Great Architecture Of The World:

Great Architecture of the World John Julius Norwich, 1975 Great Architecture of the World , 1981 World's Greatest Architect William J. Mitchell, 2008-08-01 Function and meaning in architecture and elsewhere from tongue in cheek instructions for creating a surveillance state to reflections on the architecture of the potato chip World's Greatest Architect Making Meaning and Network Culture Artifacts including works of architecture play dual roles they simultaneously perform functions and carry meaning Columns support roofs but while the sturdy Tuscan and Doric types traditionally signify masculinity the slim and elegant Ionic and Corinthian kinds read as feminine Words are often inscribed on objects On a door push or pull Today information is digitally encoded dematerialized and displayed rematerialized to become part of many different objects at one moment appearing on a laptop screen and at another perhaps on a building facade as in Times Square Well designed artifacts succeed in being both useful and meaningful In World's Greatest Architect William Mitchell offers a series of snapshots short essays and analyses that examine the systems of function and meaning currently operating in our buildings cities and global networks In his writing Mitchell makes connections that aren't necessarily obvious but are always illuminating moving in one essay from Bush Cheney's abuse of language to Robert Venturi's argument against rigid ideology and in favor of graceful pragmatism He traces the evolution of Las Vegas from Sin Sign City to family friendly resort and residential real estate boomtown A purchase of chips leads not only to a complementary purchase of beer but to thoughts of Eames chairs like Pringles and Gehry fun to imitate with tortilla chips in refried beans As for who the world's greatest architect might be here's a hint he's also the oldest Chicago's Great World's Fairs John E. Findling, 1994 The 50 Greatest Architects Ike Ijeh, 2022 Award winning architecture writer Ike Ijeh introduces 50 of the world's most influential architects and a selection of their most celebrated buildings showcased with full color photography The architects selected here have designed buildings that are as dramatic as their impact on the world of architecture From familiar modern era names such as Zaha Hadid and Sir Norman Foster to geniuses from history such as Nicholas Hawksmoor and Andrea Palladio Ike Ijeh reveals his top 50 list of the architects deserving of the description greatest Each double page spread focuses on a different architect outlining their influences the legacy of their ideas and revealing the glorious designs that have made them famous Includes Full color photographs and illustrations of famous buildings around the world Concise professional biographies of the architects listed Plans from great architecture projects Entries arranged in chronological order for easy reference With this wonderful hardback reference guide you can discover the true breadth of the creative achievements that lie within the careers of these architectural giants and enjoy their beautiful creations through images and illustrations Publisher's description Discovering Architecture Philip Jodidio, Elizabeth Dowling, 2016-09-13 This exceptionally produced art book with die cut windows overlays and blueprints identifies decodes and explains the world's architectural masterpieces Based on the successful format of Discovering the Great Masters this is an accessible reference
