 aktualisiert Australia's Toxic Medical Culture Vicki Adele Pascoe, 2018-10-11 This book explores dominance in Australia s medical culture through the positioning of international medical graduates IMGs It argues that IMGs are othered and ultimately positioned as an underclass a positioning validated and reinforced by the intersecting inequalities of class race and nation It also suggests that the positioning of IMGs is organised through the dimensions of structural power hegemonic power and interpersonal power which allow an exploration of power relations between the structures of the health system the Australian medical profession and the agency of IMGs The Australian narrative presented to the world espouses a community of social justice and human rights Instead an historical lens traces the formation and persistence of difference represented in ethnocentrism racism and xenophobia from 1788 to the present The research presented is multidisciplinary in scope An anti oppressive theoretical framework enables the voices of lived experience to penetrate throughout and a social justice platform engages the participants and the reader into the interwoven conversations The data set comprises a focus group 10 individual interviews with IMGs and a selection of inquiry submissions revealing rich and sometimes shocking evidence to paint a stark picture Other medical voices join the conversation via media responses to revelations of experiences not only by IMGs but also by Australian trained doctors It exposes a toxic culture endemic with bullying and sexual harassment This book is of interest to practitioners researchers and administrators in the fields of medical education human resource management legal studies health sciences social sciences health services government departments universities and hospitals as well as those tasked with duty of care and the provision of a safe workplace The voices gifted to this study raise awareness of current issues within medicine in Australia at a very personal level and begin to formulate a policy and practical response to address these disturbing revelations Linking Ages Anna Wanka, Tabea Freutel-Funke, Sabine Andresen, Frank Oswald, 2024-11-14 When we ponder about whether it is time to finish a degree start a family or retire we often draw on age to make an assessment When are we too young or too old to do something and what age is the right one Age thereby is a central social category for Western societies more than gender ethnicity or social status age affects our social position networks lifestyles and aspirations By asking what childhood and ageing research can learn from each other this edited volume brings both fields into a fruitful dialogue It touches upon topics like theories and method olog ies space and time health and care technologies and digitalization play work and consumption as well as violence well being and childrens and older peoples rights This volume will appeal to scholars and students interested in childhood studies and ageing studies gerontology located in a range of disciplines from sociology to social work social and cultural anthropology educational sciences human geography architecture urban planning architecture health and disability studies nursing studies political sciences and law Newcomers Navigating the Welfare State Hanne Vandermeersch, Elsa Mescoli, Jean-Michel Lafleur, Peter De Cuyper, 2023-12-15 The topic of social assistance for migrant newcomers often sparks heated public debate and remains a prominent concern on the policy agenda Society has experienced a growing level of diversity This reality gives rise to new demands and changing profiles of individuals who benefit from welfare services Welfare institutions which are responsible for providing social assistance play a crucial role in granting access to social benefits for newcomers Moreover the provision of social assistance can significantly influence the settlement and integration processes of migrants This book provides empirical insights into the alignment between the needs of newcomers and the service provided to them It examines the accessibility of social assistance for newcomers from a comprehensive perspective encompassing aspects such as gaining access including equal access for all and service availability By focusing on the Belgian Public Centres for Social Welfare as a case study the authors explore the policies and practices related to social assistance and labour market activation for newcomers and the factors that influence individuals access to their rights By incorporating the perspectives of all the relevant stakeholders involved drawing on the insights of social workers and managers as well as the experiences of newcomers themselves this book offers a unique understanding of the interactions between immigrants the welfare state and street level bureaucrats It provides valuable insights for enhancing service provision striving for a more inclusive approach
