SCOTT,2018 The Hague Conventions and Declarations of 1899 and 1907 James Brown Scott,2015-07-08 Excerpt from The Hague Conventions and Declarations of 1899 and 1907 Accompanied by Tables of Signatures Ratification and Adhesions of the Varios Powers and Texts of Reservations In view of the very great interest at the present time in the Conventions and signed Declarations of the First and Second Hague Conferences and because of the need of accurate information as to ratifications of and adhesions to the Conventions and Declarations relating to war the Endowment has prepared a series of pamphlets in order that the public may learn from reliable sources the status of these international agreements and the extent to which the Powers at war are bound by their provisions The pamphlets have now been brought together and issued in volume form to which there have been added introductory matter and a carefully prepared and elaborate index Attention is called to the tables of signatures ratifications adhesions and reservations of the two Conferences pages 229 et seq The compilation has been made from official sources and the tables have been certified as correct by the Department of State of the United States and by the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands In all cases the reservations contained in the proceedings of the two Conferences but only referred to in the tables issued by the International Bureau of the Permanent Court of Arbitration have been translated and printed in full with the references to the official reports where the reservations are found Without the complete text of a reservation it is impossible to know to what extent a Power is bound The Conventions and signed Declarations of the two Conferences are accompanied by the respective lists of countries which have a ratified or b adhered to or c signed but not ratified them with the date of the particular action taken Each Convention or Declaration is followed also by the texts of reservations The English translations of the original French texts of the several Conventions and Declarations and Final Acts of the Conferences reproduce the official translations of the Department of State except that a few obvious misprints and occasional mistranslations have been corrected Marginal notes have been added to facilitate reference The Conventions and Declarations are numbered as in the Final Acts About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
