on the move might be actually quite difficult to sustain environmentally socially and ethically As a result mobility has become a keyword of the social sciences delineating a new domain of concepts approaches methodologies and techniques which seek to understand the character and quality of these trends This Handbook explores and critically evaluates the debates approaches controversies and methodologies inherent to this rapidly expanding discipline It brings together leading specialists from range of backgrounds and geographical regions to provide an authoritative and comprehensive overview of this field conveying cutting edge research in an accessible way whilst giving detailed grounding in the evolution of past debates on mobilities It illustrates disciplinary trends and pathways from migration studies and transport history to communications research featuring methodological innovations and developments and conceptual histories from feminist theory to tourist studies It explores the dominant figures of mobility from children to soldiers and the mobility impaired the disparate materialities of mobility such as flows of water and waste to the vectors of viruses key infrastructures such as logistics systems to the informal services of megacity slums and the important mobility events around which our world turns from going on vacation to the commute to the catastrophic disruption of mobility systems The text is forward thinking projecting the future of mobilities as they might be lived transformed and studied and possibly brought to an end International in focus the book transcends disciplinary and national boundaries to explore mobilities as they are understood from different perspectives different fields countries and standpoints This is an invaluable resource for all those with an interest in mobility across disciplinary boundaries and areas of study

Hong Kong Society Stephen WK Chiu, Xaxton YK Siu, 2022-02-23 This book borrows the concept of high definition from digital broadcasting to highlight our unique approach to Hong Kong society which gives a sharper image than analyses It intends to highlight contrasts with many common and taken for granted stories myths and representations of Hong Kong which often presented with a low level of detail lacking proper connections between grounded personal experiences and the macro social context With chapters covering various salient dimensions of Hong Kong s society including migration economy inequality identity and social movements our high definition approach presents images with high enough resolution to match multiple layers of experiences from walks of life of Hong Kong people contributing to an understanding of how global transformation impacts local people s experiences as well as Hong Kong s significance in the regional and global system

Mobilizing an Asian American Community Linda Trinh Vö, 2004 Focusing on San Diego in the post Civil Rights era Linda Trinh V examines the ways Asian Americans drew together despite many differences within the group to construct a community that supports a variety of social economic political and cultural organizations Using historical materials ethnographic fieldwork and interviews Linda Trinh V traces the political strategies that enable Asian Americans to bridge ethnicity generation gender language and class differences among others She demonstrates that mobilization is not a smooth linear process and shows how the struggle over ideologies political strategies and resources affects the development of community organizations V also analyzes how Asian Americans construct their relationship with Asia and how they forge relationships with other racialized communities of color V argues that the situation in San Diego illuminates other localities across the country where Asians face challenges trying to organize find sufficient resources create leaders and define strategies
