Oedipus at Colonus and King Lear: Classical and Early Modern Intersections Silvia Bigliazzi, 2019-12-29 The story of King Lear seems to fill in the blank space separating the end of Oedipus Tyrannus and the beginning of Oedipus at Colonus In both Oedipus at Colonus and the latter part of King Lear we are presented with an old man who was once a King and following his expulsion from his kingdom on account of a crime or of an error is turned into a no thing This happens in the time of the division of the kingdom which is also the time of the genesis of intraspecific conflict and consequently of the end of the dynasty This collection of essays offers a range of perspectives on the many common concerns of these two plays from the relation between fathers and sons daughters to madness and wisdom from sinning and suffering to being and non being in human and divine time It also offers an overarching critical frame that interrogates questions of source and reception probing into the possible exchangeability of perspectives in a game of mirrors that challenges ideas of origin Consent in Shakespeare's Classical Mediterranean Artemis Preeshl,2025-02-20 Consent in Shakespeare s Classical Mediterranean fills a gap in knowledge about how female identified gender fluid and non binary characters made choices about intimacy engagement and marriage in Shakespeare s classical Mediterranean plays This classical sequel explores how female identified gender fluid and non binary characters accessed agency in Shakespeare s Mediterranean plays set in classical Troy Athens Thebes Antioch Ephesus Mytilene the North African Pentapolis Tarsus Egypt Rome Antium Britain Sardis Philippi Sicily greater Bohemia and the Balkan region Through the lens of sources from Eastern and Western Europe the Middle East and the Maghrib Shakespeare s heroines and their supporters may have initially appeared to conform to Early Modern contexts but the diverse backgrounds of female identified gender fluid and non binary characters impacted the right to consent to friendship affection betrothal and marriage in the classical Mediterranean By focusing on perspective views about female identified gender fluid and non binary characters in and around Eastern and Western Europe the Middle East and the Maghreb classical realities collide with Early Modern preconceptions and misconceptions to reveal commonalities and differences in the lived experiences of female identified and non binary royalty nobility servants enslaved peoples matchmakers courtesans sex workers madams herbalists tailors and merchants This study will be of great interest to students and scholars in Theatre Middle East Studies Asian Studies Eastern European and Eurasian Studies African and Maghrib Studies and Social Justice Studies The Wonderful Adventures of Phra the Phoenician Edwin Lester Arnold,1893 The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1910 The Instigator Ernest A.
