Working Effectively with Administrative Groups Ronald W. Toseland, Paul H. Ephross, 1987 Two leaders in the field of social work with groups address the need for more knowledge about the collective processes and practices centered around the task of work objectives In this important book the editors have assembled a rich collection of articles on work with administrative groups Contributors demonstrate how groups in the workplace particularly those in social welfare agencies can be facilitated in achieving objectives by the professional approach of the skilled group worker Concepts are presented for analyzing the group processes and group dynamics found in administrative groups The practical skills needed for serving as effective leaders and members of administrative groups are discussed as well as qualitative and quantitative approaches for examining the efficacy of administrative group meetings

The Handbook for Working with Difficult Groups Sandy Schuman, 2010-03-18 WE'VE ALL EXPERIENCED the challenges associated with working with groups but The Handbook for Working with Difficult Groups turns the idea of difficult groups on its head Rather than view groups as inherently difficult it looks at the factors that make working with groups difficult Individual chapters focus on challenges such as involving dissenters building external perspectives reducing complaining adapting to cultural differences incorporating diversity facilitating inclusion working virtually resolving identity based conflict transforming unproductive behavior patterns preventing workplace harassment and strengthening accountability The book first provides a framework for thinking systemically about the many and varied ways in which working with a group can be difficult Building on that framework the contributors each address three basic issues How the group is difficult a description of a real group and the observable phenomena that reflect the group s difficulty Why the group is difficult an exploration of the underlying causes of the difficulty What you can do about it what you can do as a group facilitator leader or member to help the group
