Latino Los Angeles in Film and Fiction Ignacio Lopez-Calvo, 2011-02-15 Los Angeles has long been a place where cultures clash and reshape The city has a growing number of Latino authors and filmmakers who are remapping and reclaiming it through ongoing symbolic appropriation In this illuminating book Ignacio Lopez Calvo foregrounds the emotional experiences of authors implicit authors narrators characters and readers in order to demonstrate that the evolution of the imaging of Los Angeles in Latino cultural production is closely related to the politics of spatial location This spatial temporal approach he writes reveals significant social anxieties repressed rage and deep racial guilt Latino Los Angeles in Film and Fiction sets out to reconfigure the scope of Latino literary and cultural studies Integrating histories of different regions and nations the book sets the interplay of unresolved contradictions in this particular metropolitan area The novelists studied here stem from multiple areas including the U S Southwest Guatemala and Chile The study also incorporates non Latino writers who have contributed to the Latino culture of the city The first chapter examines Latino cultural production from an ecocritical perspective on urban interethnic relations Chapter 2 concentrates on the representation of daily life in the barrio and the marginalization of Latino urban youth The third chapter explores the space of women and how female characters expand their area of operations from the domestic space to the public space of both the barrio and the city A much needed contribution to the fields of urban theory race critical theory Chicana o Latina o studies and Los Angeles writing and film Lopez Calvo offers multiple theoretical perspectives including urban theory ecocriticism ethnic studies gender studies and cultural studies contextualized with notions of transnationalism and post nationalism Weep Not for Your Children Lisa

Isherwood, Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2016-06-16 Violence remains endemic in today's society Religious morality and social prejudice can lead to many acts of violence going unnoticed Weep Not for Your Children presents a selection of essays that examine the ways in which religion and violence interconnect The presence of violence in the origins of cultural and religious norms is examined The essays cover a wide range of examples of violence from the Holocaust to domestic violence and from the violence created by economic systems to that created by the construction of gender itself Weep Not for Your Children challenges and provokes the reader to think beyond traditional associations of good and evil City Kids, City Schools

A World of Gangs John M. M. Hagedorn, 2008-05-13 Street gangs mirror the inhuman ambitions and greed of society's trendsetters and deities even as they fight to the death over scraps from the table of the international drug trade But John Hagedorn characteristically also finds hope in the contradictory values of outlaw youth selflessness solidarity and love amid cupidity and directionless rage and he maintains the hope that a culture of resistance will ultimately prevail over the forces of self destruction Whether one shares his optimism or not he makes a compelling case that the future of the world will be determined on the streets of our cities Mike Davis from the Foreword A World of Gangs is an illuminating journey around the cultures lives tragedies and dreams of millions of rebellious youth around the planet It is an indispensable work to understand the world we live in and essential reading for students of cities and communities Manuel Castells For the more than a billion people who now live in urban slums gangs are ubiquitous features of daily life Though still most closely associated with American cities gangs are an entrenched worldwide phenomenon that play a significant role in a wide range of activities from drug dealing to extortion to religious and political violence In A World of Gangs John Hagedorn explores this international proliferation of the urban gang as a consequence of the ravages of globalization Looking closely at gang formation in three world cities Chicago Rio de Janeiro and Capetown he discovers that some gangs have institutionalized as a strategy to confront a hopeless cycle of poverty racism and oppression In particular Hagedorn reveals the nihilistic appeal of gangsta rap and its street ethic of survival by any means necessary provides vital insights into the ideology and persistence of gangs around the world This groundbreaking work concludes on a hopeful note Proposing ways in which gangs might be encouraged to overcome their violent tendencies Hagedorn appeals to community leaders to use the urgency outrage and resistance common to both gang life and hip hop in order to bring gangs into broader movements for social justice John M Hagedorn is associate professor of criminal justice at the University of Illinois Chicago He is editor of Gangs in the Global City and author of the highly influential People and Folks Gangs Crime and the Underclass in a Rustbelt City MacArthur fellow Mike Davis is the author of many books including Planet of Slums and most recently Buda's Wagon A Brief History of the Car Bomb

Gangs in America's Communities James C. Howell, Elizabeth Griffiths, 2015-02-18 Gangs in America's Communities offers a comprehensive up to date and theoretically grounded approach to gangs and associated youth violence Authors Dr James C Howell and Dr Elizabeth Griffiths introduce readers to the foundations of gang studies through the origins of gangs definitions and categories of youth street gangs transnational as well as prison gangs and the distinctions between these arguably different types national trends in gang presence and gang related violence across American cities distinguishing attributes of serious street gangs and myths and realities Students and instructors will benefit from the Second Edition's comprehensive treatment of the state of the literature on individual level causes and consequences of gang membership. Going beyond the traditional topics covered in most texts in the market, this book uniquely describes specific gang patterns, trends, and cultures within a group-based structure while illuminating the most promising avenues for reducing the presence and seriousness of gangs in American communities. Gangs in the Global City John Hagedorn, 2007

Understanding worldwide gangs through the lens of globalization I Am Alive in Los Angeles! Mike the Poet, 2006-05 Being alive in Los Angeles means driving. It means having friends in a hundred neighborhoods. Everyday I figure 8 my way through the blood bones of the city. These journeys invigorate me. Connecting the dots is what I like to do from the hilltop parties to the Watts Towers, North Long Beach to Frogtown, there's so much flavor, landscape, characters. I love it all. I Am ALIVE IN LOS ANGELES. In this progressive collection of poems, essays, notes, Mike the Poet digs into the real Los Angeles. Passages of charged prose, poetic snapshots capture the panorama of the city of angels. Pieces cover the mythical afterhour parties, unique architecture, socioeconomics, graffiti, gangs, Hollywood, more. Poet, Journalist, Historian, Mike Sonksen aka Mike the Poet has performed at the L.A. Times Book Prizes, Divine Forces Radio, Music Plus TV, published hundreds of poems, articles in the LA Citybeat, O.C. Weekly, Jointz, Kotori, so on. It's easy to target Los Angeles' deficits, flashiness, venality, gross disparity of wealth. But it takes rare understanding and eloquence to see this fair city in all its lights, both good and bad. Mike Sonksen aka Mike the Poet achieves that unusual feat with his debut spoken word release, I Am Alive in Los Angeles. A third generation L.A. native, Sonksen has special insight into the multi-textured realities that comprise the city. L.A. Alternative Press. Mike the Poet, the most cool, positive guy in poetry, future L.A. legend, you read it here first. TEKA LARK LO Latina and

Latino Voices in Literature Frances A. Day, 2003-05-30. This revised edition of an award-winning resource celebrates the lives and works of 35 Latina and Latino authors who write for today's young readers. Expanded to include 12 additional authors, updated information on the original 23 authors profiled, and 135 new titles, this comprehensive reference tool helps teachers, librarians, and parents stay current on one of the most dynamic areas of contemporary literature. Both established and emerging voices are profiled. Personal quotes and photographs introduce each biographical essay, presenting information gathered through interviews, personal communications, and research. A complete list of all books and works written by the author is included, along with publication information. Annotations are provided for most of the titles, along with information on major themes, awards won, and recommended age levels. Evaluating Books for Bias provides helpful guidelines for examining and selecting books from a pluralistic perspective. Appendices offer further helpful information about the field, including special awards honoring books by Latinas and Latinos, a calendar of holidays and special days celebrated by the Latino community, and listings of related resources and organizations. The author has also compiled ideas for classroom activities and ways for librarians to extend the literary experience. A title index and extensive topic index, including themes, curricular areas, and genres, help in planning story sessions and study units. This is a multipurpose resource for anyone who wants to help young readers connect with contemporary literature in a meaningful way Family Violence and Men of Color Ricardo Carrillo, Jerry Tello, 2008-08-15 This innovative book examines an important timely topic The content will greatly enhance practitioners and students understanding and skills in working with men of color Elaine P Congress DSW Fordham University Graduate School of Social Service Family Violence and Men of Color is the best book in cross cultural issues and domestic violence that I have ever read It is a good combination of literature review clinical interventions and cultural imagery Daniel Sonkin PhD Marriage Family and Child Counselor Family violence is an international epidemic that knows no cultural boundaries but for years research has overlooked the historical political and cultural factors that often lead men toward violent behavior The first edition of Family Violence and Men of Color broke new ground by closely examining the relationship between race and family violence This revised edition offers an even broader cross cultural analysis of male violence and more specialized treatment methods and approaches Key Features Chapters analyzing violent behavioral patterns in each major community of color Three new chapters on the African American and Maori communities in addition to the Latino Native American Asian and South American communities Culturally based strategies and models that enhance the efficacy of existing intervention programs for men who batter Integrates clinical experiential and narrative approaches to family violence This text calls for a critical evaluation and transformation of cultural practices that promote violence against women and will be pivotal in the development of more effective prevention and intervention programs in the years to come
