Virtue in Global Governance Jan Klabbers, 2022-08-11 Since rules legal ethical or otherwise cannot determine their own application they require persons of flesh and blood to interpret and apply them in concrete cases Presidents and prime ministers judges prosecutors mediators leaders of international organizations and even religious leaders and public intellectuals make decisions on how best to understand rules and how best to apply them It stands to reason that their character traits influence the sort of decisions they take This book provides the first systematic framework for discussing global governance in terms of the virtues and illustrates it with a number of detailed examples of concrete decision making in specific situations Virtue in Global Governance combines insights from law ethics and global governance studies in developing a unique approach to global governance and international law

The Powerful and the Damned Lionel Barber, 2020-11-05 Extraordinary TONY BLAIR Riveting PHILIPPE SANDS Brutal brilliant and scurrilously funny MISHA GLENNY The real scoop isn't on the front page As FT editor I was a privileged interlocutor to people in power around the world each offering unique insights into high level decision making and political calculation often in moments of crisis These diaries offer snapshots of leadership in an age of upheaval Lionel Barber was Editor of the Financial Times for the tech boom the global financial crisis the rise of China Brexit and mainstream media's fight for survival in the age of fake news In this unparalleled no holds barred diary of life behind the headlines he reveals the private meetings and exchanges with political leaders on the eve of referendums the conversations with billionaire bankers facing economic meltdown exchanges with Silicon Valley tech gurus and pleas from foreign emissaries desperate for inside knowledge all against the backdrop of a wildly shifting media landscape The result is a fascinating and at times scathing portrait of power in our modern age who has it what it takes and what drives the men and women with the world at their feet Featuring close encounters with Trump Cameron Blair Putin Merkel and Mohammed Bin Salman and many more this is a rare portrait of the people who continue to shape our world and who quite literally make the news

Brands and Branding Stephen Brown, 2016-08-17 A fun and humorous introductory book written in Stephen Brown's entertaining and highly distinctive style that introduces curious readers to the key components of brands and helps them to begin to make sense of them what they are what they do why and how using plenty of examples and references drawn from a wide range brands such as Amazon Apple Google Gucci Nike Nintendo Starbucks Swatch and The Worst Hotel in the World With 3 000 branding books published each year why would you or your students want to read Brands Branding Here are seven reasons why It's introductory aimed at undergraduate students or postgrads without a bachelor degree in business and assumes nothing more than readers awareness of high profile brands such as Coca Cola Microsoft and Chanel It s indicative focusing on the basics and thus being a more reliable revision aid than Lucozade It s immersive taking readers on a journey and working on the assumption that they have smartphones or tablet computers to hand the print text links to images articles and academic publications to give emphasis and context where appropriate It s inclusive considering articles and reports but also blogs novels newspapers reviews social media and other sources It s irreverent branding is not always a deadly serious business It s intimate Stephen speaks to you directly and together you will pick your way through the sometimes weird and unfailingly wonderful world of brands and branding using examples rather than abstract ideas to illustrate points It s inspirational celebrating the curious and successful stories of brands from Cillit Bang to Cacharel Suitable for first and second year marketing or advertising students and for those new to or interested in branding and who are keen to know more
