In the Moment Gerry Cousins, 2016-09-22

Lucky you You have an audition Now what An audition is a truthful clip of a moment lived in a surreal circumstance that must clearly exist in the actor's mind and carry physical weight and presence It only takes knowing how Often acting classes are about theater scene study performance memorized lines sets costumes etc and the luxury of time Auditioning for a part in film and television has its own skill set Usually an actor has one day to get ready assess a character breakdown the clothes on his back perhaps a chair in an empty space and a stranger with whom to read Gerry Cousins fashioned In the Moment as a direct segue into the professional world of film and television emphasizing craft focus preparation relaxation and commitment In her workbook as in the studio she stresses individualism to meet each student's needs no single technique for all Step by step scene by scene she builds on what went before and what to do next until you're there Whether an actor trial lawyer executive sales and marketing professional you have a voice that should be heard Who am I in this moment and how am I going to communicate that Gerry will teach you how to prepare your script make choices and understand where you're coming from When it comes down to it what people see what they want to see is not a role or character or piece of work certainly not a performance What they want to see is you
